PREFACE.

---

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL has been prepared to meet a want that has long been felt in our churches. The same meeting of the American Christian Missionary Society which authorized the publication of our present Hymn Book, unanimously recommended that, as soon as practicable, a Hymn and Tune Book should also be published. Since that time the Trustees of the Christian Hymn Book have had the matter under advisement, but, on account of having to make the plates for the several editions of the Hymn Book, the copyright accruing from the sale of that book has not been sufficient to justify them at an earlier day in going forward with the Hymn and Tune Book: they take pleasure, however, in saying that they hope the thoroughness and completeness of the present work will justify the delay.

In the compilation of the CHRISTIAN HYMNAL, the Trustees beg leave to say that, while they have had an eye to a just economy, they have, at the same time, spared no means to make the book as perfect as possible. To this end, they have not only secured the best copyrighted music now in use, but have also had written expressly for this work a number of new tunes by some of the most talented and popular composers in this country. Such names as Dr. Thomas Hastings, T. J. Cook, John Zundel, T. E. Perkins, Silas J. Vail, Philip Phillips, W. H. Doane, Solon Wilder, A. Squire, etc., need only be mentioned to assure the superior character of the new music introduced. These men have all been in constant correspondence with the Editing Committee in Cincinnati, and have rendered valuable assistance in the preparation of the work. Thanks are especially due to Mr. W. H. Doane, of this city, for suggestions in reference to the general plan and style of the book, as well as for his admirable contributions to it.

The Editing Committee have kept constantly in view the importance of meeting the wants of all classes in our churches; hence they have attempted to bring the Old and New together in such a dress, and in such relations to each other, as that there shall be no incompatibility between them. The old standard tunes that have stood the test of long use will be found always to occupy the first place, while many familiar pieces, that are especially valuable because of endearing associations, have been harmonized expressly for this work by the best harmonists in the United States. These, with all other new arrangements, are marked with a star—thus: ✱—and should not be used in other works without permission. The same caution should be observed in reference to all music marked (New), such pieces having been written expressly for the CHRISTIAN HYMNAL.

The hymns, with a few exceptions, have been selected from the Christian Hymn Book, and embrace every variety of meter in that book. An index has been arranged, in which all the omitted hymns of the Christian Hymn Book are referred to pages in this book where suitable tunes may be found. Hence a complete adaptation to the entire Hymn Book is provided for, and this, of itself, renders the HYMNAL invaluable, as it contains a larger variety of metrical music than any other book now published.

Special attention has been given to the adaptation of music to the hymns. Where hymns and tunes have been long associated, they have not been divorced, except for very obvious reasons. The value of both a hymn and tune is often largely dependent upon their association; hence a separation would tend to render both comparatively useless. In all the adaptations, it has been the aim of the Committee to select such music as would best harmonize with the spirit of the words. In this it is believed they have succeeded—at least, to a reasonable degree. They have, however, placed in the margin of the pages other tunes, and the keys in which they are written, so that singers may take their choice.

It will readily be seen that most of the tunes are suitable for congregational singing—simple carols—easily sung, but very effective when well sung. A few of the more difficult pieces of this kind have been inserted to meet the wants of those who would not be satisfied without them, while special attention has been given to the selection of a fine class of music for social meetings and the home circle. Many of the new pieces are set to the most beautiful hymns in the Hymn Book—hymns that have been, heretofore, almost useless for the want of music adapted to them.

During the preparation of the work, both the Editing Committee and Trustees have been in correspondence with a number of leading brethren known to possess good musical taste, who have kindly furnished contributions and valuable suggestions. It is, however, but just to say that, for the arrangement of the book, selection of tunes, adaptations, proof-reading, etc., etc., grateful acknowledgments should be made to Prof. J. P. Powell and Miss Bettie Wilson, of this city, to whose enthusiasm and interest in the work the public is largely indebted for much that is valuable in it. Mention should also be made of the generous courtesy of a number of authors, who have granted the privilege of using their copyrighted music free of charge: among these, T. E. Perkins, S. J. Vail, Solon Wilder, J. M. Pelton, and T. J. Cook, are gratefully remembered.

In conclusion, the Trustees desire to say that they feel a special pleasure in being able to furnish the book at such low rates. Notwithstanding the heavy outlay—which they had necessarily to make—by a careful economy of space, they have been able, it is believed, to produce a book containing more hymns and tunes than are generally found in larger works of the kind, furnishing a complete adaptation of music to the 1324 hymns of the Christian Hymn Book, of convenient size and shape, published in good style, and at rates at least fifty per cent. cheaper than any other book known to them, containing the same amount of matter. Hence it is hoped that the book will be acceptable to the Brotherhood for whom specially it has been published, and that it will prove to be a great blessing to the churches by exciting a more general and active interest in an important though much neglected part of Christian worship.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. The heavens declare thy glory, Lord; In every star thy wis - dom shines;

But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fair-er lines.

1 The works and the word of God. (1) 2 The Scriptures our light and guide. (5)

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days, thy power confess;
But the blest volume thou hast writ,
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars, convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest
Till thro' the world thy truth has run;
Till Christ has al' the nations blest
That see the light or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of Righteousness! arise;
Bless the dark world with heavenly light:
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view,
In souls renewed and sins forgiven;
Lord! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make thy word my guide to heaven.

1 When Israel thro' the desert passed,
A fiery pillar went before,
To guide them thro' the dreary waste,
And lessen the fatigues they bore.

2 Such is thy glorious word, O God;
'T is for our light and guidance given;
It sheds a luster all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heaven.

3 It fills the soul with sweet delight,
And quickens its inactive powers;
It sets our wandering footsteps right,
Displays thy love and kindles ours.

4 Its promises rejoice our hearts;
Its doctrine is divinely true;
Knowledge and pleasure it imparts;
It comforts and instructs us too.

5 Ye favored lands, who have this word
Ye saints, who feel its saving power
Unite your tongues to praise the Lord,
And his distinguished grace adore.

WARD. L. M.

Arr. by Dr. L. MASON.

- 3 1. There is a stream whose gen-tle flow Supplies the cit - y of our God;
2. That sacred stream, thy ho-ly word Supports our faith, our fear con-trols;

Life, love, and joy still gliding through, And watering our di-vine a - bode.
Sweet peace thy promises af - ford, And give new strength to fainting souls.

4 Divine love displayed. (2)

1 To thee, my heart, Eternal King!
Would now its thankful tribute bring,
To thee its humble homage raise
In songs of ardent, grateful praise.

2 All nature shows thy boundless love,
In worlds below and worlds above;
But in thy blessed word I trace
The richer glories of thy grace.

3 There what delightful truths are given;
There Jesus shows the way to heaven;
His name salutes my listening ear,
Revives my heart and checks my fear.

4 For love like this, oh, may our song
Thro' endless years thy praise prolong;
And distant climes thy name adore,
Till time and nature are no more!

5 Hold fast the form of sound words. (7)

1 God's law demands one living faith,
Not a gaunt crowd of lifeless creeds;
Its warrant is a firm "God saith;"
Its claim, not words, but living deeds.

2 Yet, Lord, forgive; thy simple law
Grows tarnished in our earthly grasp;
Pure in itself, without a flaw,
It dims in our too-worldly clasp.

3 We handle it with unwashed hands;
We stain it with unhallowed breath;
We gloss it with device of man's,
And hide thine image underneath.

4 Forgive the sacrilege, and take
From off our souls the unworthy stain;
And show us, for thy Son's dear sake,
Thy pure and perfect law again.

6 The power of God unto salvation. (268)

1 God, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known;
'T is here his richest mercy shines;
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here sinners of a humble frame
May taste his grace and learn his name;
'T is writ in characters of blood,
Severely just—immensely good.

3 Here Jesus, in ten thousand ways,
His soul-attracting charms displays;
Recounts his poverty and pains,
And tells his love in melting strains.

4 May this blest volume ever lie
Close to my heart, and near my eye—
Till life's last hour my soul engage,
And be my chosen heritage!

7 Thy testimonies are my delight. (10)

2 Here may the wretched sons of want
Exhaustless riches find;
Riches above what earth can grant,
And lasting as the mind.

3 Here the fair tree of knowledge grows,
And yields a rich repast;
Sublimar sweets than nature knows
Invite the longing taste.

4 Here springs of consolation rise
To cheer the fainting mind,
And thirsty souls receive supplies,
And sweet refreshment find.

5 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

6 Oh may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight;
And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light.

8 A light unto my path. (11)

1 What glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic like the sun!
It gives a light to every age—
It gives, but borrows none.

2 The hand that gave it, still supplies
His gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise—
They rise, but never set.

3 Let everlasting thanks be thine
For such a bright display,
As makes the world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

4 My soul rejoices to pursue
The paths of truth and love,
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

9 Thy word is a lamp. (9)

1 How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its precepts shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy, it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

MARLOW. C. M.

English.

10 Word of the everlasting God. (16)

1 Lamp of our feet! whereby we trace
Our path when wont to stray;
Stream from the fount of heavenly grace!
Brook by the traveler's way!

2 Bread of our souls, whereon we feed!
True manna from on high!
Our guide and chart, wherein we read
Of realms beyond the sky!

3 Pillar of fire through watches dark,
And radiant cloud by day!
When waves would whelm our tossing bark,
Our anchor and our stay!

4 Word of the everlasting God!
Will of his glorious Son!
Without thee, how could earth be trod,
Or heaven itself be won?

11 Wherewithal shall a young man, etc. (15)

1 How shall the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rule imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

2 'T is, like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.

3 Thy precepts make us truly wise;
We hate the sinner's road;
We hate our own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, O God!

4 Thy word is everlasting truth:
How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

1. Pre-cious Bi - ble! what a treasure Does the word of God af - ford!
All I want for life or pleasure, Food and med'cine, shield and sword:

D. C. Hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, A - men.

Let the world ac - count me poor, Hav - ing this I need no more.

13 The word more precious than gold. (22)

2 Food to which the world's a stranger,
Here my hungry soul enjoys;
Of excess there is no danger—
Though it fills, it never cloy:
On a dying Christ I feed;
He is meat and drink, indeed!

3 In the hour of dark temptation,
Satan can not make me yield;
For the word of consolation
Is to me a mighty shield:
While the Scripture truths are sure,
From his malice I'm secure.

14 Hark! ten thousand harps. (663)

1 Hark! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices—
Jesus reigns, the God of love.
See: he sits on yonder throne—
Jesus rules the world alone.

2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens
All above, and gives it worth;
Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth;
When we think of love like thine,
Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever—
Thine an everlasting crown;

Nothing from thy love shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own:
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.

4 Savior, hasten thine appearing;
Bring, oh bring the glorious day,
When, the awful summons hearing,
Heaven and earth shall pass away;
Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,
"Glory, glory to our King!"

15 Invitation. (1319)

1 Come to Calvary's holy mountain,
Sinners, ruined by the fall!
Here a pure and healing fountain
Flows, to cleanse the guilty soul,
In a full, perpetual tide—
Opened when the Savior died.

2 Come in sorrow and contrition,
Wounded, impotent, and blind;
Here the guilty find remission—
Here the lost a refuge find:
Health this fountain will restore;
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

3 Come, ye dying, live forever;
'T is a soul-reviving flood;
God is faithful—he will never
Break the cov'nant sealed in blood:
Signed when our Redeemer died;
Sealed when he was crucified.

The family Bible.

(23)

2 That Bible, the volume of God's inspiration,
At morn and at evening could yield us delight;
And the prayer of our sire was a sweet invocation
For mercy by day and for safety through night;
Our hymn of thanksgiving with harmony swelling
All warm from the heart of the family band,
Has raised us from earth to that rapturous dwelling,
Described in the Bible that lay on the stand.

I Praise ye the Lord! 'tis good to raise Our hearts and voices in his praise;

His na - ture and his works in - vite To make this du - ty our de-light.

17 Great is the Lord. (24)

2 Great is the Lord! and great his might,
And all his glories infinite;
His wisdom vast, and knows no bound—
A deep where all our thoughts are drowned.

3 He loves the meek, rewards the just,
Humbles the wicked in the dust,
Melts and subdues the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.

4 His saints are precious in his sight;
He views his children with delight;
He sees their hope, he knows their fear,
Approves and loves his image there.

18 Omnipresence of God. (27)

1 Father of spirits! nature's God!
Our inmost thoughts are known to thee;
Thou, Lord, canst hear each idle word,
And every private action see.

2 Could we, on morning's swiftest wings,
Pursue our flight thro' trackless air,
Or dive beneath deep ocean's springs,
Thy presence still would meet us there.

3 In vain may guilt attempt to fly,
Concealed beneath the pall of night:
One glance from thy all-piercing eye
Can kindle darkness into light.

4 Search thou our hearts, and there destroy
Each evil thought, each secret sin,
And fit us for those realms of joy
Where naught impure shall enter in.

19 Eternity of God. (25)

1 Ere mountains reared their forms sublime,
Or heaven and earth in order stood—
Before the birth of ancient time,
From everlasting thou art God.

2 A thousand ages, in their flight,
With thee are as a fleeting day;
Past, present, future, to thy sight
At once their various scenes display.

3 But our brief life's a shadowy dream—
A passing thought, that soon is o'er—
That fades with morning's earliest beam,
And fills the musing mind no more.

4 To us, O Lord, the wisdom give
Each passing moment so to spend,
That we at length with thee may live,
Where life and bliss shall never end.

20 Doxology. (728)

Praise God, ye heavenly hosts above!
Praise him all creatures of his love!
Praise him each morning, noon, and night!
Praise him with holy, sweet delight!

AVON. C. M.

Scotch.

I Lord, all I am is known to thee; In vain my soul would try
To shun thy presence, or to flee The notice of thine eye.

21 Lord, thou hast searched me, etc. (35)

2 Thy all-observing eye surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
The secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to thee, Lord,
Before they're formed within;
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
Thou knowest all I mean.

4 Oh let thine arms surround me still,
And like a bulwark prove,
To guard my soul from every ill,
Secured by sovereign love.

22 He trieth the reins. (40)

1 Great God! thy penetrating eye
Pervades my inmost powers;
With awe profound my wondering soul
Falls prostrate and adores.

2 To be encompassed round with God,
The Holy and the Just,
Armed with omnipotence to save,
Or crush me to the dust—

3 Oh how tremendous is the thought!
Deep may it be impressed;
And may thy Spirit firmly 'grave
This truth within my breast.

4 Begirt with thee, my fearless soul
The gloomy vale shall tread;
And thou wilt bind the immortal crown
Of glory on my head.

23 God seen in his works. (52)

1 There's not a tint that paints the rose
Or decks the lily fair,
Or streaks the humblest flower that blows,
But God has placed it there.

2 There's not a star whose twinkling light
Illumes the distant earth,
And cheers the solemn gloom of night,
But goodness gave it birth.

3 There's not a cloud whose dews distill
Upon the parching clod,
And clothe with verdure vale and hill,
That is not sent by God.

4 There's not a place in earth's vast round,
In ocean deep, or air,
Where skill and wisdom are not found:
For God is every-where.

5 Around, beneath, below, above,
Wherever space extends,
There heaven displays its boundless love
And power with goodness blends.

2 Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.

3 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth:

4 While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5 What though in solemn silence all
Move round this dark terrestrial ball—
What though no real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found—

6 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
Forever singing as they shine,
The hand that made us is divine!

25 The all-seeing God. (32)

1 Lord, thou hast searched and seen me thro';
Thine eye commands with piercing view
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak,
Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find thy hand:
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
What large extent! what lofty height!
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

26 He is clothed with majesty. (44)

1 Jehovah reigns: he dwells in light,
Arrayed with majesty and might;
The world, created by his hands,
Still on its firm foundation stands.

2 But ere this spacious world was made
Or had its first foundation laid,
His throne eternal ages stood,
Himself the ever-living God.

3 Forever shall his throne endure;
His promise stands forever sure;
And everlasting holiness
Becomes the dwellings of his grace.

2 Ye curling fountains, as ye roll
Your silver waves along,
Whisper to all your verdant shores
The subject of my song.

3 Retain it long, ye echoing rocks,
The sacred sound retain,
And from your hollow winding caves
Return it oft again.

4 Bear it, ye winds, on all your wings,
To distant climes away,
And round the wide-extended world
The lofty theme convey.

5 Take the glad burden of his name,
Ye clouds, as you arise,
Whether to deck the golden morn
Or shade the evening skies.

28 God of Bethel. (73)

1 O God of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led—

2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

3 Through each succeeding path of life,
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

4 Oh spread thy covering wings around,
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arive in peace.

29 Our dwelling place in all generations. (75)

1 Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

2 Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

4 A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

6 Our God, our help in ages past,

DALSTON. S. P. M.

1. The Lord Jehovah reigns, And royal state maintains,
His head with awful glories crowned;

Arrayed in robes of light, Begirt with sovereign might, And rays of majesty around.

30 Jehovah reigns. (57) 31 I was glad. (627)

1 The Lord Jehovah reigns,
And royal state maintains,
His head with awful glories crowned;
Arrayed in robes of light,
Begirt with sovereign might,
And rays of majesty around.

2 Upheld by thy commands,
The world securely stands,
And skies and stars obey thy word:
Thy throne was fixed on high
Before the starry sky:
Eternal is thy kingdom, Lord!

3 Thy promises are true;
Thy grace is ever new;
There fixed, thy church shall ne'er remove:
Thy saints with holy fear,
Shall in thy courts appear,
And sing thine everlasting love.

1 How pleased and blessed was I,
To hear the people cry—
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion! thrice happy place,
Adorned with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round;
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase—
A thousand blessings on him rest!

32 Laban, Key D. (54)

1 The Lord Jehovah reigns,
Let all the nations fear;
Let sinners tremble at his throne,
And saints be humble there.

2 Jesus, the Savior, reigns;
Let earth adore its Lord;
Bright cherubs his attendants wait,
Swift to fulfill his word.

3 In Zion stands his throne;
His honors are divine;
His church shall make his wonders known,
For there his glories shine.

4 How holy is his name!
How fearful is his praise!
Justice, and truth, and judgment join
In all the works of grace.

1. Th' Almighty reigns ex - alt - ed high O'er all the earth, o'er all the sky ;

Though clouds and darkness vail his feet, His dwelling is the mer - cy - seat.

33 Grace and glory. (62)

2 Oh ye that love his holy name,
Hate every work of sin and shame;
He guards the souls of all his friends,
And from the snares of hell defends.

3 Immortal light and joys unknown
Are for the saints in darkness sown:
Those glorious seeds shall spring and rise,
And the bright harvest bless our eyes.

4 Rejoice, ye righteous, and record
The sacred honors of the Lord:
None but the soul that feels his grace
Can triumph in his holiness.

34 Be thou exalted, O my God. (64)

1 My God, in whom are all the springs
Of boundless love and grace unknown,
Hide me beneath thy spreading wings,
Till the dark cloud is overblown.

2 Up to the heavens I send my cry,
The Lord will my desires perform;
He sends his angels from the sky,
And saves me from the threatening storm.

3 My heart is fixed: my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name;
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise,
My tongue, the glory of my frame.

4 High o'er earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

5 Be thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

35 God ever near. (60)

1 O love divine, that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee is cast each earth-born care,
We smile at pain while thou art near!

2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, thou art near!

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, thou art near!

4 On thee we fling our burdening woe.
O love divine, for ever dear,
Content to suffer while we know,
Living and dying, thou art near!

HE LEADETH ME. L. M. 6 lines. W. B. BRADBURY, by per.

1. He lead-eth me! Oh, blessed thought! Oh, words with heavenly comfort fraught!

Whate'er I do, whate'er I be, Still 't is God's hand that lead-eth me!

Refrain.

He lead-eth me! he lead-eth me! By his own hand he lead-eth me!

He lead-eth me! he lead-eth me! By his own hand he lead-eth me!

36 He leadeth me. (768)

2 Sometimes 'midst scenes of deepest gloom,
 Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom;
 By waters still, o'er troubled sea—
 Still 'tis his hand that leadeth me!
 He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
 By his own hand he leadeth me.

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hands in mine,
 Nor ever murmur nor repine—
 Content, whatever lot I see,
 Since 'tis my God that leadeth me.
 He leadeth me, etc.

4 And when my task on earth is done,
 When, by thy grace, the victory's won,
 E'en death's cold wave I will not flee;
 Since God through Jordan leadeth me.
 He leadeth me, etc.

37 Thy will be done. (68)

1 He sendeth sun, he sendeth shower;
 Alike they're needful for the flower;
 And joys and tears alike are sent
 To give the soul fit nourishment:
 As comes to me or cloud or sun,
 Father, thy will, not mine, be done!

2 Can loving children e'er reprove
 With murmurs whom they trust and love?
 Creator, I would ever be,
 A trusting, loving child to thee:
 As comes, etc.

3 Oh ne'er will I at life repine!
 Enough that thou hast made it mine;
 When fall the shadow cold of death,
 I yet will sing, with parting breath—
 As comes, etc.

Psalm 23.

(70)

3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
 Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
 His bounty shall my pains beguile;
 The barren wilderness shall smile,
 With lively greens and herbage crowned,
 And streams shall murmur all around.

4 Though in the paths of death I tread,
 With gloomy horrors overspread,
 My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
 For thou, O Lord! art with me still;
 Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
 And guide me through the dismal shade.

39

Touched with the feeling of, etc.

(999)

1 When gathering clouds around I view,
 And days are dark and friends are few;
 On him I lean, who, not in vain,
 Experienced every human pain.
 He sees my wants, allays my fears,
 And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
 To fly the good I would pursue,
 Or do the ill I would not do;
 Still he who felt temptation's power,
 Will guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend,
 Which covers all that was a friend;
 And from his hand, his voice, his smile,
 Divides me for a little while—
 My Savior marks the tears I shed,
 For "Jesus wept" o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh! when I have safely passed
 Through every conflict but the last,
 Still, Lord, unchanging, watch beside
 My dying bed, for thou hast died;
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe the latest tear away.

41 Psalm 146. (72)

2 Happy the man whose hopes rely
 On Israel's God: he made the sky,
 And earth, and seas, with all their train.
 His truth forever stands secure:

He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor,
 And none shall find his promise vain.

3 The Lord pours eyesight on the blind;
 The Lord supports the fainting mind,

He sends the laboring conscience peace:
 He helps the stranger in distress,
 The widow and the fatherless,
 And grants the prisoner sweet release.

42 The entrance of thy word giveth light. (8)

1 I love the volume of thy word;
 What light and joy those leaves afford

To souls benighted and distressed!
 Thy precepts guide my doubtful way,
 Thy fear forbids my feet to stray,
 Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

2 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering eyes,
 And warn me where my danger lies;
 But 'tis thy blessed gospel, Lord,
 That makes my guilty conscience clean,
 Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
 And gives a free but large reward.

3 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
 My God, forgive my secret faults,
 And from presumptuous sins restrain;
 Accept my poor attempts of praise,
 That I have read thy book of grace,
 And book of nature, not in vain.

Gratitude.

(78)

3 When in the slippery paths of youth
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.

4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ,
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.

6 Through all eternity, to thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
But oh! eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise!

45

The God of my life.

1 Father of mercies! God of love!
My Father and my God!
I'll sing the honors of thy name,
And spread thy praise abroad.

2 In every period of my life
Thy thoughts of love appear;
Thy mercies gild each transient scene,
And crown each passing year.

3 In all thy mercies, may my soul
A Father's bounty see;
Nor let the gifts thy grace bestows
Estrange my heart from thee.

4 Teach me, in times of deep distress,
To own thy hand, O God!
And in submissive silence learn
The lessons of thy rod.

5 Then may I close my eyes in death,
Redeemed from anxious fear:
For death itself, my God, is life,
If thou be with me there.

Majesty of God.

(90)

1 The Lord descended from above
And bowed the heavens most high,
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.

2 On cherubim and seraphim
Full royally he rode;
And on the wings of mighty winds,
Came flying all abroad.

3 He sat serene upon the floods,
Their fury to restrain;
And he, as sovereign Lord and King,
For evermore shall reign.

47 The judgments are a great deep. (79)

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his gracious will.

3 You fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds you so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain:
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

48 Thou hast taught me from my youth (87)

1 Almighty Father of mankind!
On thee my hopes remain;
And when the day of trouble comes,
I shall not trust in vain.

2 In early years, thou wast my guide,
And of my youth the friend;
And, as my days began with thee,
With thee my days shall end.

3 I know the power in whom I trust,
The arm on which I lean;
He will my Savior ever be,
Who has my Savior been.

4 Thou wilt not cast me off, when age
And evil days descend;
Thou wilt not leave me in despair,
To mourn my latter end.

49 His tender mercies. (83)

1 Thy goodness, Lord, our souls confess;
Thy goodness we adore;
A spring whose blessings never fail;
A sea without a shore.

2 Sun, moon, and stars thy love attest
In every golden ray;
Love draws the curtains of the night,
And love brings back the day.

3 Thy bounty every season crowns
With all the bliss it yields,
With joyful clusters loads the vines,
With strengthening grain the fields

4 But chiefly thy compassion, Lord,
Is in the gospel seen;
There, like a sun, thy mercy shines,
Without a cloud between.

5 There, pardon, peace, and holy joy
Through Jesus' name are given;
He on the cross was lifted high,
That we might reign in heaven.

Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 3 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.
- 4 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel:
He knows our feeble frame.
- 5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower:
If one sharp blast sweeps o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.
- 6 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

60 God only wise. (105)

3 Through each bright world above, behold
Ten thousand thousand charms unfold;
Earth, air, and mighty seas combine
To speak his wisdom all divine.

4 But in redemption, oh what grace!
Its wonders, oh, what thought can trace!
Here, wisdom shines for ever bright;
Praise him, my soul, with sweet delight.

61 What is man? (109)

1 Lord, what is man? Extremes how wide
In this mysterious nature join!
The flesh to worms and dust allied,
The soul immortal and divine.

2 Divine at first, a holy flame
Kindled by heaven's inspiring breath;
Till sin, with power prevailing, came,
Then followed darkness, shame and death.

3 But Jesus, oh amazing grace!
Assumed our nature as his own,
Obeyed and suffered in our place,
Then took it with him to his throne.

4 Now, what is man, when grace reveals
The virtue of a Savior's blood?
Again a life divine he feels,
Despises earth and walks with God.

5 And what, in yonder realms above,
Is ransomed man ordained to be?
With honor, holiness, and love,
No seraph more adorned than he.

6 Nearest the throne, and first in song,
Man shall his hallelujahs raise;
While wondering angels round him throng
And swell the chorus of his praise.

62 The reconciliation. (108)

1 Oh love beyond conception great,
That formed the vast, stupendous plan,
Where all divine perfections meet
To reconcile rebellious man:

2 There wisdom shines in fullest blaze,
And justice all her right maintains—
Astonished angels stoop to gaze,
While mercy o'er the guilty reigns.

3 Yes, mercy reigns, and justice too;
In Christ thee both harmonious meet;
He paid to justice all her due,
And now he fills the mercy-seat.

63 Love—that passeth knowledge. (110)

1 O love of God, how strong and true!
Eternal and yet ever new:
Above all price, and still unbought;
Beyond all knowledge and all thought.

2 O wide embracing, wondrous love,
We read thee in the sky above;
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.

3 We read thee best in him who came
To bear for us the Cross of shame;
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.

PERON. 8s, 7s & 4.

1. Guide me, O thou great Je - ho - vah, Pilgrim thro' this bar - ren land ;
I am weak, but thou art might - y, Hold me with thy powerful hand ;

Bread of heav - en, Bread of heav - en, Feed me till I want no more.

64 Jehovah my strength. (115)

2 Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing waters flow ;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar,
Lead me all my journey through ;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid the swelling stream divide ;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side !
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

65 Praise the King of heaven. (101)

1 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven ;
To his feet thy tribute bring ;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me his praise should sing ?
Praise him ! praise him !
Praise the everlasting King !

2 Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress ;
Praise him, still the same forever :
Slow to chide, and swift to bless ;
Praise him ! praise him !
Glorious in his faithfulness !

3 Father-like he tends and spares us ;
Well our feeble frame he knows ;
In his hands he gently bears us—
Rescues us from all our foes ;
Praise him ! praise him !
Widely as his mercy flows !

66 It is finished. (175)

1 Hark ! the voice of love and mercy
Sounds aloud from Calvary ;
See ! it rends the rocks asunder,
Shakes the earth and vaults the sky !
It is finished !
Hear the dying Savior cry.

2 It is finished ! Oh what pleasure
Do these precious words afford !
Heavenly blessings without measure
Flow to us from Christ the Lord ;
It is finished !
Saints, the dying words record.

3 Finished all the types and shadows
Of the ceremonial law !
Finished all that God had promised ;
Death and hell no more shall awe :
It is finished !
Saints, from this your comfort draw

PARK STREET. L. M.

VENUA.

1. When Jordan hushed his waters still, And silence slept on Zion's hill; When Bethlehem's shepherds thro' the night, Watched o'er their flocks by starry light, Watched o'er their flocks by starry light—

67

Luke 2: 11.

(117)

2 Hark! from the midnight hills around,
A voice of more than mortal sound,
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.

3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came;
High heaven with songs of triumph rung,
While thus they struck their harps and sung:

4 "O Zion, lift thy raptured eye;
The long-expected hour is nigh;
The joys of nature rise again;
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

5 "See, Mercy, from her golden urn,
Pours a rich stream to them that mourn;
Behold, she binds with tender care,
The bleeding bosom of despair.

6 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart:
Bids Satan and his hosts depart;
Again the day-star gilds the gloom,
Again the bowers of Eden bloom."

68

Genesis 3: 15.

(118)

1 Behold the woman's promised seed!
Behold the great Messiah come!
Behold the prophets all agreed
To give him the superior room!

2 Abrah'm, the saint, rejoiced of old,
When visions of the Lord he saw;
Moses, the man of God, foretold
This great fulfiller of his law.

3 The types bore witness to his name,
Obtained their chief design, and ceased—
The incense and the bleeding lamb,
The ark, the altar, and the priest.

4 Predictions in abundance join
To pour their witness on his head:
Jesus, we bow before thy throne,
And own thee as the promised seed.

69 He hath the keys of hell and of death (218)

1 Hail to the Prince of Life and Peace,
Who holds the keys of death and hell;
The spacious world unseen is his,
The sovereign power becomes him well.

2 In shame and anguish once he died;
But now he lives for evermore;
Bow down, you saints, around his seat,
And all you angel bands adore;

3 Live, live forever, glorious Lord,
To crush thy foes and guard thy friends,
While all thy chosen tribes rejoice
That thy dominion never ends.

4 Worthy thy hand to hold the keys,
Guided by wisdom and by love;
Worthy to rule our mortal lives,
O'er worlds below and worlds above.

5 Forever reign, victorious King!
Wide through the earth thy name be known,
And call our longing souls to sing
Sublimar anthems near thy throne.

BOONTON. C. H. M.

W. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. In hymns of praise, eternal God, When thy creating hand, } Stretched the blue arch of heaven abroad, And meted sea and land, } The morning stars together sung, And shouts of joy from angels rung, And shouts of joy from angels rung.

70 Glory to God—good will to men. (119)

2 Than earth's prime hour, more joyous far,
 Was the eventful morn,
 When the bright beam of Bethlehem's star
 Announced a Savior born!

Then sweeter strains from heaven began,
 "Glory to God—good will to man."

3 Babe of the manger! can it be?

Art thou the Son of God?

Shall subject nations bow the knee,

And kings obey thy nod?

Shall thrones and monarchs prostrate fall
 Before the tenant of a stall?

4 'Tis he! the hymning seraphs cry,

While hovering drawn to earth;

'Tis he! the shepherds' songs reply;

Hail! hail! Immanuel's birth;

The rod of peace those hands shall bear,
 That brow a crown of glory wear.

71 The ineffable glory of God. (55)

1 Since o'er thy footstool here below

Such radiant gems are strewn,

Oh what magnificence must glow,

Great God, about thy throne!

So brilliant here these drops of light—
 There the full ocean rolls, how bright!

2 If night's blue curtain of the sky—

With thousand stars inwrought,

Hung like a royal canopy

With glittering diamonds fraught—

Be, Lord, thy temple's outer veil,
 What splendor at the shrine must dwell!

3 The dazzling sun at noonday hour—

Forth from his flaming vase

Flinging o'er earth the golden shower

Till vale and mountain blaze—

But shows, O Lord, one beam of thine;

What, then, the day where thou dost shine!

4 Oh how shall these dim eyes endure

That noon of living rays!

Or how our spirits so impure,

Upon thy glory gaze!

Anoint, O Lord, anoint our sight,

And fit us for that world of light.

72 Job 1: 21. (777)

1 When I can trust my all with God,

In trial's fearful hour—

Bow all resigned beneath his rod,

And bless his sparing power;

A joy springs up amid distress,

A fountain in the wilderness.

2 Oh! to be brought to Jesus' feet,

Though trials fix me there,

Is still a privilege most sweet;

For he will hear my prayer;

Though sighs and tears its language be.

The Lord is nigh to answer me.

3 Then, blessed be the hand that gave.

Still blessed when it takes;

Blessed be he who smites to save,

Who heals the heart he breaks;

Perfect and true are all his ways,

Whom heaven adores and death obeys.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. It came up - on the mid - night clear, That glorious song of old,
2. Still thro' the clo - ven skies they come, With peaceful wings un - furled;

S. From an - gels bend - ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold;
D. S. The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing.
And still their heavenly mu - sic floats O'er all the wear - y world;
D. S. And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds, The bles - sed an - gels sing.

Fine.

D. S.
"Peace to the earth, good will to men, From heaven's all-gracious King;"
A - bove its sad and low - ly plains, They bend on heavenly wing,

73 Song of the angels. (120)

- 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And men, at war with men, hear not
The love-song which they bring:
Oh! hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!
- 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow;
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
Oh! rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!
- 5 For lo! the days are hast'ning on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;

When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendor fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

74 The Advent. (124)

- 1 Hark, the glad sound! the Savior comes!
The Savior promised long!
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
He comes, the prisoner to release
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 2 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.
He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of his grace
To enrich the humble poor.

ANTIOCH. C. M.

Arranged from Handel by Dr. L. MASON.

1. Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth re-ceive her King:

Let ev-ery heart prepare him room, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and na-ture sing, And heaven, And heaven and na-ture sing.

75 Joy to the World. (125)

2 Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

76 God is gone up with a shout. (199)

1 Arise, ye people, and adore,
Exulting strike the chord;
Let all the earth, from shore to shore,
Confess the almighty Lord.

2 Glad shouts aloud—wide echoing round,
The ascending Lord proclaim;
The angelic choir respond the sound,
And shake creation's frame.

3 They sing of death and hell o'erthrown
In that triumphant hour;
And God exalts his conquering Son
To his right hand of power.

77 Mortals, awake. (121)

1 Mortals! awake, with angels join,
And chant the solemn lay;
Love, joy, and gratitude combine
To hail the auspicious day.

2 In heaven the rapturous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And swept the sounding lyre.

3 The theme, the song, the joy was new
To each angelic tongue;
Swift through the realms of light it flew,
And loud the echo rung.

4 Down through the portals of the sky
The pealing anthem ran,
And angels flew with eager joy
To bear the news to man.

ZERAH. C. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. To us a child of hope is born, To us a Son is given;

Him shall the tribes of earth o - bey, Him, all the hosts of heaven;

Him shall the tribes of earth o - bey, Him, all the hosts of heaven.

78Isaiah 9: 6.*

(122)

- 2 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
For evermore adored,
The Wonderful, the Counselor,
The great and mighty Lord.
- 3 His power, increasing, still shall spread;
His reign no end shall know;
Justice shall guard his throne above,
And peace abound below.

79He shall save his people.*

(254)

- 1 Salvation! oh the joyful sound;
'Tis pleasure to our ears;
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay;
But we arise by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around;
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

80Children's Hymn.*

(234)

- 1 Hosanna! raise the pealing hymn
To David's Son and Lord;
With cherubim and seraphim
Exalt the incarnate Word.
- 2 Hosanna! Lord, our feeble tongue
No lofty strains can raise:
But thou wilt not despise the young
Who meekly chant thy praise.
- 3 Hosanna! Sovereign, Prophet, Priest,
How vast thy gifts, how free!
Thy Blood, our life; thy Word, our feast;
Thy Name, our only plea.
- 4 Hosanna! Master, lo! we bring
Our offerings to thy throne;
Not gold, nor myrrh, nor mortal thing,
But hearts to be thine own.
- 5 O Savior, if, redeemed by thee
Thy temple we behold,
Hosannas through eternity
We'll sing to harps of gold.

WATCHMAN. 7s, Double.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Watchman, tell us of the night, What its signs of promise are!
 2. Watchman, tell us of the night; Higher yet that star ascends. Trav'ler, blessedness and heights See that glory-beaming star! Watchman, does its beauteous ray Aught of light, Peace and truth its course portends. Watchman, will its beams alone Gild the joy or hope foretell? Trav'ler, yes; it brings the day, Promised day of Is-ra-el.
 spot that gave them birth? Trav'ler, ages are its own; See! it bursts o'er all the earth.

81 Watchman, what of the night! (128)

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn.
 Trav'ler, darkness takes its flight,
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
 Watchman, let thy wandering cease;
 Hie thee to thy quiet home.
 Trav'ler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
 Lo! the Son of God is come!

82 Christ is born in Bethlehem. (126)

1 Hark! the herald angels sing,
 "Glory to the new-born King!
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
 God and sinners reconciled."
 Joyful, all ye nations, rise;
 Join the triumphs of the skies;
 With th' angelic host proclaim,
 "Christ is born in Bethlehem."

2 See, he lays his glory by;
 Born that man no more may die;
 Born to raise the sons of earth;
 Born to give them second birth.

Vailed in flesh the Godhead see!
 Hail, th' incarnate Deity!
 Pleased as man with man to dwell,
 Jesus, our Immanuel!

3 Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
 Hail, the Son of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Risen with healing in his wings.
 Let us then with angels sing,
 "Glory to the new-born King!
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild
 God and sinners reconciled!"

83 Col. 1: 11, 12. (747)

1 Glorious in thy saints appear;
 Plant thy heavenly kingdom here;
 Light and life to all impart;
 Shine on each believing heart;
 And, in every grace complete,
 Make us, Lord, for glory meet;
 Till we stand before thy sight,
 Partners with the saints in light.

HADDAM. H. M.

English.

1. Hark! hark! the notes of joy Roll o'er the heav'nly plains,
And seraphs find em-ploy - - - For their sublimest strains; }

Some new de-light in heaven is known, Loud sound the harps around the throne.

84 Good tidings of great joy. (132)

2 Hark! hark! the sound draws nigh—
The joyful host descends;
The Lord forsakes the sky,
To earth his footsteps bends:
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

3 Bear, bear the tidings round!
Let every mortal know
What love in God is found,
What pity he can show:
Ye winds that blow, ye waves that roll,
Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

4 Strike, strike the harps again,
To great Immanuel's name!
Arise, ye sons of men,
And all his grace proclaim:
Angels and men, wake every string,
'Tis God the Savior's praise we sing!

85 A birthday hymn. (1174)

1 God of my life, to thee
My cheerful soul I raise,
Thy goodness bade me be,
And still prolongs my days:
I see my natal hour return,
And bless the day that I was born.

2 Though but a child of earth,
I glorify thy name,
From whom alone my birth,
And all my blessing came;
Creating and preserving grace
Let all that is within me praise.

3 My soul and all its powers,
Thine, wholly thine, shall be;
All, all my happy hours
I consecrate to thee;
Whate'er I have, whate'er I am,
Shall magnify my Maker's name.

4 Long as I live beneath,
To thee oh let me live,
To thee my ev'ry breath
In thanks and blessings give;
Me to thine image, Lord, restore,
And I shall praise thee evermore.

86 Believing, we rejoice. (545)

1 Ye saints, your music bring,
Attuned to sweetest sound,
Strike every trembling string,
Till earth and heaven resound;
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

2 The cross, the cross alone,
Subdued the powers of hell;
Like lightning from his throne
The prince of darkness fell.
The triumphs of the cross we sing,
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

3 The cross hath power to save
From all the foes that rise;
The cross hath made the grave
A passage to the skies;
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

THE CHORUS OF ANGELS. 8s &amp; 7s. (New.) T. E. PERKINS.

1. { Hark! what joyful notes are swell-ing On the qui-et mid-night air!
'Tis the voice of an-gels tell-ing,

Je-sus comes our sins to bear! { Now the mu-sic, in its glad-ness,
Now, earth, waking from her sad-ness.

Breaks and swells and glides a-long! } Joins the cho-rus of the song!

Chorus.
{ Glory in the highest heaven! Peace on earth, good will to man!
Let all praise to God be given, For redemption's glorious plan.

CHORUS FOR LAST VERSE.

{ Glory in the highest heaven! Sound aloud the joyful strain!
{ Glory to the Lamb be given, Who for sinners once was slain.

- 87 Chorus of the angels. (134)
- 2 See all darkness disappearing
As the star begins to rise!
Sin and death stand trembling, fearing,
As the light falls on their eyes:
Now, again, the earth rejoices,
Satan's powerful kingdom shakes,
As, from all the heavenly voices,
Louder still the chorus breaks!
- 3 Rise and shine, Star of Salvation!
Spread thy beams o'er all the earth,
Till each distant land and nation
Owns and speaks thy matchless worth!
Till all tongues, thy praises singing,
Shall thy mighty wonders tell!
Till all heaven with joy is ringing,
As our hearts the chorus swell!
- 4 When our days on earth are ended,
And we rise to worlds above,
Then our songs shall all be blended
In one song of pardoning love!
Then we'll tell the wondrous story,
And our blessed Lord adore;
In our home of bliss and glory
We shall sing for evermore!
- 88 Shepherds, hail the wondrous, etc. (133)
Shepherds, hail the wondrous stranger!
Now to Bethlehem speed your way;
Lo! in yonder humble manger,
Christ the Lord is born to-day.
Bright the star of your salvation,
Pointing to his rude abode:
Rapturous news for every nation—
Now, behold the Son of God!

MANOR. 8s &amp; 7s, Double.*

Arr. fr. the Oriola, by J. P. POWELL.

1. Hark! what mean those holy voices, Sweetly sounding thro' the skies?
Lo! th' angel - ic host re - joi - ces, - - - - - Heavenly hal - le - lujahs rise. Hear them tell the wondrous story, Hear them chant in hymns of joy— "Glo - ry to the highest, glo - ry; Glo - ry be to God most high!"

89 Hark! what mean those holy voices? (135)

2 "Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found;
Souls redeemed and sins forgiven!"

Loud our golden harps shall sound.

"Christ is born, the great anointed;
Heaven and earth his praises sing;

Oh receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King!

90 Christ, the Savior, born. (136)

1 Hail, thou long-expected Jesus!

Born to set thy people free;

From our sins and fears release us,

Let us find our rest in thee.

Israel's strength and consolation,

Hope of all the saints, thou art;

Long-desired of every nation,
Joy of every waiting heart.

2 Born, thy people to deliver—

Born a child, yet Christ, our king—

Born to reign in us forever—

Now thy gracious kingdom bring.

By thine own eternal Spirit,
Rule in all our hearts alone;
By thine all-sufficient merit,
Raise us to thy glorious throne.

91 Onward! (1275)

1 Onward, onward, men of heaven!

Bear the gospel banner high;

Rest not till its light is given—

Star of every pagan sky;

Send it where the pilgrim stranger

Faints beneath the torrid ray;

Bid the hearty forest ranger

Hail it ere he fades away.

2 Where the Arctic ocean thunders,

Where the tropics fiercely glow,

Broadly spread its page of wonders,

Brightly bid its radiance flow;

India marks its luster stealing;

Shivering Greenland loves its rays;

Afric, 'mid her deserts kneeling,

Lifts the untaught strain of praise.

STAR IN THE EAST. 11s & 10s.✳

Arr. by J. ZUNDEL.
Five.

1. Hail the blest morn! when the great Mediator Down from the regions of glory descends! }
Shepherds, go worship the babe in the manger; Lo! for your guide the bright angel attends! }
D. C. Star of the East, the horizon adorning, Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

VOCAL OR INSTRUMENTAL BASE.

* Sing small notes in repeat.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thy aid;

92 Hail the blest morn. (138)

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall:
Angles adore him in slumbers reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Savior of all!

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Eden, and offerings divine;
Gems from the mountain, and pearls from the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

SILENT NIGHT. 6, 6, 9, 9, 6.

Tyrolese Melody.

1. Silent night! hallowed night! Land and deep si-lent sleep; { Softly glitters bright
Beck'ning Is-ra-el's

Bethlehem's star, } eye from a - far, } Where the Savior is born, Where the Sav-ior is born.

93 Silent night. (131)

2 Silent night! hallowed night!
On the plain wakes the strain,
Sung by heavenly harbingers bright,
Fraught with tidings of boundless delight:
Christ the Savior has come.

3 Silent night! hallowed night!
Earth awake, silence break,
High your anthems of melody raise,
Heaven and earth in full chorus of praise:
Peace forever shall reign.

SCOTLAND. 12s.

Dr. CLARKE.

1. From the regions of love, lo! an an-gel des-cend-ed, And told the strange news how the babe was at-tend-ed; Go, shepherds, and vis-it the won-der-ful stranger; See yon-der bright star! there's your Lord in a manger, purchased our pardon, We'll praise him a-gain when we pass ov-er Jor-dan, See yon-der bright star! there's your Lord in a man-ger. We'll praise him a-gain when we pass o-ver Jor-dan.

94Hallelujah to the Lamb.*

2 Glad tidings I bring unto you and each nation!
 Glad tidings of joy—now behold your salvation;
 Then suddenly multitudes raise their glad voices,
 And shout hallelujahs, while heaven rejoices!

3 Now glory to God in the highest be given,
 All glory to God is re-echoed from heaven;
 Around the whole earth let us tell the glad story,
 And sing of his love, his salvation, and glory.

95The voice of free grace.*

(332)

1 The voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the mountain!"
 For Adam's lost race Christ hath opened a fountain;
 For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression,
 His blood flows most freely in streams of salvation.

2 Ye souls that are wounded! O! flee to the Savior;
 He calls you in mercy—'tis infinite favor;
 Your sins are increasing—escape to the mountain—
 His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain.

GRATITUDE. L. M.

BOST.

1. How sweet - ly flowed the gos - pel sound }
From lips of gen - tle - ness and grace, } When list' - ning thousands gathered round, And joy and glad - ness filled the place.

96

His teaching.

(141)

- 2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.
- 3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home;
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest!"
Yes, sacred teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

97

Meekness and gentleness of Christ.

(144)

- 1 How bounteous were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine;
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!
- 2 Oh, who like thee—so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
Oh, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?
- 3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?
- 4 Oh, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe;
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God!

98

(146)

- 1 My dear Redeemer and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears
Drawn out in living characters.

- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

- 4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God the judge shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

99

His holy life.

(143)

- 1 And is the gospel peace and love?
Such let our conversation be;
The serpent blended with the dove—
Wisdom and meek simplicity.
- 2 Whene'er the angry passions rise,
And tempt our thoughts or tongues to strife,
On Jesus let us fix our eyes,
Bright pattern of the Christian life.
- 3 Oh how benevolent and kind!
How mild! how ready to forgive!
Be his the temper of our mind,
And his the rules by which we live.
- 4 To do his heavenly Father's will
Was his employment and delight;
Humility, and love, and zeal,
Shone through his life divinely bright.
- 5 Dispensing good where'er he came,
The labors of his life were love—
Oh! if we love the Savior's name,
Let his divine example move.

EDMESTON. C. M.

1. A pil-grim thro' this lone-ly world The bless-ed Sav-ior passed;

A mourner all his life was he, A dy-ing Lamb at last.

100 The man of sorrows. (150)

2 That tender heart which felt for all,
For us its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave?

3 Such was our Lord: and shall we fear
The cross with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed his brow with thorn?

4 No; facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like him, obedient still,
We homeward press, through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

101 He went about doing good. (149)

1 Behold, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine;
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.

3 'Midst keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek he stood;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life:
He labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned, he bowed, and said,
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"

5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide;
His image may we bear;
Oh, may we tread his holy steps,
His joy and glory share!

102 The bitter cup. (160)

1 Dark was the night and cold the ground
On which the Lord was laid:
His sweat like drops of blood ran down;
In agony he prayed:

2 "Father, remove this bitter cup,
If such thy sacred will;
If not, content to drink it up,
Thy pleasure I fulfill."

3 Go to the garden, sinner: see
Those precious drops that flow,
The heavy load he bore for thee:
For thee he lies so low.

4 Then learn of him the cross to bear,
Thy Father's will obey;
And when temptations press thee near,
Awake to watch and pray.

ARIEL. C. P. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Oh, could I speak the matchless worth, Oh, could I sound the glories forth

Which in my Sav - ior shine! { I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings, }
 { And vie with Gabriel while he sings, }

In notes al - most di - vine, In notes al - most di - vine.

103 His unsearchable riches. (152)

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
 My ransom from the dreadful guilt
 Of sin, and wrath divine;
 I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
 In which all-perfect, heavenly dress,
 My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
 And all the forms of love he wears,
 Exalted on his throne;
 In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
 I would to everlasting days
 Make all his glories known.

4 Well, the delightful day will come,
 When my dear Lord will bring me home,
 And I shall see his face;
 Then, with my Savior, Brother, Friend,
 A blest eternity I'll spend,
 Triumphant in his grace.

104 The only foundation. (257)

1 Had I ten thousand gifts beside,
 I'd cleave to Jesus crucified,
 And build on him alone;
 For no foundation is there given
 On which to place my hopes of heaven,
 But Christ the corner-stone.

2 Possessing Christ, I all possess,
 Wisdom, and strength, and righteousness,
 And holiness complete;
 Bold in his name, I dare draw nigh
 Before the Ruler of the sky,
 And all his justice meet.

3 There is no path to heavenly bliss,
 To solid joy or lasting peace,
 But Christ, th' appointed road;
 Oh may we tread the sacred way,
 By faith rejoice, and praise, and pray,
 Till we sit down with God!

Sav - ior, who can love like thee? Gra - cious one of Beth - a - ny!
Tru - ly, none can feel like thee, Weep - ing one of Beth - a - ny!

105Jesus wept.*

(156)

- 3 Jesus wept, and still in glory
He can mark each mourner's tear—
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany!
- 4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same shall ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Living one of Bethany!

106Sweet it is to trust in thee.*

(1206)

- 1 Through the day thy love hath spared us,
Wearied we lie down to rest;
Through the silent watches guards us,
Let no foe our peace molest.
Father! thou our guardian be;
Sweet it is to trust in thee.
- 2 Wandering in the land of strangers,
Dwelling in the midst of foes,

Us and ours preserve from dangers:
In thy love we all repose.
Father! thou our guardian be;
Sweet it is to trust in thee.

107 What is your life? Even a vapor. (1078)

- 1 What is life? 'Tis but a vapor;
Soon it vanishes away:
Life is but a dying taper—
O my soul, why wish to stay?
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy!
- 2 See that glory, how resplendent!
Brighter far than fancy paints;
There, in majesty transcendent,
Jesus reigns, the King of saints:
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy!
- 3 Joyful crowds, his throne surrounding
Sing with rapture of his love;
Through the heavens his praise resounding
Filling all the courts above:
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy!

The midnight agony.

(159)

3 'T is midnight; and for others' guilt | 4 'T is midnight; from the heavenly plains
The man of sorrows weeps in blood; | Is born the song that angels know;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt | Unheard by mortals are the strains
Is not forsaken by his God. | That sweetly soothe the Savior's woe.

2 He bows beneath the sins of men;
He cries to God, and cries again,
In sad Gethsemane:
He lifts his mournful eyes above—
"My Father, can this cup remove?"

3 With gentle resignation still,
He yielded to his Father's will
In sad Gethsemane:
"Behold me here, thine only Son;
And, Father, let thy will be done."

4 The Father heard; and angels there
Sustained the Son of God in prayer,
In sad Gethsemane:
He drank the dreadful cup of pain—
Then rose to life and joy again.

5 When storms of sorrow round us sweep,
And scenes of anguish make us weep,
To sad Gethsemane
We'll look and see the Savior there,
And humbly bow, like him, in prayer

CALM. C. L. M.

Dr. HASTINGS.

1. How calm and beau - ti - ful the morn That gilds the sa - cred tomb,

Where once the Cru - ci - fied was borne, And veiled in mid - night gloom!

Oh, weep no more the Sav - ior slain; The Lord is risen, he lives a - gain.

110 The Lord is risen. (186)

2 Ye mourning saints! dry every tear
For your departed Lord;

“Behold the place—he is not here;”

The tomb is all unbarred;
The gates of death were closed in vain;
The Lord is risen—he lives again.

3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
Your early footsteps bend,

The Savior will himself be there,
Your advocate and friend:

Once by the law your hopes were slain,
But now in Christ ye live again.

4 How tranquil now the rising day!
’Tis Jesus still appears,

A risen Lord to chase away
Your unbelieving fears;

Oh weep no more your comforts slain;
The Lord is risen—he lives again.

5 And when the shades of evening fall,
When life’s last hour draws nigh—

If Jesus shine upon the soul,
How blissful then to die:

Since he has risen who once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

111 Agony in the garden. (165)

1 He knelt; the Savior knelt and prayed
When but his Father’s eye

Looked, through the lonely garden shade,
On that dread agony:

The Lord of high and heavenly birth
Was bowed with sorrow unto death.

2 The sun went down in fearful hour;
The heavens might well grow dim,

When this mortality had power
Thus to o’ershadow him;

That he who came to save might know
The very depths of human woe.

3 He knew them all—the doubt, the strife,
The faint, perplexing dread:

The mists that hang o’er parting life
All darkened round his head;

And the deliverer knelt to pray:
Yet passed it not, that cup, away.

4 It passed not, though the stormy wave
Had sunk beneath his tread;

It passed not, though to him the grave
Had yielded up its dead;

But there was sent him, from on high,
A gift of strength, for man to die.

113The Betrayal.*(166) 114 Friend after friend departs. (1090)

3 The fitful starlight shone,
In dim and misty gleams;
Deep was his agonizing groan,
And large the vital streams
That trickled to the dewy sod,
While Jesus raised his voice to God.

4 The chosen three that staid,
Their nightly watch to keep,
Left him through sorrows deep to wade,
And gave themselves to sleep;
Meekly and sad he prayed alone;
Strangely forgotten by his own.

5 Along the streamlet's banks
The reckless traitor came,
And heavy on his bosom sank
The load of guilt and shame;
Yet unto them that waited nigh
He gave the Lamb of God to die.

1 Friend after friend departs—
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts
That finds not here an end.
Were this frail world our only rest,
Living or dying, none were blest.

2 There is a world above
Where parting is unknown—
A whole eternity of love,
Formed for the good alone;
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that happier sphere.

3 Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night—
They hide themselves in heaven's own light.

SALEM. L. M. (New.)

Dr. THOMAS HASTINGS.

1. He dies, the friend of sin - ners dies! Lo! Salem's daughters weep around!

A sol - emn darkness veils the skies, A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

118 Darkness and light. (172)

- 2 Here 's love and grief beyond degree!
The Lord of glory dies for men!
But, lo! what sudden joys we see—
Jesus the dead revives again!
- 3 The rising Lord forsakes the tomb!
(The tomb in vain forbids his rise!)
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.
- 4 Break off your tears, you saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns;
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
And led the monster Death in chains.
- 5 Say, "Live forever, wondrous King!
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask the monster, "Where 's thy sting?
And where 's thy victory, boasting grave?"

119 The last scenes. (517)

- 1 'T was on that night, when doomed to know
The eager rage of every foe,
That night in which he was betrayed,
The Savior of the world took bread;
- 2 And, after thanks and glory given
To him that rules in earth and heaven,
That symbol of his flesh he broke,
And thus to all his followers spoke:
- 3 My broken body thus I give
To you, my friends; take, eat, and live;
And oft the sacred feast renew,
That brings my wondrous love to view.

- 4 Then in his hands the cup he raised,
And God anew he thanked and praised;
While kindness in his bosom glowed,
And from his lips salvation flowed.

- 5 My blood I thus pour forth, he cries,
To cleanse the soul in sin that lies;
In this the covenant is sealed,
And heaven's eternal grace revealed.

- 6 This cup is fraught with love to men;
Let all partake who love my name;
Through latest ages let it pour
In memory of my dying hour.

120 Looking to the cross. (169)

- 1 O Lord! when faith with fixed eyes
Beholds thy wondrous sacrifice,
Love rises to an ardent flame,
And we all other hope disclaim.

- 2 With cold affections who can see
The thorns, the scourge, the nails, the tree,
The flowing tears, and crimson sweat,
The bleeding hands, and head, and feet?

- 3 Jesus, what millions of our race
Have seen the triumphs of thy grace!
And millions more to thee shall fly,
And on thy sacrifice rely.

- 4 The sorrow, shame, and death, were thine
And all the stores of wrath divine!
Ours are the pardon, life, and bliss;
What love can be compared to this!

'Tis thine o'er men to reign:
Thy wondrous works thy Lordship prove,
These pains thy love proclaim :

With shame thy foes shall yet behold

His radiant throne on high;
Surpassing mercy! love unknown!
To suffer, bleed, and die.

For sinful man, oh wondrous grace!
For sinful man he bled!

123 They nailed him to the cross. (175)

Nailed to the shameful tree!
How vast the love that him inclined
To bleed and die for me!

And earth's strong pillars bend!
The temple's vail asunder breaks,
The solid marbles rend.
- 3 'Tis finished! now the ransom's paid,
"Receive my soul!" he cries:
See—how he bows his sacred head!
He bows his head and dies!
- 4 But soon from death he'll rise again,
And in full glory shine;

- 1 We sing the Savior's wondrous death—
He conquered when he fell:
'Tis finished, said his dying breath,
And shook the gates of hell.
- 2 'Tis finished, our Immanuel cries,
The dreadful work is done;
Hence shall his sovereign throne arise,
His kingdom is begun.

When through the regions of the dead
He passed to reach the crown.

J. P. HOLBROOK.

1. O sacred head, now wounded, With grief and shame weighed down—O sacred brow, sur-

D. S. Now all despised and gory,

Fine.
With thorns, thine only crown: Once on a throne of glory, Adorned with light divine,
I joy to call thee mine. D. S.

125 "Surely he hath borne our griefs." (177)

2 On me, as thou art dying,
Oh turn thy pitying eye!
To thee for mercy crying,
Before thy cross I lie.
Thine, thine the bitter passion;
Thy pain is all for me;
Mine, mine the deep transgression;
My sins are all on thee.

3 What language can I borrow
To praise thee, heav'nly Friend,
For all this dying sorrow,
Of all my woes the end?
Oh, can I leave thee ever?
Then do not thou leave me;
Lord, let me never, never
Outlive my love to thee.

4 Be near when I am dying;
Then close beside me stand;
Let me, while faint and sighing,
Lean calmly on thy hand:
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From thee shall never move,
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely—in thy love.

126 The cross—"the power of God." (543)

1 I saw the cross of Jesus
When burdened with my sin;

I sought the cross of Jesus
To give me peace within:
I brought my soul to Jesus;
He cleans'd it in his blood;
And in the cross of Jesus
I found my peace with God.

2 I love the cross of Jesus—
It tells me what I am;
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb.
No righteousness, no merit,
No beauty can I plead;
Yet in the cross I glory,
My title there I read.

3 I clasp the cross of Jesus
In every trying hour,
My sure and certain refuge,
My never-failing tower.
In every fear and conflict,
I more than conqueror am;
Living I'm safe, or dying,
Through Christ the risen Lamb.

4 Sweet is the cross of Jesus!
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace and safety
Till life itself depart.
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing thy wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter,
And death is known no more.

1. The Son of Man they did betray; Think, O my soul, on that dread day,
He was condemned, and led away;

Behold the Lamb of God.

(179)

2 Now, hung between the earth and skies,
Behold! in agony he dies;

O sinners, hear his mournful cries—

Come, see his torturing pain!

The morning sun withdrew his light,

Blushed, and refused to view the sight,

The azure clothed in robes of night,

All nature mourned, and stood affright,

When Christ the Lord was slain.

3 All glory be to God on high,

Who reigns enthroned above the sky;

Who sent his Son to bleed and die;

Glory to him be given:

While heaven above his praise resounds,

O Zion, sing—his grace abounds;

I hope to shout eternal rounds,

In flaming love that knows no bounds,

When glorified in heaven.

1. Ho - san - na to the Prince of light, That clothed himself in clay,

En - tered the i - ron gates of death, And tore the bars a - way!

129 The Resurrection, and the Life. (185)

2 Death is no more the king of dread,
Since our Immanuel rose;
He took the tyrant's sting away,
And spoiled our hellish foes.

3 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
To reach his blest abode;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
To our incarnate God.

4 Bright angels, strike your loudest strings,
Your sweetest voices raise;
Let heaven, and all created things,
Sound our Immanuel's praise.

130 Now is Christ risen from the dead. (183)

1 Blest morning! whose young dawning rays
Beheld our rising Lord:
That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave his dark abode.

2 In the cold prison of a tomb
The great Redeemer lay,
Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, the appointed day.

3 Hell and the grave unite their force
To hold our Lord, in vain;
The sleeping Conqueror arose,
And burst their feeble chain.

4 To thy great name, Almighty Lord,
These sacred hours we pay;
And loud hosannas shall proclaim
The triumph of the day.

5 Salvation and immortal praise
To our victorious King!
Let heaven, and earth, and rocks, and seas,
With glad hosannas ring.

131 The day-spring from on high. (123)

1 Calm, on the listening ear of night,
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains.

2 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
Shed sacred glories there,
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.

3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply,
And greet, from all their holy heights,
The day-spring from on high.

4 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm;
And Sharon waves, in solemn praise,
Her silent groves of palm.

5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring—
"Peace to the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."

6 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
The Savior now is born!
And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
Breaks the first Advent morn.

ZEBULON. H. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Yes, the Re-deem - er rose: The Sav - ior left the dead, }
And o'er his hell - ish foes High raised his conquering head: }

In wild dis-may, the guards a - round Fall to the ground, and sink a - way.

132 Thou reigning Son of God. (188)

- 1 Yes, the Redeemer rose:
The Savior left the dead,
And o'er his hellish foes
High raised his conquering head:
In wild dismay, the guards around
Fall to the ground, and sink away.
- 2 Lo! the angelic bands
In full assembly meet,
To wait his high commands,
And worship at his feet:
Joyful they come, and wing their way
From realms of day to Jesus' tomb.
- 3 Then back to heaven they fly,
The joyful news to bear;
Hark! as they soar on high,
What music fills the air:
Their anthems say, Jesus who bled
Has left the dead—he rose to day!
- 4 You mortals, catch the sound,
Redeemed by him from hell,
And send the echo round
The globe on which you dwell:
Transported cry, Jesus who bled
Has left the dead, no more to die!
- 5 All hail! triumphant Lord,
Who saved us by thy blood:
Wide be thy name adored,
Thou reigning Son of God!
With thee we rise, with thee we reign,
And kingdoms gain beyond the skies.

133 Declare among the people his doings. (670)

- 1 Come, every pious heart
That loves the Savior's name.
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame:
Tell all above and all below
The debt of love to him you owe.
- 2 Such was his zeal for God,
And such his love for you,
He nobly undertook
What angels could not do:
His every deed of love and grace
All words exceed, all thoughts surpass.
- 3 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What he endured, oh who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell!
- 4 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansion of the dead;
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led:
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Son of God.
- 5 From thence he'll quickly come—
His chariot will not stay—
And bear our spirits home
To realms of endless day:
There shall we see his lovely face,
And ever be in his embrace.

1. Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day! Sons of men and an-gels say: }
 Raise your joys and triumphs high; Sing, ye heavens! thou earth reply! }
 D. C. Lo! our Sun's e-clipse is o'er; Lo! he sets in blood no more!

Love's re-deem-ing work is done, Fought the fight, the bat-tle won;

134 Christ the first fruits. (190)

2 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal—
 Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
 Death in vain forbids his rise,
 Christ hath opened paradise.
 Lives again our glorious King!
 Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
 Once he died, our souls to save:
 Where's thy victory, boasting grave?

3 Soar we now where Christ hath led,
 Following our exalted Head:
 Made like him, like him we rise,
 Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!
 King of glory, Fount of bliss,
 Everlasting life is this:
 Thee to know, thy power to prove,
 Thus to sing, and thus to love.

135 The stone rolled away. (189)

1 Angels! roll the rock away;
 Death! yield up thy mighty prey;
 See! the Savior leaves the tomb,
 Glowing with immortal bloom.
 Hark! the wondering angels raise
 Louder notes of joyful praise;
 Let the earth's remotest bound
 Echo with the blissful sound.

2 Now, ye saints! lift up your eyes,
 See him high in glory rise!
 Heralds of angels, on the road,
 Hail him—the incarnate God.

Heaven unfolds its portals wide,
 See the Conqueror through them ride!
 King of glory! mount thy throne—
 Boundless empire is thine own.

136 The Resurrection. (191)

1 Morning breaks upon the tomb,
 Jesus scatters all its gloom;
 Day of triumph through the skies—
 See the glorious Savior rise!
 Ye who are of death afraid,
 Triumph in the scattered shade;
 Drive your anxious cares away;
 See the place where Jesus lay!

137 I, the Lord, will hasten it. (599)

1 Hasten, Lord! the glorious time,
 When, beneath Messiah's sway,
 Every nation, every clime,
 Shall the gospel call obey.
 Mightiest Kings his power shall own,
 Heathen tribes his name adore;
 Satan and his host, o'erthrown,
 Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.

2 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
 Then be banished grief and pain;
 Righteousness, and joy, and peace,
 Undisturbed shall ever reign.
 Bless we, then, our gracious Lord!
 Ever praise his glorious name;
 All his mighty acts record,
 All his wondrous love proclaim.

2 Jesus who is always near,
Though too often unperceived,
Came her drooping heart to cheer,
Kindly asking why she grieved:
Though at first she knew him not,
When he called her by her name,
She her heavy griefs forgot,
For she found him still the same.

3 And her sorrows quickly fled,
When she heard his welcome voice;
Christ had risen from the dead,
Now he bids her heart rejoice:
What a change his word can make—
Turning darkness into day;
You who weep for Jesus' sake,
He will wipe your tears away.

139 What could have been done, etc. (305)

1 What could your Redeemer do
More than he has done for you?
To procure your peace with God,
Could he more than shed his blood?
After all this flow of love,
All his drawings from above,
Why will you your Lord deny?
Why will you resolve to die?

2 Turn, he cries, O sinner, turn!
By his life your God hath sworn
He would have you turn and live,
He would all the world receive:

If your death were his delight,
Would he thus to life invite?
Would he ask, beseech, and cry,
Why will you resolve to die?

3 Sinners, turn, while God is near!
He has left you naught to fear:
Now, e'en now, your Savior stands;
All day long he spreads his hands:
Cries—"You will not happy be,
No, you will not come to me:
Me who life to none deny—
Why will you resolve to die?"

4 Can you doubt that God is love,
Who thus calls you from above?
Will you not his word receive?
Will you not his oath believe?
See, the suffering Lord appears;
Jesus weeps—believe his tears!
Mingled with his blood, they cry,
"Why will you resolve to die?"

140 Doxology. (749)

Father! glory be to thee,

Glory for thy Spirit given,
Guiding us in peace to heaven!

- 2 You saints, who once languished below,
But long since have entered your rest,
I pant to be glorified, too—
To lean on Immanuel's breast.
The grave in which Jesus was laid
Has buried my guilt and my fears;
And while I contemplate its shade,
The light of his presence appears.
- 3 Oh sweet is the season of rest,
When life's weary journey is done!
The blush that spreads over its west,
The last lingering ray of its sun!
Though dreary the empire of night,
I soon shall emerge from its gloom,
And see immortality's light
Arise on the shades of the tomb.
- 4 Then welcome the last rending sighs,
When these aching heart-strings shall break,
When death shall extinguish these eyes,
And moisten with dew the pale cheek.
No terror the prospect begets—
I am not mortality's slave—
The sunbeam of life, as it sets,
Paints a rainbow of peace on the grave.

142 "The darkness is passed." (194)

- 1 Behold! the bright morning appears,
And Jesus revives from the grave;
His rising removes all our fears,
And shows him almighty to save.
How strong were his tears and his cries!
'The worth of his blood, how divine!
How perfect was his sacrifice,
Who rose, though he suffered for sin!
- 2 The man that was crowned with thorns,
The man that on Calvary died,
The man that bore scourging and scorns,
Whom sinners agreed to deride—
Now blessed forever is made,
And life has rewarded his pain;
Now glory has crowned his head;
Heaven sings of the Lamb that was slain.

143 "The first and the last." (658)

- This Lord is the Lord we adore,
Our faithful, unchangeable friend,
Whose love is as large as his power,
And neither knows measure nor end.
'T is Jesus, the First and the Last,
Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home;
We'll praise him for all that is past,
And trust him for all that's to come.

144 The King of Glory. (196)

2 Who is the King of glory? He,
The Lord omnipotent to save,
Whose own right arm, in victory,
Led captive death, and spoiled the grave.

3 Lift up your heads, ye gates! and high
Your everlasting portals heave;
Welcome the King of glory nigh:
Him must the heaven of heavens receive.

4 Who is the King of glory—who?
The Lord of hosts; behold his name!

Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The powers of hell are captive led,
Dragged to the portals of the sky.

2 There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
Lift up your heads, you heavenly gates!
Your everlasting doors, give way!

3 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the radiant scene!
He claims those mansions as his right—
Receive the King of glory in!

4 Who is the King of glory—who?
The Lord, who all his foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew,
And Jesus is the Conqueror's name.

5 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,

2 No more let my ungrateful heart
One moment from thy praise depart;
But live and sing, in sweet accord,
The glories of my sovereign Lord.

3 Jesus, thou hope of glory! come.
And make my heart thy constant home:
Through all the remnant of my days,
Oh let me speak and live thy praise!

 Shrink from the narrow way,
 When clouds and darkness are around it spread?

3 Oh thou who art our Life,
 Be with us through the strife;
 Thy own meek head with rudest storms was bowed!

Raise thou our eyes above
 To see a Father's love
 Beam, like the bow of promise, through the cloud.

4 E'en through the awful gloom

CORONATION. C. M.

O. HOLDEN.

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem,

And crown him Lord of all; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown him Lord of all.

152 The Coronation. (203)

2 Crown him, you martyrs of our God,
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 You chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 You gentile sinners ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Babes, men, and sires, who know his love,
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above
And crown him Lord of all.

6 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

153 Worthy the Lamb. (206)

1 Come, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus!
Worthy the Lamb, our lips reply,
For he was slain for us!

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 Let all who dwell above the sky,
On earth, in air, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thy endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

154 His kingdom is everlasting. (451)

1 Oh where are kings and empires now,
Of old that went and came?
But Holy Church is praying yet,
A thousand years the same.

2 Mark ye her holy battlements,
And her foundations strong:
And hear within, the solemn voice,
And her unending song.

3 For not like kingdoms of the world,
The Holy Church of God!
Though earthquake shocks are rocking her,
And tempests are abroad;

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Unmovable she stands—
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A fane unbuild by hands.

155 Everlasting Kingdom. (208)

2 No other Lord but thee we'll know,
No other power but thine confess;
We'll spread thine honors while below,
And heaven shall hear us shout thy grace.

3 We'll sing along the heavenly road
That leads us to thy blest abode:
Till with the vast unnumbered throng
We join in heaven's triumphaut song--

4 Till with pure hands and voices sweet,
We cast our crowns at Jesus' feet,
And sing of everlasting love
In everlasting strains above.

156 All nations shall serve him. (209)

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For him shall endless prayer be made
And praises throng to crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

4 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains,
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Where he displays his healing power,
Death and the curse are known no more;
In him the tribes of Adam boast
More blessings than their father lost.

6 Let every creature rise, and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the long Amen.

157 1 Cor. 15: 4. (180)

1 When we the sacred grave survey
In which the Savior deigned to lie,
We see fulfilled what prophets say,
And all the power of death defy.

2 This empty tomb shall now proclaim
How weak the bands of conquered death;
Sure pledge that all who trust his name
Shall rise and draw immortal breath.

3 Our surety freed declares us free,
For whose offenses he was seized:
In his release our own we see,
And joy to see Jehovah pleased.

4 Jesus, once numbered with the dead,
Unseals his eyes to sleep no more;
And ever lives their cause to plead,
For whom the pains of death he bore.

5 Then, though in dust we lay our head,
Yet, gracious God, thou wilt not leave
Our flesh forever with the dead,
Nor lose thy children in the grave!

158 My heart is inditing a good matter. (211)

1 Now be my heart inspired to sing
The glories of my Savior King;
He comes with blessings from above,
And wins the nations to his love.

2 Thy throne, O Lord, forever stands;
Grace is the scepter in thy hands;
Thy laws and works are just and right,
But truth and mercy thy delight.

3 Let endless honors crown thy head;
Let every age thy praises spread;
Let all the nations know thy word,
And every tongue confess thee Lord.

159 Let the earth be filled with his glory. (213)

1 Great God! whose universal sway
The known and unknown worlds obey,
Now give the kingdom to thy Son;
Extend his power, exalt his throne.

2 Thy scepter well becomes his hands;
All heaven submits to his commands;
His justice shall avenge the poor,
And pride and rage prevail no more.

3 The heathen lands, that lie beneath
The shades of overspreading death,
Revive at his first dawning light;
And deserts blossom at the sight.

4 The saints shall flourish in his days,
Dressed in the robes of joy and praise;
Peace, like a river, from his throne
Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

160 My Redeemer liveth. (219)

1 I know that my Redeemer lives;
What comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, he lives who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living Head!

2 He lives to bless me with his love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to bless in time of need.

3 He lives to grant me rich supply,
He lives to guide me with his eye,
He lives to comfort me when faint,
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.

4 He lives, my kind, wise, heavenly friend;
He lives, and loves me to the end;
He lives, and while he lives I'll sing,
He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King!

5 He lives, all glory to his name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same!
Oh the sweet joy this sentence gives
I know that my Redeemer lives!

161 No other name. (220)

1 Jesus, the spring of joys divine,
Whence all our hopes and comforts flow;
Jesus, no other name but thine
Can save us from eternal woe.

2 In vain would boasting reason find
Thy way to happiness and God;
Her weak directions leave the mind
Bewildered in a dubious road.

3 No other name will heaven approve;
Thou art the true, the living way,
Ordained by everlasting love,
To the bright realms of endless day.

4 Here let our constant feet abide,
Nor from the heavenly path depart;
Oh let thy Spirit, gracious Guide!
Direct our steps, and cheer our heart.

162 He is precious. (227)

1 Jesus! the very thought is sweet;
In that dear name all heart-joys meet;
But sweeter than the honey far
The glimpses of his presence are.

2 No word is sung more sweet than this;
No name is heard more full of bliss;
No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh,
Than Jesus, Son of God most high.

3 Jesus, the hope of souls forlorn!
How good to them for sin that mourn;
To them that seek thee, oh how kind!
But what art thou to them that find?

4 No tongue of mortal can express,
No letters write its blessedness;
Alone, who hath thee in his heart,
Knows, love of Jesus, what thou art.

CHIMES. C. M.

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. With joy we med - i - tate the grace Of our High Priest a - bove:

His heart is full of ten - der - ness, His bo - som glows with love.

163 Christ a merciful High Priest. (228)

- 2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he has felt the same.
- 3 He in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out his cries and tears;
And in his measure feels afresh
What every member bears.
- 4 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In each distressing hour.

164 The bright and morning star. (229)

- 1 Bright was the guiding star that led,
With mild, benignant ray,
The Gentiles to the lowly shed
Where the Redeemer lay.
- 2 But, lo! a brighter, clearer light
Now points to his abode;
It shines through sin and sorrow's night
To guide us to our God.
- 3 Oh haste to follow where it leads;
The gracious call obey,
Be rugged wilds or flowery meads
The Christian's destined way.
- 4 Oh gladly tread the narrow path
While light and grace are given:
Who meekly follow Christ on earth,
Shall reign with him in heaven.

165 He suffered, the Just for the unjust. (240)

- 1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
- 2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When God's own Son was crucified
For man the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.
- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

166 He is Lord of all. (243)

- 1 Hosanna to our conquering King!
All hail, incarnate Love!
Ten thousand songs and glories wait
To crown thy head above.
- 2 Thy victories and thy deathless fame
Through all the world shall run
And everlasting ages sing
The triumphs thou hast won.

167 He died for our sins. (238)

- 1 Jesus, in thy transporting name,
What blissful glories rise!
Jesus, the angels' sweetest theme—
The wonder of the skies!
- 2 Well might the skies with wonder view
A love so strange as thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!
- 3 Jesus, and didst thou leave the sky
To bear our sins and woes?
And didst thou bleed, and groan, and die,
For vile, rebellious foes?
- 4 Victorious love! can language tell
The wonders of thy power,
Which conquered all the force of hell
In that tremendous hour!
- 5 What glad return can I impart
For favors so divine?
Oh take this heart, this worthless heart,
And make it only thine!

168 The Name above every name. (239)

- 1 The Savior! Oh what endless charms
Dwell in the blissful sound!
Its influence every fear disarms,
And spreads sweet peace around.
- 2 Here pardon, life, and joys divine,
In rich profusion flow;
For guilty rebels, lost in sin,
And doomed to endless woe.
- 3 The almighty Former of the skies
Stooped to our vile abode;
While angels viewed with wondering eyes,
And hailed the incarnate God.
- 4 Oh the rich depths of love divine!
Of bliss, a boundless store!
Blest Savior, let me call thee mine;
I can not wish for more.
- 5 On thee, alone, my hope relies;
Beneath thy cross I fall;
My Lord, my life, my sacrifice,
My Savior, and my all.

169 Consider—the High Priest, etc. (235)

- 1 Now let our cheerful eyes survey
Our great High Priest above,
And celebrate his constant care
And sympathetic love.
- 2 Though raised to heaven's exalted throne,
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the hosts of light,
With matchless honors crowned—
- 3 The names of all his saints he bears
Deep graven on his heart;
Nor shall the weakest Christian say
That he has lost his part.
- 4 Those characters shall fair abide,
Our everlasting trust,
When gems, and monuments, and crowns,
Have moldered down to dust.

170 An unchangeable priesthood. (242)

- 1 Jesus, in thee our eyes behold
A thousand glories more
Than the rich gems and polished gold
The sons of Aaron wore.
- 2 They first their own burnt-offerings brought,
To purge themselves from sin:
Thy life was pure, without a spot,
And all thy nature clean.
- 3 Fresh blood, as constant as the day,
Was on their altar spilt;
But thy one offering takes away
Forever all our guilt.
- 4 Their priesthood ran through several hands,
For mortal was their race:
Thy never-changing office stands
Eternal as thy days.
- 5 Once, in the circuit of a year,
With blood, but not his own,
Aaron with the vail appeared,
Before the golden throne;
- 6 But Christ, with his own precious blood,
Ascends above the skies,
And, in the presence of our God,
Shows his own sacrifice.

ORTONVILLE. C. M.

Dr. T. HASTINGS.

1. Ma-jes-tic sweet-ness sits enthroned Upon the Sav-ior's brow; His head with radi-ant
2. No mor-tal can with him com-pare Among the sons of men; Fair-er is he than glories crowned, His lips with grace o'er-flow, His lips with grace o'er-flow.

all the fair Who fill the heavenly train, Who fill the heavenly train.

171 Chief among ten thousand. (250)

- 3 He saw me plunged in deep distress
And flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.
- 4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have!
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.
- 5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joys complete.
- 6 Since from thy bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be thine.

172 Ye are complete in him. (217)

- 1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear!
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 By thee my prayers acceptance gain,
Although with sin defiled;
Satan accuses me in vain,
And I am owned a child.

- 4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

- 5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought,
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

- 6 Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death!

173 Blessed are all they, etc. (249)

- I My Savior! my almighty Friend!
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end—
The numbers of thy grace?
- 2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore;
And since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.
- 3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road;
And march with courage in thy strength
To see my Father God.
- 4 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul, redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

174 Worthy is the Lamb that was slain. (236)

- 1 Behold the glories of the Lamb
Amidst his Father's throne;
Prepare new honors for his name,
And songs before unknown.
- 2 Let elders worship at his feet,
The church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.
- 3 Now to the Lamb that once was slain
Be endless blessings paid;
Salvation, glory, joy remain
Forever on thy head!
- 4 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

175 Come to the Ark. (292)

- 1 Come to the ark, come to the ark;
To Jesus come away:
The pestilence walks forth by night,
The arrow flies by day.
- 2 Come to the ark; the waters rise,
The seas their billows rear;
While darkness gathers o'er the skies,
Behold a refuge near!
- 3 Come to the ark, all, all that weep
Beneath the sense of sin:
Without, deep calleth unto deep,
But all is peace within.
- 4 Come to the ark, ere yet the flood
Your lingering steps oppose;
Come, for the door, which open stood,
Is now about to close.

176 Let him that is athirst come. (290)

- 1 Oh what amazing words of grace
Are in the gospel found,
Suited to every sinner's case
Who hears the joyful sound!
- 2 Come, then, with all your wants and wounds,
Your every burden bring;
Here love, unchanging love, abounds—
A deep celestial spring.

3 This spring with living water flows,
And heavenly joy imparts;
Come, thirsty souls! your wants disclose,
And drink with thankful hearts.

4 Millions of sinners, vile as you,
Have here found life and peace;
Come, then, and prove its virtues, too,
And drink, adore, and bless.

177 The true and living Way. (248)

- 1 Thou art the Way—to thee alone
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth—thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou, only, canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life—the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee,
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life;
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

178 Altogether lovely. (251)

- 1 Jesus, I love thy charming name;
'Tis music to my ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That all the earth might hear.
- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust;
Jewels to thee are gandy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All that my ardent soul can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to my eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart,
And shed its fragrance there—
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

FOUNTAIN. C. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. There is a foun-tain filled with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins,
And sin-ners plunged beneath that flood, . . . . .

Lose all their guilt - y stains, Lose all their guilt - y stains.

179 A fountain for sin. (253)

- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.
- 3 O Lamb of God, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved to sin no more.
- 4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.
- 5 And when this lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save.

180 I looked, and there was none to help. (252)

- 1 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and—O! amazing love!
He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.

- 4 Oh! for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues
The Savior's praises speak.
- 5 Angels! assist our mighty joys;
Strike all your harps of gold;
But, when you raise your highest notes
His love can ne'er be told.

181 The reign of Christ. (255)

- 1 Let earth, with every isle and sea,
Rejoice; the Savior reigns:
His word, like fire, prepares his way,
And mountains melt to plains.
- 2 His presence sinks the proudest hills
And makes the valleys rise;
The humble soul enjoys his smiles,
The haughty sinner dies.
- 3 Adoring angels, at his birth,
Made our Redeemer known;
Thus shall he come to judge the earth,
And angels guard his throne.
- 4 His foes shall tremble at his sight,
And hills and seas retire;
His children take their upward flight,
And leave the world on fire.
- 5 The seeds of joy and glory sown
For saints in darkness here,
Shall rise and spring in worlds unknown,
And a rich harvest bear.

YOAKLEY. L. M. 6 lines.

YOAKLEY.

1. Je - sus, thou source of calm re - pose, All fullness dwells in thee divine;
Our strength, to quell the proudest foes; Our light, in deepest gloom to shine;

Thou art our fortress, strength, and tower, Our trust and por - tion ev - er - more.

182 Christ all and in all. (225)

- 2 Jesus, our Comforter, thou art
Our rest in toil, our ease in pain;
The balm to heal each broken heart:
In storms our peace, in loss our gain;
Our joy, beneath the worldling's frown;
In shame, our glory and our crown:
3 In want, our plentiful supply;
In weakness our almighty power;
In bonds, our perfect liberty;
Our refuge in temptation's hour;
Our comfort 'midst all grief and thrall;
Our life in death; our all in all.

183 Prophet, Priest, and King. (226)

- 1 My Prophet thou, my heavenly Guide,
Thy sweet instructions I will hear;
The words that from my lips proceed,
Oh how divinely sweet they are!
Thee, my great Prophet, I would love,
And imitate the blest above.
2 My great High Priest, whose precious blood
Did once atone upon the cross,
Who now dost intercede with God,
And plead the friendless sinner's cause;
In thee I trust, thee would I love,
And imitate the blest above.
3 My King supreme, to thee I bow,
A willing subject at thy feet;

All other lords I disavow,
And to thy government submit;
My Savior King, this heart would love,
And imitate the blest above.

184 God is my light and my salvation. (764)

- 1 Fountain of light, and living breath,
Whose mercies never fail nor fade,
Fill me with life that hath no death,
Fill me with light that hath no shade;
Appoint the remnant of my days
To see thy power, and sing thy praise.
2 O Lord, our God, before whose throne
Stand storms and fire, oh what shall we
Return to heaven, that is our own,
When all the world belongs to thee?
We have no offering to impart,
But praises, and a broken heart.
3 Oh thou who sittest in heaven, and seest
My deeds without, my thoughts within,
Be thou my prince, be thou my priest—
Command my soul, and cure my sin:
How bitter my afflictions be,
I care not, so I rise to thee.
4 What I possess, or what I crave,
Brings no content, great God, to me,
If what I would, or what I have,
Be not possessed and blest in thee:
What I enjoy, oh, make it mine,
In making me—that have it—thine.

ROCK OF AGES. 7s. 6 lines.

Dr. HASTINGS.

Fine.

1. Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my - self in thee;
 D. C. Be of sin the dou - ble cure; Cleanse me from its guilt and power.
 2. Not the la - bor of my hands; Can ful - fill the law's de - mands;
 D. C. All for sin could not a - tone; Thou must save, and thou a - lone.

D. C.

Let the wa - ter and the blood, From thy riv - en side which flowed,
 Could my zeal no re - spite know, Could my tears for - ev - er flow,

185

And that rock was Christ.

(261)

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
 Simply to thy cross I cling;
 Naked, come to thee for dress;
 Helpless, look to thee for grace;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly;
 Wash me, Savior, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When my heart-strings break in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See thee on thy judgment throne,
 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in thee.

THE LORD IS GREAT.

1. The Lord is great! ye hosts of heaven, adore him, And ye who tread this earthly ball;

In ho - ly songs re-joyce a-loud before him, And shout his praise who made you all.

186

(41)

2 The Lord is great! his majesty how glorious!
 Resound his praise from shore to shore;
 O'er sin, and death, and hell, now made victorious,
 He rules and reigns for evermore.

3 The Lord is great; his mercy how abounding!
 Ye angels, strike your golden chords,
 Oh praise our God, with voice and harp resounding;
 The King of kings, and Lord of lords.

WILSON. 7s, Double. (New.)

W. T. MOORE.

1. Je - sus, lov - er of my soul, Let me to thy bo - som fly,

While the bil - lows near me roll, While the tem - pest still is high;
D. S. Safe iu - to the ha - veu guide, Oh, re - ceive my soul at last.

Hide me, oh, my Sav - ior, hide, Till the storm of life is past,

187 A covert from the storm. (262)

- 2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee!
Leave, oh leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring,
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
Boundless love in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,
Prince of Peace and Righteousness;
Most unworthy, Lord, I am,
Thou art full of love and grace.
- 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sins;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

188 Hail the day that saw him rise. (628)

- 1 Hail the day that saw him rise,
Ravished from his people's eyes;
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Re-ascends his native heaven.
There the glorious triumph waits—
"Lift your heads, you heavenly gates!
Wide unfold the radiant scene;
Take the King of glory in."
- 2 He, whom highest heaven receives,
Ever loves the friends he leaves;
Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls his saints his own;
Still for us he intercedes,
Prevalent his death he pleads;
Near himself prepares a place,
Harbinger of human race.
- 3 Taken from our eyes to-day,
Master, hear us when we pray;
See thy needy servants, see,
Ever gazing up to thee:
Grant, though parted from our sight,
Far above yon azure height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Follow thee beyond the skies.

THE ROCK. 11s &amp; 12s.

1. In sea - sons of grief to my God I'll re - pair, When my heart is o'erwhelmed with sorrow and care; From the ends of the earth unto thee will I cry,
Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I, High - er than I,
High - er than I, Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I.

189

The Rock that is higher than I. (264)

2 When Satan the tempter comes in like a flood,
To drive my poor soul from the fountain of good,
I'll pray to the Lord, who for sinners did die—
Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I!

Higher than I, higher than I,

Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I!

3 And when I have finished my pilgrimage here,
Complete in Christ's righteousness I shall appear;
In the swellings of Jordan, all dangers defy,
And look to the Rock that is higher than I!

Higher than I, higher than I,

And look to the Rock that is higher than I!

4 And when the last trumpet shall sound thro' the skies,
And the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise,
Transported I'll join with the ransomed on high,
To praise the great Rock that is higher than I!

Higher than I, higher than I,

To praise the great Rock that is higher than I!

DUANE STREET. L. M.

G. COLES.

1. The Christian banner! dread no loss Where that broad ensign floats unrolled;

But let the fair and sacred cross Blaze out from ev' - ry radiant fold:
D. S. But though the strife be fierce and long, That cross shall wave in vic - to - ry.

Stern foes a - rise, a countless throng, Loud as the storms of Kara's sea,

190 The Christian banner. (266)

- 2 Sound the shrill trumpet, sound, and call
The people of the mighty King,
And bid them keep that standard all
In martial thousands gathering:
Let them come forth from every clime
That lies beneath the circling sun,
Various, as flowers in that sweet clime
Where flowers are, in heart, but one.
- 3 Soldiers of heaven! take sword and shield,
Look up to him who rules on high,
And forward to the glorious field
Where noble martyrs bleed and die;
Press onward, scorning flight or fear,
As deep waves burst on Norway's coast,
And let the startled nations hear
The war-shout of the Christian host.
- 4 Lift up the banner: rest no more,
Nor let this righteous warfare cease,
Till man's last tribe shall bow before
The Lord of lords—the Prince of Peace.
Go, bear it forth, ye strong and brave;
Let not those bright folds once be furled
Till that high sun shall see them wave
Above a blest but conquered world.

191 Christ the Way, Truth, and Life. (223)

- 1 Thou art the Way; and he who sighs,
Amid this starless waste of woe,
To find a pathway to the skies,
A light from heaven's eternal glow,
By thee must come, thou gate of love,
Through which the saints undoubting trod,
Till faith discovers, like the dove,
An ark, a resting-place in God.
- 2 Thou art the truth, whose steady day
Shines on thro' earthly blight and bloom;
The pure, the everlasting Ray,
The lamp that shines e'en in the tomb;
The Light that out of darkness springs,
And guideth them that blindly go;
The Word whose precious radiance flings
Its luster upon all below.
- 3 Thou art the Life, the blessed Well,
With living waters gushing o'er,
Which those that drink shall ever dwell
Where sin and thirst are known no more;
Thou art the mystic Pillar given,
Our Lamp by night, our Light by day;
Thou art the sacred bread from heaven;
Thou art the Life, the Truth, the Way.

WARE. L. M.

KINGSLEY.

1. Fling out the ban-ner! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide:

The sun, that lights its shining folds, The cross, on which the Sav - ior died.

192 The Spirit of the Lord, etc. (267)

- 2 Fling out the banner! angels bend,
In anxious silence, o'er the sign;
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonder of the love divine.
- 3 Fling out the banner! heathen lands
Shall see, from far, the glorious sight,
And nations, crowding to be born,
Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 4 Fling out the banner! sin-sick souls,
That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,
And spring immortal into life.
- 5 Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope, the Crucified.
- 6 Fling out the banner! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward, let it shine;
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit, ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

193 Pentecost. (269)

- 1 Great was the day, the joy was great,
When the beloved disciples met;
And on their heads the Spirit came,
And sat like tongues of cloven flame.

- 2 What gifts, what miracles he gave—
The power to kill, the power to save;
Furnished their tongues with wondrous words
Instead of shields, and spears, and swords.

- 3 Thus armed, he sent the champions forth;
From east to west, from south to north;
Go, and assert your Savior's cause—
Go, spread the mystery of the cross!

- 4 These weapons of the holy war,
Of what almighty force they are
To make our stubborn passions bow,
And lay the proudest rebel low!

- 5 The Greeks, and Jews, the learned and rude,
Are by these heavenly arms subdued;
While Satan rages at his loss,
And hates the doctrine of the cross.

194 Give unto him thanks. (727)

- 1 To God, the great, the ever-blest,
Let songs of honor be addressed!
His mercy firm forever stands;
Give him the thanks his love demands!

- 2 Who knows the wonder of his ways?
Who can make known his boundless praise?
Blest are the souls that fear him still,
And learn submission to his will.

SILVER STREET. S. M.

I. SMITH.

1. Come, sound his praise a - broad, And hymns of glo - ry sing;

Je - ho - vah is the sov - reign God, The u - ni - ver - sal King.

195 Come, sound his praise abroad. (702)

- 2 He formed the deeps unknown;
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
And all the solid ground.
- 3 Come, worship at his throne;
Come, bow before the Lord;
We are his work, and not our own;
He formed us by his word.
- 4 To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

196 Seen of angels. (259)

- 1 Beyond the starry skies,
Far as the eternal hills,
Yon heaven of heavens, with living light,
Our great Redeemer fills.
- 2 Around him angels fair,
In countless armies, shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.
- 3 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love
Moved thee to quit those glorious realms
And royalties above."
- 4 And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast their honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.

- 5 They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies;
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the Conqueror rise.
- 6 They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung,
"The glorious work is done."

197 How beautiful are the feet, etc. (270)

- 1 How beautiful are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill!
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal!
- 2 How charming is their voice!
How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Savior King!
He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!
- 4 How blessed are our eyes
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

LENOX. H. M.

1. Blow ye the trumpet, blow The glad-ly - solemn sound; Let all the nations know, To earth's re-mot-est bound, The year of ju-bi-lee is come;
Re-tu-n, ye ransomed sinners, home, Re-tu-n, ye ransomed sin-ners, home.

198    The year of Jubilee.

(273)

- 2 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-atoning Lamb;
Redemption by his blood,
Through all the lands proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 3 Ye slaves of sin and hell,
Your liberty receive,
And safe in Jesus dwell,
And blest in Jesus live:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 4 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace:
Ye happy souls, draw near;
Behold your Savior's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 5 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Has full atonement made:
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mourning souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

199    The year of Jubilee.

(326)

- 1 Fair shines the morning star,
The silver trumpets sound—
Their notes re-echoing far—
While dawns the day around:
Joy to the slave—the slave is free—
It is the year of jubilee.
- 2 Prisoners of hope, in gloom
And silence left to die,
With Christ's unfolding tomb,
Your portals open fly:
Rise with your Lord; he sets you free;
It is the year of jubilee.
- 3 Ye who yourselves have sold
For debts to justice due,
Ransomed, but not with gold,
He gave himself for you!
The Lord of Christ hath made you free;
It is the year of jubilee.
- 4 Captives of sin and shame,
O'er earth and ocean, hear
An angel's voice proclaim
The Lord's accepted year:
Let Jacob rise—be Israel free;
It is the year of jubilee.

URMUND. 8, 8, 8, 8, 4.

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. Hark! how the gospel trumpet sounds! And Je-sus, by re-
Thro' all the world the echo bounds!

2. Hail! Jesus, all victorious Lord! Be thou by all mankind adored! For us didst thou the deeming blood, Is bringing sinners back to God, To end-less day.

And guides them safely by his word fight maintain, And o'er our foes the victory gain, In end-less day.
That we with thee might ever reign,

200

The gospel trumpet.

(272)

3 Fight on, ye conquering souls, fight on,
And when the conquest you have won,
Then palms of victory you shall bear,
And in his kingdom have a share,
And crowns of glory ever wear,
In endless day.

4 There we shall in full chorus join,
With saints and angels all combine
To sing of his redeeming love,
When rolling years shall cease to move,
And this shall be our theme above,
In endless day.

THE ROYAL PROCLAMATION.

From Chapel Melodies.

Very Spirited.

Chorus.

1. Hear the royal proclamation, The glad tidings of salvation, }
Publishing to every creature, To the ruined sons of nature; } Jesus reigns, Jesus reigns.

Jesus reigns, { Jesus reigns, he reigns victorious, f [reigns.
{ Over heaven and earth most glorious, } Jesus reigns, Jesus reigns, Jesus

201

The royal proclamation.

(274)

2 See the royal banners flying,
Hear the heralds loudly crying,
"Rebel sinners, royal favor
Now is offered by the Savior."
3 "Here is wine, and milk, and honey,
Come and purchase without money;
Mercy like a flowing fountain,
Streaming from the holy mountain."

4 Shout, you tongues of every nation,
To the bound of the creation:
Shout the praise of Judah's Lion,
The Almighty King of Zion.
5 Shout, O saints, make joyful mention,
Christ hath purchased our redemption;
Angels, shout the joyful story,
Through the brighter worlds of glory.

DORT. 6s &amp; 4s.

1. Sound, sound the truth abroad! Bear ye, the word of God Thro' the wide world;

{ Tell what our Lord has done, }
{ Tell how the day is won, } Tell from his loft - y throne Sa - tan is hurled.

202 Holding forth the word of life. (275)

1 Sound, sound the truth abroad!
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world;
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
Tell from his lofty throne
Satan is hurled.

2 Far over sea and land,
Go, at your Lord's command;
Bear ye his name;
Bear it to every shore,
Regions unknown explore,
Enter at every door;
Silence is shame.

3 Speed on the wings of love;
Jesus, who reigns above,
Bids us to fly;
They who his message bear
Should neither doubt nor fear;
He will their friend appear,
He will be nigh.

4 When on the mighty deep,
He will their spirits keep,
Stayed on his word;
When in a foreign land,
No other friend at hand,
Jesus will by them stand—
Jesus, their Lord.

203 Rule in the midst of thine enemies. (201)

1 Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise
Into thy native skies—
Assume thy right;
And where, in many a fold,
The clouds are backward rolled,
Pass through those gates of gold,
And reign in light!

2 Victor o'er death and hell!
Cherubic legions swell
The radiant train;
Praises all heaven inspire,
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,
Thou Lamb once slain!

3 Enter, incarnate God!
No foot but thine have trod
The serpent down:
Blow the full trumpets—blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Savior, triumphant go
And take thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah, hail!
And let thy name prevail
From age to age:
Lord of the rolling years,
Claim for thine own the spheres,
For thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage.

HASTE, TRAVELER, HASTE. 8, 8, 8, 8, 4.*

NAGELI.

1. Haste, trav'ler, haste! the night comes on, And many a shining hour is gone;

The storm is gath'ring in the west, And thou art far from home and rest. }
Haste, trav'ler, haste! }

* Or L. M., without the repeat.

204 Haste thee; escape thither. (276)

2 Awake, awake! pursue thy way
With steady course, while yet 't is day;
While thou art sleeping on the ground,
Danger and darkness gather round;
Haste, traveler, haste!

3 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path—no refuge near—
Haste, traveler, haste!

4 Haste while a shelter you may gain—
A covert from the wind and rain;
A hiding-place, a rest, a home—
A refuge from the wrath to come—
Haste, traveler, haste!

5 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life—the mountain gain;
Look not behind, make no delay;
Oh speed thee, speed thee on thy way!
Haste, traveler, haste!

205 An evening expostulation. (280)

1 Oh do not let the word depart,
And close thine eye against the light;
Poor sinner, harden not thy heart—
Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?
Why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long deluded sight:
This is the time; Oh then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;
And wilt thou thus his love requite?
Renounce at length thy stubborn will—
Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

4 Our blessed Lord refuses none
Who would to him their souls unite;
Then be the work of grace begun—
Thou wouldst be saved: why not to-night?

206 Come unto me. (278)

1 With tearful eyes I look around;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea;
Yet 'midst the gloom I hear a sound—
A heavenly whisper—Come to me!

2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee:
Oh, to the weary, faint, opprest,
How sweet the bidding, Come to me!

3 Come, for all else must fail and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye—
I am thy portion; Come to me!

4 O voice of mercy, voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above,
And gently whisper, Come to me!

FOREST. L. M.

Arr. by S. J. VAIL.

1. To-day, if you will hear his voice, Now is the time to make your choice;
Say, will you to Mount Zi-on go? Say, will you come to Christ or no?

207 To-day, if you will hear his voice. (279)

2 Say, will you be forever blest,
And with this glorious Jesus rest?
Will you be saved from guilt and pain?
Will you with Christ forever reign?

3 Make now your choice, and halt no more;
He now is waiting for the poor;
Say, now, poor souls, what will you do?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

4 Fathers and sons, for ruin bound,
Amidst the gospel's joyful sound,
Come, go with us, and seek to prove
The joys of Christ's redeeming love.

5 Matrons and maids, we look to you,
Are you resolved to perish, too?
To rush in carnal pleasures on,
And sink in flaming ruin down?

6 Once more we ask you, in his name,
(We know his love remains the same,)
Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

208 Ecclesiastes 9: 10. (284)

1 Life is the time to serve the Lord,
The time to insure the great reward;
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
Oh hasten, sinner, to return!

2 Life is the hour that God has given
To 'scape from hell! and fly to heaven,
The day of grace, when mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.

3 The living know that they must die,
Beneath the clods their dust must lie;
Then have no share in all that's done
Beneath the circle of the sun.

4 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands, with all your might pursue:
Since no device nor work is found,
Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

5 There are no acts of pardon passed
In the cold grave to which we haste;
Oh may we all receive thy grace,
And see with joy thy smiling face.

209 The broad and the narrow way. (283)

1 Broad is the road that leads to death;
And thousands walk together there;
But wisdom shows a narrow path,
With here and there a traveler.

2 "Deny thyself, and take thy cross,"
Is the Redeemer's great command;
Nature must count her gold but dross
If she would gain this heavenly land.

3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteemed almost a saint,
And makes his own destruction sure.

4 Lord, let my hopes be not in vain,
Create my heart entirely new;
This, hypocrites could ne'er attain;
This, false apostates never knew.

THE GOSPEL FEAST. L. M., with Chorus. ✽

Harmonized by T. E. PERKINS.

1. Come, sin - ners, to the gos - pel feast; Oh, do no lon - ger stay!
You need not one be left be - hind; Oh, do no lon - ger stay!

* Cho. Oh, do no lon - ger stay a - way, For now your Sa - vior calls,

Let ev - ery soul be Je - sus' guest, Oh, do no lon - ger stay a - way!
For God has bid - den all man - kind, Oh, do no lon - ger stay a - way!

The gos - pel sounds the ju - bi - lee, Oh, do no lon - ger stay a - way.

210 Come, for all things are now ready. (285)

2 Hark! 't is the gracious Savior's call:
Oh do no longer stay!

The invitation is to all:

Oh do no longer stay away!
Come, all the world—come, sinner, thou—
Oh do no longer stay!

All things in Christ are ready now:
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

3 Come, all you souls by sin oppressed:
Oh do no longer stay!

You weary wanderers after rest,
Oh do no longer stay away!

You poor and maimed, and halt and blind,
Oh do no longer stay!

In Christ a hearty welcome find:
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

4 The message, as from God, receive:
Oh do no longer stay!

You all may come to Christ and live:
Oh do no longer stay away!

Oh let his love your hearts constrain:
Oh do no longer stay!

Nor suffer him to call in vain:
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

5 This is the time—no more delay,
Oh do no longer stay!

The Savior calls you all to-day,
Oh do no longer stay away!

Oh may his call effectual prove,
Oh do no longer stay!
Accept the offers of his love,
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

211 Inviting. (281)

1 Come, weary souls with sin distressed
Oh do no longer stay!

Come and accept the promised rest:
Oh do no longer stay away!

The Savior's gracious call obey—
Oh do no longer stay!
And cast your gloomy fears away—
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

2 Oppressed with guilt, a heavy load,
Oh do no longer stay!

Oh come and bow before your God:
Oh do no longer stay away!

Divine compassion, mighty love—
Oh do no longer stay!—

Will all the painful load remove:
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows—
Oh do no longer stay!—

To cleanse your guilt and heal your woes:
Oh do no longer stay away!

Pardon, and life, and endless peace—
Oh do no longer stay!—

How rich the gift, how free the grace!—
Oh do no longer stay away!—Cho.

* Chorus may be omitted.

IMPORTUNITY. C. M.

1. Let ev-ery mor - tal ear at - tend, And every heart re-joyce, And ev - ery heart rejoice; The trumpet of the gos - pel sounds, With

With an inviting an in-ving voice, With an inviting voice, With an in - vit-ing voice.

voice, With an inviting voice, With an inviting voice, With an inviting voice.

212 Hear, and your soul shall live. (286)

- 2 Ho! all you hungry, starving souls,
Who feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill an empty mind;
- 3 Eternal wisdom has prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.
- 4 Ho! you that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
Here may you quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.
- 5 Rivers of love and mercy here
In a rich ocean join;
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.
- 6 Great God! the treasures of thy love
Are everlasting mines,
Deep as our helpless miseries are,
And boundless as our sins.

- 7 The happy gates of gospel grace
Stand open night and day:
Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
And drive our wants away.

213 For there is no difference. (287)

- 1 How free and boundless is the grace
Of our redeeming God!
Extending to the Greek and Jew,
And men of every blood.
- 2 Come, all you wretched sinners, come,
He'll form your souls anew;
His gospel and his heart have room
For rebels such as you.
- 3 His doctrine is almighty love;
There's virtue in his name
To turn a raven to a dove,
A lion to a lamb.
- 4 Come, then, accept the offered grace
And make no more delay;
His love will all your guilt efface,
And soothe your fears away.

RETURN. C. M.

Dr. HASTINGS, by permission.

1. Re-turn, O wan-derer, to thy home, Thy Fa-ther calls for thee:

No lon-ger now an ex-ile roam, In guilt and mis-e-ry. Return, return!

Coda. p

214 Draw nigh to God, etc. (296)

- 2 Return, O wanderer, to thy home,
'T is Jesus calls for thee;
The Spirit and the Bride say—come;
Oh! now for refuge flee;
Return, return!
- 3 Return, O wanderer, to thy home,
'T is madness to delay;
There are no pardons in the tomb,
And brief is mercy's day:
Return, return!

215 Let him return unto the Lord. (288)

- 1 Return, O wanderer, now return,
And seek thy Father's face;
Those new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by his grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer, now return!
He hears thy humble sigh!
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Return, O wanderer, now return!
Thy Savior bids thee live;
Go to his feet, and grateful learn
How freely he'll forgive.
- 4 Return, O wanderer, now return!
And wipe the falling tear;
Thy Father calls—no longer mourn,
'T is love invites thee near.

216 Remember me. (241)

- 1 Jesus, thou art the sinner's friend;
As such I look to thee;
Now, in the fullness of thy love,
O Lord, remember me!
- 2 Remember thy pure word of grace,
Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy promises,
And then remember me.
- 3 Thou mighty Advocate with God!
I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
O Lord, remember me!
- 4 I own I'm guilty—own I'm vile;
Yet thy salvation's free;
Then in thy all-abounding grace,
O Lord, remember me!
- 5 Howe'er forsaken or distressed,
Howe'er oppressed I be,
Howe'er afflicted here on earth,
Do thou remember me!
- 6 And when I close my eyes in death,
And creature helps all flee,
Then, O my great Redeemer, Lord,
I pray, remember me!

RESOLUTION. C. M., Double. (Old.)

1. Come, hum-ble sin-ner, in whose breast, A thou-sand thoughts re-volve; }
Come with your guilt and fear op-pressed, And make this last re-solve; }

I'll go to Je-sus, tho' my sin Has like a mountain rose;

His king-dom now I'll en-ter in, What-ev-er may op-pose.

217 Whoso believeth might not perish. (291)

2 Humbly I'll bow at his command,
And there my guilt confess;
I'll own I am a wretch undone,
Without his sovereign grace.
Surely he will accept my plea,
For he has bid me come;
Forwith I'll rise, and to him flee,
For yet, he says, there's room.

218 He that cometh shall never hunger. (293)

1 Ye wretched, hungry, starving poor,
Behold a royal feast,
Where mercy spreads her bounteous store
For every humble guest.
See, Jesus stands with open arms;
He calls, he bids you come;
Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms,
But see, there yet is room.

2 Room in the Savior's bleeding heart;
There love and pity meet:
Nor will he bid the soul depart
That trembles at his feet.
Oh come, and with his children taste
The blessings of his love,
While hope attends the sweet repast
Of nobler joys above.

219 In this mountain shall the Lord. (294)

1 The King of heaven his table spreads,
And dainties crown the board;
Not paradise, with all its joys,
Could such delights afford.
Pardon and peace to dying men,
And endless life are given,
Through the rich blood that Jesus shed,
To raise our souls to heaven.

2 You hungry poor, that long have strayed
In sin's dark mazes, come;
Come from your most obscure retreat,
And grace shall find you room.
Millions of souls in glory now
Were fed and feasted here;
And millions more still on the way
Around the board appear.

3 Yet are his heart and house so large
That millions more may come;
Nor could the whole assembled world
O'erfill the spacious room.
All things are ready: come away,
Nor weak excuses frame;
Crowd to your places at the feast
And bless the Founder's name.

KENTUCKY. S. M.

1. Now is th'ac - cept - ed time— Now is the day of grace;

Now, sin - ners, come, with-out de - lay, And seek the Sa - vior's face.

220 Now is the accepted time. (297)

1 Now is the accepted time,
Now is the day of grace;
Now, sinners, come, without delay,
And seek the Savior's face.

2 Now is the accepted time,
The Savior calls to-day;
To-morrow it may be too late—
Then why should you delay?

3 Now is the accepted time,
The gospel bids you come;
And every promise in his word
Declares there yet is room.

221 The Gospel call. (301)

1 Ye trembling captives! hear;
The gospel-trumpet sounds;
No music more can charm the ear,
Or heal your heart-felt wounds.

2 'Tis not the trump of war,
Nor Sinai's awful roar;
Salvation's news it spreads afar,
And vengeance is no more.

3 Forgiveness, love, and peace,
Glad heaven aloud proclaims;
And earth, the jubilee's release,
With eager rapture claims.

4 Far, far to distant lands
The saving news shall spread;
And Jesus all his willing bands
In glorious triumph lead.

222 Give me thy heart. (299)

1 Give to the Lord thine heart;
In him all pleasures meet:
Oh, come and choose the better part,
Low at the Savior's feet.

2 Hear, and your soul shall live;
His peace shall be your stay—
Peace, which the world can never give,
Can never take away.

223 Boast not thyself of to-morrow. (302)

1 To-morrow, Lord! is thine,
Lodged in thy sovereign hand;
And if its sun arise and shine,
It shines by thy command.

2 The present moment flies,
And bears our life away;
Oh, make thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day.

3 Since on this fleeting hour
Eternity is hung,
Awake, by thine almighty power,
The aged and the young.

4 One thing demands our care;
Oh, be it still pursued!
Lest, slighted once, the season fair
Should never be renewed.

5 To Jesus may we fly,
Swift as the morning light,
Lest life's young, golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

ROSEFIELD. 7s, 6 lines.

Dr. MALAN.

1. From the cross, up - lift - ed high, Where the Sa - vior deigns to die, }
 What me - lo - dious sounds we hear, Burst - ing on the ra - vished ear! }

"Love's re - deem - ing work is done, Come and wel - come, sin - ner—come.

224 Come and welcome. (303)

2 "Sprinkled now with blood the throne,
 Why beneath thy burdens groan?
 On my pierced body laid,
 Justice owns the ransom paid;
 Bow the knee, embrace the Son;
 Come and welcome, sinner—come.

3 "Spread for thee the festal board:
 See, with richest dainties stored;
 To thy Father's bosom pressed,
 Yet again a child confessed,
 Never from his house to roam;
 Come and welcome, sinner—come.

4 "Soon the days of life shall end;
 Lo! I come, your Savior, Friend,
 Safe your spirits to convey
 To the realms of endless day,
 Up to my eternal home;
 Come and welcome, sinner—come."

225 His example in suffering. (162)

1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
 Ye that feel the tempter's power;
 Your Redeemer's conflict see;
 Watch with him one bitter hour:
 Turn not from his griefs away;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment hall;
 View the Lord of life arraigned:

Oh the wormwood and the gall!

Oh the pangs his soul sustained!
 Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
 Learn of him to bear the cross.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, admiring at his feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear him cry;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

226 God is love. (61)

1 Earth, with her ten thousand flowers,
 Air, with all its beams and showers,
 Ocean's infinite expanse,
 Heaven's resplendent countenance;
 All around, and all above,
 Hath this record—God is love.

2 Sounds among the vales and hills,
 In the woods, and by the rills,
 Of the breeze, and of the bird,
 By the gentle murmur stirred:
 All these songs, beneath, above,
 Have one burden—God is love.

3 All the hopes and fears that start
 From the fountain of the heart,
 All the quiet bliss that lies
 In our human sympathies:
 These are voices from above,
 Sweetly whispering, God is love.

COOKHAM. 7s. ✱

Harmonized by T. E. PERKINS.

1. Sin - ners, turn—why will you die? God, your Ma - ker, asks you why;

God, who did your be - ing give, Made you with himself to live.

227 Turn ye; for why will ye die? (304)

2 Sinners, turn—why will you die?
Christ, your Savior, asks you why;
He, who did your souls retrieve,
He, who died that you might live.

3 Will you let him die in vain?
Crucify your Lord again?
Why, you ransomed sinners, why
Will you slight his grace and die?

4 Will you not his grace receive?
Will you still refuse to live?
Oh! you dying sinners, why—
Why will you forever die?

228 Earnest entreaty. (306)

1 Haste, O sinner, to be wise,
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom warns thee from the skies
All the paths of death to shun.

2 Haste, and mercy now implore;
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Thy probation may be o'er
Ere this evening's work is done.

3 Haste, O sinner, now return;
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Haste, while yet thou canst be blest;
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Death may thy poor soul arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

229 Fullness of Christ. (307)

1 Bleeding hearts, defiled by sin,
Jesus Christ can make you clean;
Contrite souls, with guilt oppressed,
Jesus Christ can give you rest.

2 You that mourn o'er follies past,
Precious hours and years laid waste;
Turn to God, oh turn and live,
Jesus Christ can still forgive.

3 You that oft have wandered far
From the light of Bethlehem's star,
Trembling, now your steps retrace,
Jesus Christ is full of grace.

4 Souls benighted and forlorn,
Grieved, afflicted, tempest-worn,
Now in Israel's rock confide,
Jesus Christ for man has died.

5 Fainting souls, in peril's hour,
Yield not to the tempter's power;
On the risen Lord rely,
Jesus Christ now reigns on high.

230 The pearl of great price. (782)

1 'Tis religion that can give
Sweetest pleasure while we live,
'Tis religion must supply
Solid comfort when we die.

2 After death, its joys will be
Lasting as eternity!
Be the living God my friend,
Then my bliss shall never end.

INVITATION. 8s, 7s &amp; 4.

Fine.

1. Come, you sin-ners, poor and need - y, Weak and wound-ed, sick and sore; }
 Je - sus read - y stands to save you, Full of pit - y, love, and power; }
 D. C. He is a - ble, He is a - ble, He is will - ing—doubt no more.

D. C.

He is a - ble, He is a - ble, He is will-ing—doubt no more,

231 Look unto me and be saved. (312)

- 2 Let not conscience make you linger,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream;
 All the fitness he requireth,
 Is to feel your need of him:
 This he gives you,
 'Tis the Savior's rising beam.
- 3 Come, you weary, heavy laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall;
 If you tarry till you're better,
 You will never come at all:
 Not the righteous—
 Sinners, Jesus came to call.
- 4 Agonizing in the garden,
 Lo! your Savior prostrate lies!
 On the bloody tree behold him!
 Hear him cry before he dies,
 "It is finished!"
 Sinners, will not this suffice?
- 5 Lo! the rising Lord, ascending,
 Pleads the virtue of his blood:
 Venture on him, venture freely,
 Let no other trust intrude:
 None but Jesus
 Can do helpless sinners good.
- 6 Saints and angels, joined in concert,
 Sing the praises of the Lamb,
 While the blissful seats of heaven
 Sweetly echo to his name,
 Hallelujah!
 Sinners now his love proclaim.

232 The gospel Invitation. (315)

- 1 Listen to the gospel, telling
 How the Lord was crucified;
 How upon the cross he suffered,
 When he bowed his head and died,
 All for sinners!
 Come, then, to his bleeding side.
- 2 Listen to the gospel calling!
 Hear, O sinner, and obey!
 Come to Jesus, he will save you,
 Now, no longer stay away;
 He invites you;
 Sinner, then, make no delay.
- 3 Listen to the gospel pleading,
 Hasten, sinner, to arise;
 Come and cast yourself on Jesus,
 He to none his love denies;
 Trust him freely,
 Wait no longer; now be wise.
- 4 Listen to the gospel, blessing
 All who trust the Savior's love;
 And to those who now obey him,
 Bringing pardon from above;
 Careless sinner,
 Will you still refuse to move?
- 5 Listen to the gospel warning;
 All who stay away must die;
 Come, then, while all things are ready
 Mercy calls you from on high;
 Come and welcome,
 Hear, oh hear the Savior cry!

MOLUCCA. 8s, 7s &amp; 4.

1. Sin - ners, will you scorn the message, Sent in mer - cy from a - bove?
Ev' - ry sentence, oh, how ten - der, Ev' - ry line is full of love;

Lis - ten to it, Lis - ten to it, Ev' - ry line is full of love.

233 He that hath ears, let him hear. (314)

2 Hear the heralds of the gospel
News from Zion's King proclaim:

"Pardon to each rebel sinner;
Free forgiveness in his name:"
Oh how gracious!

"Free forgiveness in his name."

3 Will you not receive the message—

Listen to the joyful word—
And embrace the news of pardon
Offered to you by the Lord?

Can you slight it—

Offered to you by the Lord?

4 O ye angels, hovering round us,
Waiting spirits, speed your way—

Haste ye to the court of heaven;
Tidings bear without delay;
Rebel sinners

Glad the message will obey.

234 Friend of Sinners. (263)

1 One there is above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;

His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end;
Hallelujah!

Costly, free, and knows no end.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?

But this Savior died to have us
Reconciled in him to God;
Hallelujah!

Reconciled in him to God.

3 When he lived on earth abased,
Friend of sinners was his name;
Now above all glory raised,
He rejoices in the same;
Hallelujah!
He rejoices in the same.

235 Love of God, all love excelling. (1274)

1 Love of God, all love excelling!
How can I its wonders tell!
Now, my troubled spirit quelling,
Now, it breaks the powers of hell:
Oh what mercies
Start beneath its magic spell!

2 Love of God, all love embracing
In its wide-extended arms;
All our doubts and fears displacing,
Saves our souls from death's alarms:
Oh what sweetness
Dwells within its blissful charms!

3 Love of God, all love possessing!
Filling all our souls with joy;
Pouring on each heart a blessing
Which no time can e'er destroy:
Now may praises
All our hearts and tongues employ.

4 Love of God, all love extending
Far o'er sea and ocean strands;
Thou art on the breezes sending
Joyful news to distant lands:
May thy triumphs
Bind the world within thy bands.

THE GOLDEN SHORE. 8s &amp; 7s, with Chorus.

WM. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. We are on the o - cean sail - ing, Homeward bound we sweetly glide; }
 We are on the o - cean sail - ing, To a home be - yond the tide. }

Chorus.

All the storms will soon be o - ver, Then we'll an - chor in the har - bor;

We are out on the o - cean sail - ing, To a home be - yond the tide;

We are out on the o - cean sail - ing, To a home be - yond the tide.

236

We are on the ocean sailing.

(313)

2 Millions now are safely landed
 Over on the golden shore;
 Millions more are on their journey,
 Yet there's room for millions more.

3 Come on board; oh ship for glory!
 Be in haste—make up your mind;
 For our vessel's weighing anchor;
 You will soon be left behind.

4 You have kindred over yonder,
 On that bright and happy shore;
 By and by we'll swell the number,
 When the toils of life are o'er.

5 Spread your sails, while heavenly breezes
 Gently waft our vessel on;
 All on board are sweetly singing—
 Free salvation is the song.

6 When we all are safely landed
 Over on the shining shore,
 We will walk about the city,
 And we'll sing for evermore.

CHORUS.

All the storms of life are over,
 Landed in the port of glory:
 Now no more on the ocean sailing—
 Safe at home beyond the tide.

AMSTERDAM. 7s &amp; 6s, Peculiar.

German.

1. Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy better portion trace; } [stars decay,
Rise from transitory things, Toward heaven, thy native place; } Sun, and moon, and

Time shall soon this earth remove; Rise, my soul, and haste away To seats prepared above!

237

Aspiration.

(832)

- 2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source:
So a soul that's born of God
Pants to view his glorious face,
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.
- 3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn;
Press onward to the prize;
Soon your Savior will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given—
All your sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

238

My peace I give unto you.

(537)

- 1 Lamb of God! whose bleeding love
We now recall to mind,
Send thy blessing from above,
And let us mercy find;
Think on us, who think on thee;
Every burdened soul release;
Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!
- 2 By thine agonizing pain,
And bloody sweat, we pray—
By thy dying love to man,
Take all our sins away:

- By thy passion on the tree,
Let our griefs and troubles cease:
Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

239

The alarm.

(317)

- 1 Stop, poor sinner, stop and think,
Before you further go:
Will you sport upon the brink
Of everlasting woe?
On the verge of ruin stop—
Now the friendly warning take—
Stay your footsteps—ere you drop
Into the burning lake.
- 2 Say, have you an arm like God,
That you his will oppose?
Fear ye not that iron rod
With which he breaks his foes?
Can you stand in that dread day
Which his justice shall proclaim—
When the earth shall melt away
Like wax before the flame?
- 3 Ghastly death will quickly come,
And drag you to his bar:
Then, to hear your awful doom,
Will fill you with despair!
All your sins will round you crowd—
You shall mark their crimson dye—
Each for vengeance crying loud;
And what can you reply?

WOODWORTH. L. M.

WM. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. Just as I am, with - out one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me,

And that thou bid'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

240 Just as I am. (343)

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot—
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
With fears within, and foes without—
O Lamb of God, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5 Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe—
O Lamb of God, I come.

6 Just as I am—thy love unknown,
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

241 If any man thirst, etc. (318)

1 Burdened with guilt, wouldst thou be blest?
Trust not the world; it gives no rest:
I bring relief to hearts oppressed:
O weary sinner, come!

2 Come, leave thy burden at the cross;
Count all thy gains but empty dross:
My grace repays all earthly loss:
O needy sinner, come!

3 Come, hither bring thy boding fears,
Thine aching heart, thy bursting tears;
'Tis mercy's voice salutes thine ears:
O trembling sinner, come!

4 "The Spirit and the Bride say, Come;"
Rejoicing saints re-echo, Come!
Who faints, who thirsts, who will, may come;
Thy Savior bids thee come.

242 God calling yet. (339)

1 God calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

2 God calling yet! shall I not rise?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

3 God calling yet! and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?

4 God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still! my heart, awake!

5 God calling yet! I can not stay;
My heart I yield without delay;
Vain world, farewell! from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

WILL YOU GO? 8s & 3s.

Fine.

Will you go?

(320)

2 We're going to see the bleeding Lamb,
 Will you go?
 In rapturous strains to praise his name,
 Will you go?

The crown of life we there shall wear,
 The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear,
 And all the joys of heaven we'll share,
 Will you go?

3 We're going to join the heavenly choir,
 Will you go?
 To raise our voice and tune the lyre,
 Will you go?

There saints and angels gladly sing
 Hosanna to their God and King,
 And make the heavenly arches ring,
 Will you go?

4 Oh could I hear some sinner say,
 I will go,
 I'll start this moment—clear the way—
 Let me go!

My old companions, fare you well,
 I will not go with you to hell,
 With Jesus Christ I mean to dwell—
 Let me go—fare you well!

THE LAND OF PROMISE. 6s &amp; 7s.

Scotch.

1. Sin - ner, go; will you go To the high - lands of heav - en? }
 Where the storms nev - er blow, And the long sum - mer's giv - en; }

D. C. And the leaves of the bowers In the breez - es are flit - ting.

247 The land of promise.

(327)

2 Where the rich golden fruit
 Is in bright clusters pending,
 And the deep laden boughs
 Of life's fair tree are bending;
 And where life's crystal stream
 Is unceasingly flowing,
 And the verdure is green,
 And eternally growing.

3 Where the saints, robed in white—
 Cleansed in life's flowing fountain—
 Shining beauteous and bright,
 They inhabit the mountain;
 Where no sin, nor dismay,
 Neither trouble nor sorrow,
 Will be felt for a day,
 Nor be feared for the morrow.

4 He's prepared thee a home—
 Sinner, canst thou believe it?
 And invites thee to come—
 Sinner, wilt thou receive it?
 Oh come, sinner, come,
 For the tide is receding,
 And the Savior will soon,
 And forever, cease pleading.

248The region above.*

(1147)

1 There's a region above,
 Free from sin and temptation,
 And a mansion of love,
 For each heir of salvation.
 Then dismiss all thy fears,
 Weary pilgrim of sorrow;
 Though thy sun set in tears,
 'T will rise brighter to-morrow.

2 There our toils will be done,
 And free grace be our story,
 God himself be our Sun,
 And our unsetting glory.
 In that world of delight
 Spring shall never be ended,
 Nor shall shadows nor night
 With its brightness be blended.

3 There shall friends no more part,
 Nor shall farewells be spoken;
 There'll be balm for the heart
 That with anguish was broken.
 From affliction set free,
 And from God ne'er to sever,
 We his glory shall see,
 And enjoy him forever.

EXPOSTULATION. 11s.

1. Oh, turn you! oh, turn you, for why will you die, { When God in his Now Je - sus inmer - cy is com - ing so nigh? }

vites you, the Spir - it says, Come, } The brethren are waiting to welcome you home.

249Repent and turn.(329)

- 2 How vain the delusion, that while you delay
Your hearts may grow better by staying away!
Come wretched, come starving, come just as you be,
Here streams of salvation are flowing most free.
- 3 Here Jesus is ready your souls to receive;
Oh how can you question, since now you believe?
Since sin is your burden, why will you not come?
He now bids you welcome—he now says there's room.
- 4 In riches, in pleasure, what can you obtain,
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain;
To bear up your spirit, when summoned to die,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?

250Delay not.(330)

- 1 Delay not, delay not, O sinner! draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;
No price is demanded, the Savior is here,
Redemption is purchased—salvation is free.
- 2 Delay not, delay not! why longer abuse
The love and compassion of Jesus our Lord?
A fountain is opened—how canst thou refuse
To wash and be cleansed in his pardoning blood?
- 3 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come!
For mercy still lingers, and calls thee to-day;
Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;
Her message, unheeded, will soon pass away.
- 4 Delay not, delay not! the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, entreats thee to come;
Beware, lest in darkness thou finish thy race,
And sink to the vale of eternity's gloom.

THE EDEN ABOVE. P. M. (New.)

T. J. COOK.

1. We are bound for the land of the pure and the ho - ly, The

The Eden above.

(331)

- 3 Nor fraud, nor deceit, nor the hand of oppression,
Can injure the dwellers in that holy grove;
No wickedness there, not a shade of transgression—
O say, will you go to the Eden above?
- 4 Each saint has a mansion, prepared and all furnished,
Ere from this clay house he is summoned to move;
Its gates and its towers with glory are burnished—
O say, will you go to the Eden above?
- 5 March on, happy pilgrims, that land is before you,
And soon its ten thousand delights we shall prove;
Yes, soon we shall walk o'er the hills of bright glory,
And drink the pure joys of the Eden above.
We will go, etc.
- 6 And yet, guilty sinner, we would not forsake thee;
We halt yet a moment as onward we move;
Oh come to thy Lord, in his arms he will take thee,
And bear thee along to the Eden above.

WARNING. 12s &amp; 11s.

W. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. Hark, sinner, while God from on high doth entreat thee; And warnings with accents of
 2. How oft of thy danger and guilt he hath told thee! How oft still the message of
 3. De - spised and rejected, at length he may leave thee: What anguish and horror thy mercy do blend; Give ear to his voice, lest in judgment he meet thee; "The harvest is mercy doth send! Haste, haste, while he waits in his arms to enfold thee; The harvest, etc.

 bosom will rend! Then, haste thee, O sinner, while he will receive thee; The harvest, etc.

D. S., or pass-ing, the summer will end." "The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

252The harvest is past, etc.*

(334)

4 Ere long, and Jehovah will come in his power;
 Our God will arise, with his foes to contend:
 Haste, haste thee, O sinner! prepare for that hour;
 "The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

5 The Savior will call thee in judgment before him:
 Oh bow to his scepter, and make him thy Friend;
 Now yield him thy heart; make haste to adore him;
 "The harvest is passing, thy summer will end."

253Whereas I was blind, now I see.*

(593)

1 O Savior, whose mercy, severe in its kindness,
 Hath chastened my wanderings and guided my way,
 Adored be the power that hath pitied my blindness,
 And weaned me from phantoms that smiled to betray.

2 Enchanted with all that was dazzling and fair,
 I followed the rainbow—I caught at the toy;
 And still in displeasure thy goodness was there,
 Disappointing the hope, and defeating the joy.

3 The blossom blushed bright, but a worm was below;
 The moonlight shone fair—there was blight in the beam;
 Sweet whispered the breeze, but it whispered of woe;
 And bitterness flowed in the soft flowing stream.

BILLOW. 8s, 7s & 4s.

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. Star of peace, to wand'ers wea - ry, Bright the beams that smile on me ;

Cheer the pi - lot's vi - sion dreary, Far, far at sea. Far, far at sea.

1st time. 2d time.

254 Far, far at sea. (1294)

- 2 Star of Hope, gleam on the billow;
Bless the soul that sighs for thee;
Bless the sailor's lonely pillow,
Far, far at sea.
- 3 Star of faith, when winds are mocking
All his toil, he flies to thee;
Save him, on the billows rocking,
Far, far at sea.

255 Entreaty. (335)

- 1 Sinners, come, no longer wander;
Turn you from your evil way;
Precious time no longer squander:
Come, come away.
- 2 Christ for you his life has offered,
What can you excusing say,
If you slight the pardon proffered?
Come, come away.
- 3 Hold not back in hesitation,
There is danger in delay,
Haste, secure your soul's salvation,
Come, come away.

256 Book of grace. (21)

- 1 Book of grace, and book of glory!
Gift of God to age and youth;
Wondrous in thy sacred story,
Bright, bright with truth.

- 2 Book of love! in accents tender,
Speaking unto such as we;
May it lead us, Lord, to render
All, all to thee.

- 3 Book of hope! the spirit, sighing,
Consolation finds in thee;
As it hears the Savior crying—
"Come, come to me."

- 4 Book of life! when we, reposing,
Bid farewell to friends we love,
Give us for the life then closing,
Life, life above.

257 Praise the Lord. (673)

- 1 Praise the Lord, ye saints, adore him,
All unite with one accord;
Bring your offerings, come before him—
Oh praise the Lord.
- 2 Praise the Lord, who every blessing
On our heads hath richly poured;
Sing aloud, his love confessing—
Oh praise the Lord.
- 3 Praise the Lord! who would not praise him?
He hath us to grace restored:
To the highest honors raise him—
Oh praise the Lord.
- 4 Praise the Lord! your songs excelling
Worldly music's richest chord;
Sing—your Savior's glory telling;
Oh praise the Lord.

DEVOTION. L. M. ✱

1. Show pi-ty, Lord! O Lord, for - give; Let a re - pent - ant re - bel live;

Are not thy mer - cies large and free? May not a sin - ner trust in thee?

258 The contrite heart. (346)

2 My crimes, though great, can not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace;
Great God, thy nature hath no bound;
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here, on my heart, the burden lies,
And past offenses pain my eyes.

4 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace;
Lord, should thy judgment grow severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.

5 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
I must pronounce thee just in death;
And if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

259 His miracles. (145)

1 Behold the blind their sight receive!
Behold the dead awake and live!
The dumb speak wonders, and the lame
Leap like the hart, and bless his name!

2 Thus doth the Holy Spirit own
And seal the mission of the Son;
The Father vindicates his cause,
While he hangs bleeding on the cross.

260 The wise choice. (336)

1 Though all the world my choice deride,
Yet Jesus shall my portion be;
For I am pleased with none beside;
The fairest of the fair is he.

2 Sweet is the vision of thy face,
And kindness o'er thy lips is shed,
Lovely art thou, and full of grace,
And glory beams around thy head.

3 Thy sufferings I embrace with thee,
Thy poverty and shameful cross;
The pleasure of the world I flee,
And deem its treasures only dross.

4 Be daily dearer to my heart,
And ever let me feel thee near;
Then willingly with all I'd part,
Nor count it worthy of a tear.

261 Restore unto me salvation. (847)

1 A broken heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring;
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.

2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace;
I'll lead them to my Savior's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.

PEACE, TROUBLED SOUL. L. M., 6 lines.

MAZZINGHI.

1. Peace, troubled soul, whose plain-tive moan Hath taught each scene the notes of woe; Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan, And let . . . thy D. S. To lull . . . thy tears for - get to flow; Be - hold, the pre - cious balm is found, pain, to heal thy wound.

262 Come unto me, all ye that labor. (350)

1 Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
Hath taught each scene the notes of woe;
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
And let thy tears forget to flow:
Behold the precious balm is found
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

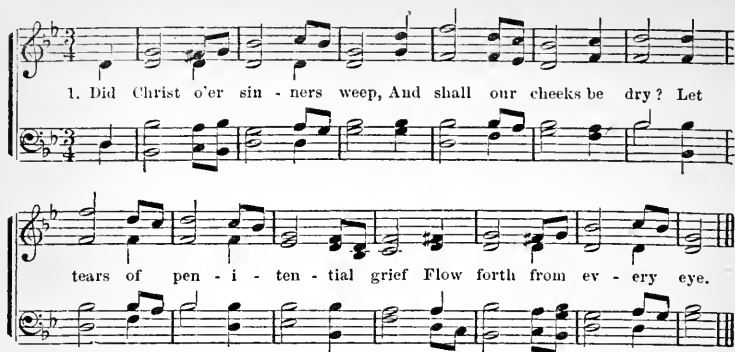

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed;
On Jesus cast thy weighty load;
In him thy refuge find, thy rest,
Safe in the mercy of thy God:
Thy God's thy Savior—glorious word!
Oh, hear, believe, and bless the Lord!

263 Thy footsteps are not known. (902)

1 Oh let my trembling soul be still,
While darkness veils this mortal eye,
And wait thy wise, thy holy will,
Wrapped yet in fears and mystery;
I can not, Lord, thy purpose see;
Yet all is well, since ruled by thee.

2 So trusting in thy love, I tread
The narrow path of duty on:
What though some cherished joys are fled?
What though some flattering dreams are gone?
Yet purer, nobler joys remain,
And peace is won through conquered pain.

IDUMEA. S. M. ❁

1. Did Christ o'er sin - ners weep, And shall our cheeks be dry? Let tears of pen - i - ten - tial grief Flow forth from ev - ery eye.

264 He beheld the city and wept over it. (161)

- 2 The Son of God in tears,
The wondering angels see:
Be thou astonished, O my soul!
He shed those tears for thee.
- 3 He wept, that we might weep—
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

265 God's mercy to the penitent. (366)

- 1 Sweet is the friendly voice
Which speaks of life and peace;
Which bids the penitent rejoice,
And sin and sorrow cease.
- 2 No balm on earth like this
Can cheer the contrite heart;
No flattering dreams of earthly bliss
Such pure delight impart.
- 3 Still merciful and kind,
Thy mercy, Lord, reveal;
The broken heart thy love can bind,
The wounded spirit heal.

266 Yielding. (365)

- 1 And can I yet delay
My little all to give—
To tear my soul from earth away
For Jesus to receive?

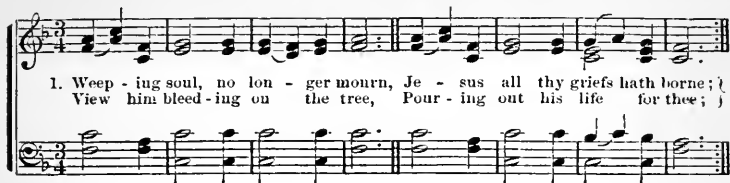

- 2 Nay, but I yield, I yield;
I can hold out no more;
I sink, by dying love compelled,
And own thee Conqueror.
- 3 Though late, I all forsake;
My friends, my all, resign:
Gracious Redeemer! take, oh take,
And seal me ever thine!
- 4 Come, and possess me whole,
Nor hence again remove;
Settle and fix my wavering soul
With all thy weight of love.
- 5 My one desire be this:
Thy only love to know;
To seek and taste no other bliss,
No other good below.

267 You shall find rest for your souls. (364)

- 1 Ah! what avails my strife,
My wandering to and fro?
Thou hast the words of endless life;
Ah! whither should I go?
- 2 Thy condescending grace
To me did freely move;
It calls me still to seek thy face,
And stoops to ask my love.
- 3 Lord, at thy feet I fall;
I long to be set free;
I fain would now obey the call,
And give up all for thee.

ALETTA. 7s, 6 Lines.

WM. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. Weep - ing soul, no lon - ger mourn, Je - sus all thy griefs hath borne; }
View him bleed - ing on the tree, Pour - ing out his life for thee; }

There thy ev - ery sin he bore; Weep - ing soul, la - ment no more.

268 He hath borne our griefs. (946) 270 Heavenly places. (571)

2 Cast thy guilty soul on him,
Find him mighty to redeem;
At his feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and fears away;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

1 If 't is sweet to mingle where
Christians meet for social prayer;
If 't is sweet with them to raise
Songs of holy joy and praise—
Passing sweet that state must be
Where they meet eternally.

269 Jesus, Savior, pity me. (947)

1 Pity, Lord! this child of clay,
Who can only weep and pray—
Only on thy love depend:
Thou who art the sinner's Friend;
Thou the sinner's only plea—
Jesus, Savior, pity me!

2 Savior, may these meetings prove
Antepasts to that above;
While we worship in this place,
May we go from grace to grace,
Till we each, in his degree,
Fit for endless glory be.

2 From thy flock, a straying Lamb,
Tender Shepherd, though I am;
Now, upon the mountain cold,
Lost, I long to gain the fold,
And within thine arms to be:
Jesus, Savior, pity me!

271 My peace I give unto you. (309)

1 Ye who in his courts are found
Listening to the joyful sound,
Lost and hopeless as ye are,
Sons of sorrow, sin, and care,
Glorify the King of kings;
Take the peace the gospel brings.

3 Oh where stillest streams are poured,
In green pastures lead me, Lord!
Bring me back where angels sound
Joy to the poor wanderer found;
Evermore my Shepherd be:
Jesus, Savior, pity me!

2 Turn to Christ your longing eyes;
View his bleeding sacrifice;
See in him your sins forgiven,
Pardon, holiness, and heaven;
Glorify the King of kings;
Take the peace the gospel brings.

HORTON. 7s.

WARTENSEE.

1. Love for all! and can it be? Can I hope it is for me?

I, who strayed so long a - go, Strayed so far, and fell so low!

272 Father, I have sinned. (367)

2 I, the disobedient child,
Wayward, passionate, and wild;
I, who left my Father's home
In forbidden ways to roam!

3 I, who spurned his loving hold,
I, who would not be controlled;
I, who would not hear his call,
I, the willful prodigal!

4 I, who wasted and misspent
Every talent he had lent;
I, who sinned again, again,
Giving every passion rein!

5 To my Father can I go?
At his feet myself I'll throw,
In his house there yet may be
Place—a servant's place—for me.

6 See: my Father waiting stands;
See: he reaches out his hands;
God is love! I know, I see,
Love for me—yes, even me.

273 The night is passed. (310)

1 Weeping sinners, dry your tears;
Jesus on the throne appears;
Mercy comes with balmy wing,
Bids you his salvation sing.

2 Peace he brings you by his death,
Peace he speaks with every breath:
Can you slight such heavenly charms?
Flee, oh flee to Jesus' arms.

274 Bond of peace. (499)

1 Jesus, Lord, we look to thee;
Let us in thy name agree;
Show thyself the Prince of Peace;
Bid our jars forever cease.

2 By thy reconciling love,
Every stumbling-block remove;
Each to each unite, endear;
Come, and spread thy banner here.

3 Make of us one heart and mind—
Courteous, pitiful, and kind:
Lowly, meek, in thought and word—
Altogether like our Lord.

4 Let us for each other care;
Each the other's burden bear:
To thy church the pattern give;
Show how true believers live.

5 Free from anger and from pride,
Let us thus in God abide;
All the depths of love express—
All the heights of holiness.

275 Lead me, O Lord. (575)

1 Shepherd of thy little flock,
Lead me to the shadowing rock,
Where the richest pasture grows;
Where the living water flows;

2 By that pure and silent stream,
Sheltered from the scorching beam;
Shepherd, Savior, Guardian, Guide,
Keep me ever near thy side.

A - shamed of thee whom angels praise, Whose glory shines thro' end-less days.

276

Ashamed of Jesus.

(373)

- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! Sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star!
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus! Just as soon
Let morning be ashamed of noon!
'Tis midnight with my soul till he,
Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus—that dear friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No! when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.
- 5 Ashamed of Jesus! Yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away,
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.
- 6 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
Till then I'll boast a Savior slain!
And oh! may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me!
- 7 His institutions would I prize,
Take up my cross, the shame despise—
Dare to defend his noble cause,
And yield obedience to his laws.

277

Christ's example.

(376)

- 1 Our Savior bowed beneath the wave,
And meekly sought a watery grave:
Come, see the sacred path he trod—
A path well-pleasing to our God.

- 2 His voice we hear, his footsteps trace,
And hither come to seek his face,
To do his will, to feel his love,
And join our songs with songs above.
- 3 Hosanna to the Lamb divine!
Let endless glories round him shine!
High o'er the heavens forever reign.
O Lamb of God! for sinners slain.

278

The spirit of obedience.

(374)

- 1 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain
O Lamb of God! for sinners slain.
- 2 We sink beneath the mystic flood:
Oh bathe us in thy cleansing blood!
We die to sin, and seek a grave
With thee beneath the yielding wave.
- 3 And as we rise, with thee to live,
Oh let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love!

279

A baptismal hymn.

(378)

- 1 The great Redeemer we adore,
Who came the lost to seek and save,
Went humbly down from Jordan's shore
To find a tomb beneath its wave!
- 2 With thee, into thy watery tomb,
Lord, 'tis our glory to descend;
'Tis wondrous grace that gives us room
To share the grave of such a friend!

AZMON. C. M.

From GLASER.

1. Ashamed of Christ! our souls dis - dain The mean, un - generous thought;

Shall we dis - own that friend whose blood To man sal - va - tion brought?

280 He that is ashamed of me, etc. (381)

2 With the glad news of love and peace,
From heaven to earth he came;
For us endured the painful cross,
For us despised the shame.

3 To his command let us submit
Ourselves without delay;
Our lives—yea, thousand lives of ours—
His love can ne'er repay.

4 Each faithful follower Jesus views
With infinite delight;
Their lives to him are dear—their death
Is precious in his sight.

5 To bear his name—his cross to bear—
Our highest honor this!
Who nobly suffers for him now,
Shall reign with him in bliss.

281 Hinder me not. (380)

1 In all my Lord's appointed ways,
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not, you much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.

2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead,
I'll follow where he goes;
Hinder me not, shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.

3 Through trials and through sufferings, too,
I'll go at his command;
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.

4 And when my Savior calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be:
Hinder me not—come, welcome death,
I'll gladly go with thee.

282 Glorying in the cross. (355)

1 Didst thou, Lord Jesus, suffer shame,
And bear the cross for me?
And shall I fear to own thy name,
Or thy disciple be?

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should dread
To suffer shame or loss:
Oh let me in thy footsteps tread,
And glory in thy cross.

283 Call to repentance. (356)

1 Repent! the voice celestial cries,
No longer dare delay:
The soul that scorns the mandate dies,
And meets a fiery day.

2 No more the sovereign eye of God
O'erlooks the crimes of men;
His heralds now are sent abroad
To warn the world of sin.

3 O sinners! in his presence bow,
And all your guilt confess;
Accept the offered Savior now,
Nor trifle with his grace.

4 Soon will the awful trumpet sound,
And call you to his bar;
His mercy knows the appointed bound,
And yields to justice there.

284 He left us an example. (382)

1 Buried beneath the yielding wave
The great Redeemer lies;
Faith views him in the watery grave,
And thence beholds him rise.

2 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain,
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.

3 Now, blest Redeemer, we to thee
Our grateful voices raise:
Washed in the fountain of thy blood,
Our lives shall be thy praise.

285 Not as the world giveth. (402)

1 How happy is the Christian's state!
His sins are all forgiven;
A cheering ray confirms the grace,
And lifts his hopes to heaven.

2 Though in the rugged path of life
He heaves the pensive sigh;
Yet, trusting in his God, he finds
Delivering grace is nigh.

3 If, to prevent his wandering steps,
He feels the chastening rod,
The gentle stroke shall bring him back
To his forgiving God.

4 And when the welcome message comes
To call his soul away,
His soul in raptures shall ascend
To everlasting day.

286 I was blind, but now I see. (403)

1 Amazing grace! (how sweet the sound!)
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

2 Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come;
Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

3 The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

4 Yes, when this heart and flesh shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the veil
A life of joy and peace.

287 Nearness of life. (404)

1 How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place—
I seek my home in heaven.

2 A country far from mortal sight,
Yet oh, by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints delight,
The heaven prepared for me.

3 Oh what a blessed hope is ours!
While here on earth we stay,
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day.

4 We feel the resurrection near,
Our life in Christ concealed,
And with his glorious presence here,
Our earthen vessels filled.

5 Oh, would he all of heaven bestow!
Then like our Lord we'll rise;
Our bodies, fully ransomed, go
To take the glorious prize.

6 On him with rapture then I'll gaze,
Who bought the bliss for me,
And shout and wonder at his grace,
Through all eternity.

288 A plea for mercy. (361)

1 Mercy alone can meet my case,
For mercy, Lord, I cry;
Jesus, Redeemer, show thy face
In mercy, or I die.

2 I perish, and my doom were just;
But wilt thou leave me? No!
I hold thee fast, my hope, my trust;
I will not let thee go.

3 To thee, thee only will I cleave;
Thy word is all my plea;
That word is truth, and I believe—
Have mercy, Lord, on me.

From thine unwasting store!

290 The same. (387)

- 1 Savior, thy law we love,
Thy pure example bless,
And with a firm, unwavering zeal,
Would in thy footsteps press.
- 2 Not to the fiery pains
By which the martyrs bled;
Not to the scourge, the thorn, the cross,
Our favored feet are led—
- 3 But, at this peaceful tide,
Assembled in thy fear,
The homage of obedient hearts,
We humbly offer here.

291 Thus it becometh us. (389)

- 1 With willing hearts we tread
The path the Savior trod;
We love th' example of our Head,
The glorious Lamb of God.
- 2 On thee, on thee alone,
Our hope and faith rely;
Oh thou who didst for sin atone,
Who didst for sinners die.
- 3 We trust thy sacrifice,
To thy dear cross we flee,
Oh, may we die to sin, and rise
To life and bliss in thee.

292 That they may be one in us. (419)

- 1 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head;
Shall form us to thine image bright,
That we thy paths may tread.
- 2 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near thy side
Through all the gloomy way.
- 3 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If he in heaven hath fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

1. Grace! 'tis a charm - ing sound, Har - mo - nious to the ear;

Heaven with the ech-o shall re-sound, Heaven with the Heaven with the ech - o shall re-sound, Heaven with the ech - o shall re - sound, And all the earth shall hear, And

And all the earth shall

all the earth shall hear, And all the earth shall hear.
hear, And all the earth shall hear And all the earth shall hear.

293 By grace are ye saved. (405)

- 2 Grace first contrived the way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.
- 3 Grace led our wandering feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour we meet
While pressing on to God.
- 4 Grace all the work shall crown
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves our praise.

294 His compassions fail not. (652)

- 1 How various and how new
Are thy compassions, Lord!

- Each morning shall thy mercies show,
Each night thy truth record.
- 2 Thy goodness, like the sun,
Dawned on our early days,
Ere infant reason had begun
To form our lips to praise.
- 3 Each object we beheld
Gave pleasure to our eyes;
And nature all our senses held
In bands of sweet surprise.
- 4 But pleasures more refined
Awaited that blest day,
When light arose upon our mind
And chased our sins away.
- 5 How new thy mercies, then!
How sovereign and how free!
Our souls, that had been dead in sin,
Were made alive to thee.

1. Forgiveness! 't is a joy-ful sound To mal - e - fac - tors doomed to die;

Publish the bliss the world around; You ser-aphs, shout it from the sky!

295The joys of pardon.*

(395)

- 1 Forgiveness! 't is a joyful sound
To malefactors doomed to die:
Publish the bliss the world around;
You seraphs, shout it from the sky!
- 2 'T is the rich gift of love divine;
'T is full, outmeasuring every crime;
Unclouded shall its glories shine,
And feel no change by changing time.
- 3 For this stupendous love of heaven,
What grateful honors shall we show?
Where much transgression is forgiven,
Let love in equal ardors glow.
- 4 By this inspired, let all our days
With gospel holiness be crowned;
Let truth and goodness, prayer and praise,
In all abide, in all abound.

296Rev. 11: 15.*

(1269)

- 1 Soon may the last glad song arise
Through all the millions of the skies—
That song of triumph, which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's.
- 2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms be
Obedient, mighty God! to thee;
And over land, and stream, and main,
Now wave the scepter of thy reign.
- 3 Oh let that glorious anthem swell!
Let host to host the triumph tell,
That not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Savior reigns.

297Blessed is the man whose sin, etc.* (396)

- 1 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven—
The new-born joy of sins forgiven!
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
O angels! never dimmed your sight.
- 2 You saw of old on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies;
You know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings.
- 3 Bright heralds of the Eternal Will,
Abroad his errands you fulfill;
Or, throned in floods of beamy day,
Symphonious in his presence play.
- 4 Loud is the song—the heavenly plain
Is shaken with the choral strain;
And dying echoes, floating far,
Draw music from each chiming star.
- 5 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge shall be mine;
You on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine shall bear.

298His mercy endureth forever.* (637)

- 1 Oh render thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love!
Whose mercy firm through ages past
Has stood, and shall forever last.
- 2 Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vast, but numberless!
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise!

1. Oh, sweet-ly breathe the lyres a - bove, When an - gels touch the quivering string, And wake to chant Im - man - uel's love, Such strains as an - gel - lips can sing! Such strains as an - gel - lips can sing!

299 Joy of consecration to Christ. (399)

- 2 And sweet, on earth, the choral swell,
From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.
- 3 Jesus, thy name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us thine;
And carnal joys, that charmed before,
For thy dear sake we now resign.
- 4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,
Accept thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away.

300 The beatitudes. (411)

- 1 Blessed are the humble souls that see
Their emptiness and poverty;
Treasures of grace to them are given,
And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.
- 2 Blessed are the men of broken heart,
Who mourn for sin with inward smart;
The blood of Christ divinely flows,
A healing balm for all their woes.

- 3 Blessed are the souls who thirst for grace,
Hunger and thirst for righteousness;
They shall be well supplied and fed
With living streams and living bread.
- 4 Blessed are the men of peaceful life,
Who quench the glowing coals of strife;
They shall be called the heirs of bliss,
The sons of God, the God of peace.

301 The hour of worship. (679)

- 1 Blest hour, when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
- 2 Blest hour, when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast,
While, all around, the calm divine,
Proclaims the holy day of rest.
- 3 Blest hour when God himself draws nigh,
Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To hush the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.

HALLE. 7s, 6 lines.

Arr. by Dr. HASTINGS.

1. Je - sus, Lamb of God, for me Thou, the Lord of life, didst die; }
Whith-er—whith-er, but to thee, Can a trem - bling sin - ner fly? }

Death's dark wa - ters o'er me roll; Save, oh, save my sink - ing soul.

304 Lord, save me. (390)

2 Never bowed a martyred head,
Weighed with equal sorrow down;
Never blood so rich was shed,
Never king wore such a crown!
To thy cross and sacrifice,
Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul, by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there;
By thy mighty grace renewed,
New-born hope forbids despair;
Lord, thou canst my guilt forgive,
Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel,
Sinks the inward storm to rest;
Life—immortal life—I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast;
Thine—forever thine—I am,
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

305 The soul panting for God. (823)

1 As the hart, with eager looks,
Panteth for the water-brooks,
So my soul, athirst for thee,
Pants the living God to see:
When, oh when, with filial fear,
Lord, shall I to thee draw near?

2 Why art thou cast down, my soul?
God, thy God, shall make thee whole:
Why art thou disquieted?
God shall lift thy fallen head,
And his countenance benign
Be the saving health of thine.

306 He is our peace. (392)

1 Weary souls, that wander wide
From the central point of bliss,
Turn to Jesus crucified:
Fly to those dear wounds of his;
Sink into the purple flood,
Rise into the life of God.

2 Find in Christ the way of peace,
Peace unspeakable, unknown;
By his pain he gives you ease,
Life, by his expiring groan:
Rise, exalted by his fall;
Find in Christ your all in all.

3 Oh believe the record true,
God to you his Son hath given!
You may now be happy too;
Find on earth the life of heaven;
Live the life of heaven above,
All the life of glorious love.

307 As a weaned child. (920)

1 Quiet, Lord, my froward heart,
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art,
Make me as a weaned child;
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive:
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to thy wisdom leave;
'Tis enough that thou wilt care—
Why should I the burden bear?

DESIRE. L. M.

1. How vain is all be-neath the skies! How transient ev'-ry earth-ly bliss!

How slen-der all the fondest ties That bind us to a world like this!

308 Our life is a vapor. (426)

2 The evening cloud, the morning dew,
The withering grass, the fading flower,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true—
The glory of a passing hour.

3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a brighter world on high,
Beyond the reach of care and pain.

4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares and chase our fears;
If God be ours, we're traveling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

309 In Christ. (412)

1 God of my life! thy boundless grace
Chose, pardoned, and adopted me:
My rest, my home, my dwelling-place—
Father! I come, I come to thee.

2 Jesus, my Hope, my Rock, my Shield!
Whose precious blood was shed for me,
Into thy hands my soul I yield—
Savior! I come, I come to thee.

310 The bread of life. (518)

1 Away from earth my spirit turns—
Away from every transient good;
With strong desire my bosom burns
To feast on heaven's diviner food.

2 Thou, Savior, art the living bread;
Thou wilt my every want supply;
By thee sustained, and cheered, and led,
I'll press through dangers to the sky.

3 What though temptations oft distress,
And sin assails and breaks my peace,
Thou wilt uphold, and save, and bless,
And bid the storms of passion cease.

4 Then let me take thy gracious hand,
And walk beside thee onward still,
Till my glad feet shall safely stand
Forever firm on Zion's hill.

311 Rest in God's wisdom. (767)

1 Whither, oh whither should I fly
But to my loving Father's breast!
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest!

2 In all my ways thy hand I own,
Thy ruling providence I see:
Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.

3 I have no skill the snare to shun;
But thou, O God, my wisdom art!
I ever into ruin run;
But thou art greater than my heart.

4 Foolish, and impotent, and blind,
Lead me a way I have not known;
Bring me where I my heaven may find—
The heaven of loving thee alone!

VARINA. C. M., Double.

German.

1. There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign, } [bides,
 Infinite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain. } There everlasting spring a-

And never-with'ring flow'rs; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heav'nly land from ours.

312 The land of promise. (428)

2 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
 Stand dressed in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan rolled between.
 But timorous mortals start and shrink
 To cross this narrow sea,
 And linger, shivering, on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.

3 Oh could we make our doubts remove,
 Those gloomy doubts that rise,
 And see the Canaan that we love,
 With unclouded eyes;
 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the shore.

313 We all shall meet in heaven. (430)

1 Hail, sweetest, dearest tie! that binds
 Our glowing hearts in one;
 Hail, sacred hope! that tunes our minds
 To harmony divine.
 It is the hope, the blissful hope,
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

2 What though the northern wintry blast
 Shall howl around our cot;

What though beneath an eastern sun
 Be cast our distant lot;
 Yet still we share the blissful hope
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

3 From eastern shores, from northern lands,
 From western hill and plain,
 From southern climes, the brother-bands
 May hope to meet again.
 It is the hope, the blissful hope,
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when life and time are o'er,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

4 From Burmah's shores, from Afric's strand,
 From India's burning plain,
 From Europe, from Columbia's land,
 We hope to meet again.
 It is the hope, the blissful hope,
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

5 No lingering look, nor parting sigh,
 Our future meeting knows;
 There friendship beams from every eye,
 And love immortal glows.
 O sacred hope! O blissful hope!
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

314 The heavenly Canaan. (431)

- 2 Oh the transporting, rapturous scene
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight!
- 3 There generous fruits that never fail
On trees immortal grow;
There rocks and hills, and brooks and vales,
With milk and honey flow.
- 4 All o'er these wide-extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Sun, forever reigns,
And scatters night away.
- 5 No chilling winds nor poisonous breath
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.
- 6 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest!
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest!

315 The land that is afar off. (429)

- 1 Far from these narrow scenes of night,
Unbounded glories rise,
And realms of infinite delight
Unknown to mortal eyes.
- 2 Celestial land! could our weak eyes
But half thy charms explore,
How would our spirits long to rise,
And dwell on earth no more!
- 3 There pain and sickness never come,
And grief no place obtains;
Health triumphs in immortal bloom,
And endless pleasure reigns.
- 4 No cloud these blissful regions know,
Forever bright and fair!
For sin, the source of every woe,
Can never enter there.
- 5 There no alternate night is known,
Nor sun's faint, sickly ray;
But glory from the sacred throne
Spreads everlasting day.

Each land-mark on the distant shore,
The trees of life, the pastures green,
The golden streets, the crystal stream;
Again for joy she spreads her wings,
And loud her lovely sonnet sings,
I'm going home.

3 The nearer still she draws to land,
More eager all her powers expand;
With steady helm and free bent sail,
Her anchor drops within the veil;
And now for joy she folds her wings,
And her celestial sonnet sings,
I'm safe at home.

Songs, like sweet notes of praise,
Pour forth in rapturous lays,
As all the voices raise
Glory to God!

2 Hear how the angels sing
Glory to God!
Through all the heavens ring
Glory to God!
Now let each heart on earth
Sing of the Savior's birth,
Telling his matchless worth,
Glory to God!

- 1 Jesus has died for me,
Glory to God!
From sin he set me free,
Glory to God!
And, if I trust his grace,
I soon shall win the race;
Then see his lovely face,
Glory to God!
- 2 Soon, I shall sing above,
Glory to God!
Tell of his wondrous love,
Glory to God:
Free from all death and wrong,
Then shall my notes prolong
One loud, triumphant song,
Glory to God!

321

Glory to God in the highest.

H. K. OLIVER.

1. Hap-py the church, thou sa - cred place, The seat of thy Cre - a - tor's grace!

Thine ho - ly courts are his a - bode. Thou earthly pal - ace of our God!

323 God in the midst of her. (441)

1 Happy the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace!
Thine holy courts are his abode,
Thou earthly palace of our God!

2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates
A guard of heavenly warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep foundations move,
Fixed on his counsels and his love.

3 Thy foes in vain designs engage;
Against his throne in vain they rage;
Like rising waves, with angry roar,
That dash and die upon the shore.

4 God is our shield, and God our sun;
Swift as the fleeting moments run,
On us he sheds new beams of grace,
And we reflect his brightest praise.

324 God is our refuge. (442)

1 God is the refuge of his saints,
When storms of sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep, and buried there;
Convulsions shake the solid world;
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Zion enjoys her monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour;
Nor can her firm foundations move,
Built on his truth, and armed with power.

325 Go ye into all the world. (465)

1 Ye Christian heralds! go, proclaim
Salvation through Immanuel's name;
To distant climes the tidings bear,
And plant the rose of Sharon there.

2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire,
With holy zeal your hearts inspire,
Bid raging winds their fury cease,
And hush the tempest into peace.

3 And when our labors all are o'er,
Then we shall meet to part no more—
Meet with the blood-bought throng, to fall,
And crown our Jesus—Lord of all!

326 Pray for us. (467)

1 Father of mercies, bow thine ear,
Attentive to our earnest prayer:
We plead for those who plead for thee;
Successful pleaders may they be.

2 How great their work! how vast their charge!
Do thou their anxious souls enlarge:
Their best endowments are our gain;
We share the blessings they obtain.

3 Oh, clothe with energy divine
Their words; and let those words be thine;
To them thy sacred truth reveal;
Suppress their fears, inflame their zeal.

4 Teach them to sow the precious seed;
Teach them thy chosen flock to feed;
Teach them immortal souls to gain—
And thus reward their toil and pain.

CHELMSFORD. C. M.

1. Be - hold the sure foun - da - tion - stone, Which God in Zi - on lays,

To build our heavenly hopes up - on, And his e - ter - nal praise.

327 A sure foundation. (444)

- 2 Chosen of God, to sinners dear,
And saints adore the name;
They trust their whole salvation here,
Nor shall they suffer shame.
- 3 The foolish builders, scribe and priest,
Reject it with disdain;
Yet on this rock the church shall rest,
And envy rage in vain.
- 4 What though the gates of hell withstood,
Yet must this building rise:
'Tis thy own work, almighty God,
And wondrous in our eyes.

328 We have left all, etc. (416)

- 1 There is a name I love to hear,
I love to speak its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.
- 2 It tells me of a Savior's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.
- 3 It tells me of a Father's smile,
Beaming upon his child;
It cheers me through this "little while,"
Through desert, waste, and wild.
- 4 It bids my trembling heart rejoice,
It dries each rising tear;
It tells me in "a still, small voice,"
To trust and never fear.

- 5 Jesus! the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear!
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.

- 6 This name shall shed its fragrance still,
Along this thorny road,
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.

329 Ordination. (409)

- 1 With joy we own thy servant, Lord,
Thy minister below,
Ordained to spread thy truth abroad,
That all thy name may know.
- 2 Oh may he now, and ever, keep
His eye intent on thee;
Do thou, great Shepherd of the sheep,
His bright example be.
- 3 With plenteous grace his heart prepare
To execute thy will;
And give him patience, love, and care,
And faithfulness and skill.
- 4 In flame his mind with ardent zeal,
Thy flock to feed and teach;
And let him live, and let him feel,
The truths he's called to preach.
- 5 'As showers refresh the thirsty plain,
So let his labors prove:
By him extend thy righteous reign—
The reign of truth and love.

BEALOTH. S. M., Double.

1. I love thy kingdom, Lord—The house of thine a - bode, The church our blest Redeemer saved With his own pre-cious blood. I love thy church, O God! Her walls before thee stand Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thy hand.

330 I love thy kingdom, Lord. (453)

2 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.
Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

3 Jesus, thou Friend divine,
Our Savior and our King!
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.
Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

331 The church in the wilderness. (459)

1 Far down the ages now,
Much of her journey done,

The pilgrim church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.
The story of the past
Comes up before her view:
How well it seems to suit her still—
Old, and yet ever new!

2 It is the oft-told tale
Of sin and weariness—
Of grace and love yet flowing down
To pardon and to bless.
No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path,
That leads to life and day.

3 No sweeter is the cup,
Nor less our lot of ill:
'T was tribulation ages since,
'T is tribulation still.
No slacker grows the fight,
Nor feebler is the foe,
Nor less the need of armor tried,
Of shield, and spear, and bow.

SHIRLAND. S. M.

1. How charm-ing is the place Where my Re - deem - er, God,

Un-veils the beau-ties of his face, And sheds his love a - broad!

332 How amiable are thy tabernacles. (454) 334 The Ark of God. (456)

2 Not the fair palaces
To which the great resort
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his court.

3 Here on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
And smile on all around.

4 To him their prayers and cries
Each humble soul presents;
He listens to their broken sighs,
And grants them all their wants.

5 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blessed abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.

333 It shall stand forever. (455)

1 Thy kingdom, gracious Lord,
Shall never pass away;
Firm as thy truth it still shall stand,
When earthly thrones decay.

2 Thy people here have found,
Through many weary years,
The sweet communion, joy, and peace,
To banish all their fears.

3 And now, while in thy courts,
Do thou our love increase;
Give us the food our spirits need,
And fill our hearts with peace.

1 Like Noah's weary dove,
That soared the earth around,
But not a resting-place above
The cheerless waters found.

2 Oh cease, my wandering scul,
On restless wing to roam!
All the wide world, to either pole,
Has not for thee a home.

3 Behold the ark of God!
Behold the open door!
Hasten to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

4 There safe thou shalt abide,
There sweet shall be thy rest,
And every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

5 And when the waves of ire
Again the earth shall fill,
The ark shall ride the sea of fire;
Then rest on Zion's hill.

335 Blessedness of the pure in heart. (741)

1 Blest are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is his abode.

2 Still to the lowly soul
He doth himself impart,
And for his temple and his throne
Selects the pure in heart.

ALBERTE. S. M. (New.)

Dr. HASTINGS.

1. How hon - ored is the place Where we a - dor - ing stand!

Zi - on, the glo - ry of the earth, And beauty of the land.

336 The Lord loveth the gates of Zion. (457)

- 2 Bulwarks of grace defend
The city where we dwell;
While walls, of strong salvation made,
Defy the assaults of hell.
- 3 Lift up the eternal gates, -
The doors wide open fling;
Enter, ye nations that obey
The statutes of our King.
- 4 Here taste unmingled joys,
And live in perfect peace—
You that have known Jehovah's name,
And ventured on his grace.

337 Be ye, therefore, ready also. (472)

- 1 Ye servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait;
With joy obey his heavenly word,
And watch before his gate.
- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins, as in his sight;
For awful is his name.
- 3 Watch! 't is the Lord's command;
And while we speak, he's near;
Mark the first signal of his hand,
And ready all appear.
- 4 Oh happy servant he,
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned.

338 On the departure of a missionary. (470)

- 1 You messengers of Christ,
His sovereign voice obey;
Arise and follow where he leads,
And peace attend your way.
- 2 The master whom you serve
Will needful strength bestow;
Depending on his promised aid,
With sacred courage go.
- 3 Mountains shall sink to plains,
And hell in vain oppose;
The cause is God's, and must prevail,
In spite of all his foes.
- 4 Go, spread a Savior's fame,
And tell his matchless grace,
To the most guilty and depraved
Of Adam's numerous race.
- 5 We wish you, in his name,
The most divine success,
Assured that he who sends you forth
Will your endeavors bless.

339 God be merciful to us. (737)

- 1 To bless thy chosen race,
In mercy, Lord, incline;
And cause the brightness of thy face
On all thy saints to shine,—
- 2 That so thy wondrous way
May through the world be known:
While distant lands their homage pay,
And thy salvation own.

2 See the streams of living waters
 Springing from Eternal Love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of drought remove:
 Who can faint while such a river
 Ever flows their thirst t' assuage!
 Grace, which like the Lord, the giver,
 Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear,
 For a glory and a covering,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which he gives them when they pray.

4 Blest inhabitants of Zion,
 Washed in the Redeemer's blood,
 Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
 Makes them kings and priests to God:
 'Tis his love his people raises
 With himself to reign as kings;
 And, as priests, his solemn praises
 Each for a thank-offering brings.

5 Savior, since of Zion's city
 I through grace a member am,
 Let the world deride or pity,
 I will glory in thy name:
 Fading is the worldling's treasure,
 All his boasted pomp and show!
 Solid joy and lasting pleasure
 None but Zion's children know.

341 Far from mortal cares retreating. (709)

1 Far from mortal cares retreating,
 Sordid hopes, and vain desires,
 Here our willing footsteps meeting,
 Every heart to heaven aspires.
 From the fount of glory beaming,
 Light celestial cheers our eyes,
 Mercy from above proclaiming,
 Peace and pardon from the skies.

2 Blessings all around bestowing,
 God withholds his care from none;
 Grace and mercy ever flowing
 From the fountain of his throne.
 Lord, with favor still attend us;
 Bless us with thy wondrous love;
 Thou, our Sun, our Shield, defend us;
 All our hope is from above.

WYMAN. 10s.

B. WYMAN. From "Christian Heart Songs," by per.

1. Re-store, O Fa-ther! to our times re-store The peace which filled thine in-fant church of yore, Ere lust of power had sown the seeds of strife, And quenched the new-born char-i-ties of life.

342 When the Lord shall bring again Zion. (461)

2 Oh never more may different judgments part
From kindled sympathy a brother's heart!
But, linked in one, believing thousands kneel,
And share with each the sacred joy they feel.

3 From soul to soul, quick as the sunbeam's ray,
Let concord spread one universal day;
And faith by love lead all mankind to thee,
Parent of peace, and Fount of harmony!

343 Communion of the body and blood of Christ. (544)

1 Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen;
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon thee lean.

2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load;
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

3 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is passed and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but thou art here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.

4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above—
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy—
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

ZION. 8s, 7s & 4.

1. On the mountain's top appear-ing, Lo! the sa-cred her-ald stands, }
 Welcome news to Zi - on bear-ing— Zi - on long in hos-tile lands: } Mourning

captive, God himself will loose thy bands; Mourning captive,

344 How beautiful on the mountains. (604)

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
 By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 Cease thy mourning;
 Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee:
 He himself appears thy Friend:
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;
 Here their boasts and triumphs end:
 Great deliverance
 Zion's King will surely send.

4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
 All thy warfare now be past;
 God thy Savior will defend thee;
 Victory is thine at last;
 All thy conflicts
 End in everlasting rest.

345 Mount Zion, etc. (464)

1 Zion stands with hills surrounded—
 Zion kept by power divine;
 All her foes shall be confounded,
 Though the world in arms combine:
 Happy Zion,
 What a favored lot is thine!

Every human tie may perish,
 Friend to friend unfaithful prove,

Mothers cease their own to cherish,
 Heaven and earth at last remove,
 But no changes
 Can attend Jehovah's love.

3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
 Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
 But can never cease to love thee;
 Thou art precious in his sight:
 God is with thee—
 God, thine everlasting light.

346 Living waters. (462)

1 See, from Zion's sacred mountain,
 Streams of living water flow;
 God has opened there a fountain
 That supplies the world below:
 They are blessed
 Who its sovereign virtues know.

2 Through ten thousand channels flowing,
 Streams of mercy find their way:
 Life, and health, and joy bestowing,
 Waking beauty from decay.
 Oh ye nations,
 Hail the long-expected day!

3 Gladdened by the flowing treasure,
 All-enriching as it goes,
 Lo! the desert smiles with pleasure,
 Buds and blossoms as the rose;
 Lo! the desert
 Sings for joy where'er it flows.

HEBRON. L. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

I. Kindred in Christ, for his dear sake A hearty welcome here re-ceive;

May we to-geth-er now par-take The joys which on-ly he can give.

347 Christian fellowship. (477)

- 2 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
Send his good Spirit from above;
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.
- 3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians meet together thus:
We only wish to speak of him
Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.
- 4 We'll talk of all he did, and said,
And suffered for us here below;
The path he marked for us to tread,
And what he's doing for us now.
- 5 Thus, as the moments pass away,
We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
And hasten on the glorious day
When we shall meet to part no more.

348 Welcome to young converts. (516)

- 1 Welcome, ye hopeful heirs of heaven,
To this rich feast of gospel love!
This pledge is but the prelude given
To that immortal feast above.
- 2 How great the blessing, thus to meet
According to our Savior's word,
And hold by faith communion sweet
With our unseen yet present Lord.

- 3 And if so sweet this feast below,
What will it be to meet above,
Where all we see, and feel, and know,
Are fruits of everlasting love!
- 4 Soon shall we tune the heavenly lyre,
While listening worlds the song approve;
Eternity itself expire,
Ere we exhaust the theme of love.

349 I will lay me down in peace. (1190)

- 1 Thus far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past;
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground.
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

HAMBURG. L. M.

Arranged by Dr. L. MASON.

1. Je-sus, thou Shepherd of the sheep, Thy lit-tle flock in safe-ty keep;
2. Secure them from the scorching beam, And lead them to the liv-ing stream;

These lambs within thine arms now take, Nor let them e'er thy fold for-sake.
In verdant pas-tures let them lie, And watch them with a shep-herd's eye.

350 Thy little flock in safety keep. (482)

3 Oh, teach them to discern thy voice,
And in its sacred sound rejoice!
From strangers may they ever flee,
And know no other guide but thee.

4 Lord, bring thy sheep that wander yet,
And let their number be complete;
Then let the flock from earth remove,
And reach the heavenly fold above.

351 Delight in Christ. (513)

1 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts!
Thou Fount of Life! thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to thee again.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee, thou art good,
To them that find thee—All in All!

3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feed upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill.

4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

352 You are all one in Christ Jesus. (484)

1 Still one in life and one in death,
One in our hope of rest above;
One in our joy, our trust, our faith,
One in each other's faithful love.

2 Yet must we part, and, parting, weep;
What else has earth for us in store?
Our farewell pangs, how sharp and deep!
But soon we'll meet to part no more.

353 Glorying only in the cross. (512)

1 When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my Lord:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

3 See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet—
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

FRATERNITY. L. M.

1. Come in, thou bless-ed of our God, In Je-sus' name we bid thee come; }
No more thy feet shall roam a-broad, Henceforth a brother—wel-come home. }

Chorus.

{ I'm go-ing home, I'm go-ing home, I'm go-ing home to die no more; }
{ To die no more, to die no more, I'm go-ing home to die no more. }

354 Come in, thou blessed of the Lord. (478)

1 Come in, thou blessed of our God,
In Jesus' name we bid thee come;
No more thy feet shall roam abroad,
Henceforth a brother—welcome home.

CHORUS.

I'm going home, I'm going home,
I'm going home to die no more;
To die no more, to die no more,
I'm going home to die no more.

2 Those joys which earth can not afford,
We'll seek in fellowship to prove,
Joined in one spirit to our Lord,
Together bound by mutual love.

3 And while we pass this veil of tears
We'll make our joys and sorrows known;
We'll share each other's hopes and fears,
And count a brother's cares our own.

4 Once more our welcome we repeat,
Receive assurance of our love;
Oh may we altogether meet
Around the throne of God above.

355 The pilgrim band. (481)

1 Come you that love the Lord indeed,
Who are from sin and bondage freed,

Submit to all the ways of God,
And walk the narrow, happy road.

2 Great tribulation you shall meet,
But soon shall walk the golden street;
Though hell may rage and vent its spite,
Yet Christ will save his heart's delight.

3 That happy day will soon appear
When Michael's trumpet you shall hear
Sound through the earth—yea, down to hell,
And call the nations, great and small.

4 Behold the righteous marching home,
And all the angels bid them come,
While Christ the Judge these words proclaims:
"Here come my saints—I own their names!"

5 "You everlasting gates, fly wide,
Make ready to receive my bride;
You harps of heaven, now sound aloud,
Here come the ransomed by my blood"

6 In grandeur see the royal line,
In glittering robes the sun outshine!
See saints and angels join in one,
And march in splendor to the throne.

7 They stand, and wonder, and look on.
They join in one eternal song,
Their great Redeemer to admire,
While rapture sets their souls on fire.

PARTING HYMN. L. M., Double. ✱

Fine.

1. My Christian friends in bonds of love, Whose hearts the sweetest union prove; }
 Your friendship 's like the strongest band, Yet we must take the part-ing hand. }
 D. C. And when I see that we must part, You draw like cords a - round my heart.

D. C.

Your pres-ence sweet, our un - ion dear, What joys we feel to-geth - er here!

356 Parting Hymn. (485)

2 How sweet the hours have passed away,
 Since we have met to sing and pray;
 How loath are we to leave the place
 Where Jesus shows his smiling face!
 Oh could I stay with friends so kind,
 How would it cheer my fainting mind!
 But pilgrims in a foreign land,
 We oft must take the parting hand.

3 My Christian friends, both old and young,
 I trust you will in Christ go on;
 Press on, and soon you'll win the prize—
 A crown of glory in the skies.
 A few more days, or years, at most,
 And we shall reach fair Canaan's coast:
 When, in that holy, happy land,
 We'll take no more the parting hand.

357 Christian affection. (479)

1 How blest the sacred tie that binds,
 In sweet communion, kindred minds!
 How swift the heavenly course they run,
 Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes are one!
 To each the soul of each how dear!
 What tender love, what holy fear!
 How doth the generous flame within
 Refine from earth, and cleanse from sin!

2 Their streaming eyes together flow
 For human guilt and mortal woe;
 Their ardent prayers together rise
 Like mingling flames in sacrifice.
 Nor shall the glowing flame expire,
 When dimly burns frail nature's fire;
 Then shall they meet in realms above,
 A heaven of joy, a heaven of love.

THY WILL BE DONE. Chant.

Fine. D. C.

1 "Thy will be | done!" || In devious way
 The hurrying stream of | life may | run; ||
 Yet still our grateful hearts shall say, |
 "Thy will be | done."

2 "Thy will be | done!" || if o'er us shine
 A gladdening and a | prosperous | sun, ||

This prayer will make it more divine; |
 "Thy will be | done."

3 "Thy will be | done!" || though shrouded o'er
 Our | path with | gloom, || one comfort, one
 Is ours; to breathe, while we adore, |
 "Thy will be | done."

1. How sweet, how heavenly is the sight, When those that love the Lord,

In one an-oth-er's peace de-light, And so ful-fill the word.

358 The bond of perfectness. (493)

- 2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart;
- 3 When free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failing hide,
And show a brother's love;
- 4 When love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flows;
When union sweet and dear esteem
In every action glows.
- 5 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven that finds
His bosom glow with love.

359 The whole family in heaven, etc. (494)

- 1 Come, let us join our friends above
Who have obtained the prize,
And, on the eagle wings of love,
To joy celestial rise.
- 2 Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
In heaven and earth are one:
- 3 One family—we dwell in him;
One church—above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream—
The narrow stream of death.

- 4 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

- 5 Even now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly;
And we are to the margin come,
Expecting soon to die.
- 6 Dear Savior! be our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

360 Remembering Christ. (520)

- 1 If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie—
If tender thoughts within us burn
To feel a friend is nigh—
- 2 Oh shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him who died our fears to quell,
And save from endless woe!
- 3 While yet his anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed—
"Meet and remember me"!
- 4 Remember thee! thy death, thy shame,
The griefs which thou didst bear;
O memory, leave no other name
But his recorded there!

DEDHAM. C. M.

GARDNER.

1. Blessed be the dear u - nit - ing love, That will not let us part;

Our bod - ies may far off re - move— We still are one in heart.

361 The unity of the Spirit. (488)

- 2 Joined in one Spirit to our Head,
Where he appoints, we go;
And still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
And show his praise below.
- 3 Partakers of the Savior's grace,
The same in mind and heart;
Nor joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
Nor life, nor death, can part.

362 Planting a church. (487)

- 1 Planted in Christ, the living vine,
This day with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord.
- 2 Joined in one body may we be;
One inward life partake;
One be our heart; one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.
- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.
- 4 Around this feeble, trusting band,
Thy sheltering pinions spread,
Nor let the storms of trial beat
Too fiercely on our head.
- 5 Then, when among the saints in light
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine.

363 He was known of them, etc. (525)

- 1 Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim flock,
With manna from the wilderness,
With water from the rock.
- 2 Hungry and thirsty, faint and weak,
As thou when here below,
Our souls the joys celestial seek,
That from thy sorrows flow.
- 3 We would not live by bread alone,
But by thy word of grace—
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.
- 4 Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart—
Savior, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.
- 5 Then sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and thy blood,
That living bread and heavenly wine,
Be our immortal food.

364 In remembrance of me. (524)

- 1 In memory of the Savior's love,
We keep the sacred feast,
Where every humble, contrite heart
Is made a welcome guest.
- 2 Under his banner thus we sing
The wonders of his love,
And thus anticipate by faith
The heavenly feast above

DENNIS. S. M.

H. G. NAGELL.

1. Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Chris - tian love;

The fel - low - ship of kin - dred minds Is like to that a - bove.

365Love as brethren.*

(495)

- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 Though often called to part,
Amid these scenes of pain;
Yet we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

366Whom the Lord loveth, etc.*

(1015)

- 1 How tender is thy hand,
Oh thou most gracious Lord!
Afflictions come at thy command,
And leave us at thy word.
- 2 How gentle was the rod
That chastened us for sin!
How soon we found a smiling God
Where deep distress had been!

- 3 A Father's hand we felt,
A Father's heart we knew,
'Mid tears of penitence we knelt,
And found his word was true.

- 4 Now we will bless the Lord,
And in his strength confide;
Forever be his name adored,
For there is none beside.

367 God dealeth with you as with sons. (1018)

- 1 How gracious and how wise
Is our chastising God!
And, oh! how rich the blessings are
Which blossom from his rod!
- 2 He lifts it up on high,
With pity in his heart,
That every stroke his children feel
May grace and peace impart.
- 3 Instructed thus, they bow
And own his sovereign sway;
They turn their erring footsteps back
To his forsaken way.
- 4 His covenant love they seek,
And seek the happy bands
That closer still engage their hearts
To honor his commands.
- 5 Our Father, we consent
To discipline divine,
And bless the pain that makes our soul
Still more completely thine.

368 Let there be no divisions among you. (497)

1 Let party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread,
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
Are one in Christ, their Head.

2 Among the saints on earth
Let mutual love be found;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.

3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above,
Where streams of pleasure ever flow,
And every heart is love.

369 After the Supper. (527)

1 Now let each happy guest
The sacred concert raise,
To close the honors of the feast,
And sing the Master's praise.

2 His condescending love
First calls our wonder forth;
He left the blessed realms above
To dwell with men on earth.

3 His precepts, how divine!
How suited to our state!
How bright his acts of mercy shine!
His promises, how great!

4 Redemption's glorious plan,
How wondrous in our view!
The salutary source to man
Of peace and pardon too.

370 Take this, etc. (529)

1 Jesus invites his saints
To meet around his board:
Here pardoned rebels sit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2 This holy bread and wine
Maintain our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.

3 Let all our powers be joined
His glorious name to raise;
Let holy love fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.

371 And when they had sung, etc. (530)

1 A parting hymn we sing
Around thy table, Lord:
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here;
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear.

3 The purchase of thy blood—
By sin no longer led—
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love
Be Christian union shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

372 Behold the Lamb of God. (531)

1 Not all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away its stain.

2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Bears all our sins away—
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his dying love.

373 Peace I leave with you. (735)

1 Lord, at this closing hour,
Establish every heart
Upon thy word of truth and power,
To keep us when we part.

2 Peace to our brethren give;
Fill all our hearts with love;
In faith and patience may we live,
And seek our rest above.

NUREMBURG. 7s.

1. Chil - dren of the heav - en - ly King, As ye jour - ney, sweet - ly sing :
2. Ye are trav - eling home to God, In the way the fa - thers trod ;

Sing your Sav - ior's wor - thy praise, Glo - rious in his works and ways.
They are hap - py now - and ye Soon their hap - pi - ness shall see.

374 Strangers and pilgrims. (498)

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest ;
You on Jesus' throne shall rest ;
There your seat is now prepared—
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren ; joyful stand
On the borders of your land ;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

375 The memory of thy great goodness. (1249)

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days !
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.

2 For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield ;
For the vine's exalted juice,
For the generous olive's use :

3 Flocks that whiten all the plain ;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain ;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews ;
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse :

4 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land ;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores :

5 These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow ;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

376 Prayer for deacons. (475)

1 Son of God, our glorious Head !
On us now thy blessing shed ;
From thy throne let mercy flow
To thy waiting flock below.

2 Taught by thee, with prayer sincere,
We have called thy servants here,
For thy needy ones to care,
And thy holy feast to bear.

3 May the Spirit from above
Fill their hearts with faith and love ;
Make them humble, zealous, wise,
Strife to shun, and good devise.

4 When their earthly work is done,
When the crown of life is won,
May they, with thy favor blest,
Pass from labor into rest.

1. Soft be the gent-ly - breath - ing notes That sing the Sav - ior's dy - ing love;

Soft as the eve - ning zeph - yr floats, Soft as the tune - ful lyres a - bove.

377 Soft be the gently breathing notes. (514)

2 Soft as the morning dews descend,
While warbling birds exulting soar;
So soft to our almighty Friend
Be every sigh our bosoms pour.

3 Pure as the sun's enlivening ray,
That scatters life and joy abroad,
Pure as the lucid orb of day,
That wide proclaims its Maker, God;

4 Pure as the breath of vernal skies,
So pure let our contrition be;
And purely let our sorrows rise
To him who bled upon the tree.

378 This is the gate of heaven. (548)

1 How sweet to leave the world awhile
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Savior! on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word!

2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee:
Ah! Lord! behold us at thy feet—
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.

3 "Chief of ten thousand!" now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face:
Oh! grant that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

379 Isaiah 57: 15. (551)

1 Jesus, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek thee, thou art found;
And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And, going, take thee to their home.

3 Dear Shepherd of thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim,
The sweetness of thy saving name.

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith and banish care;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

380 The living temple. (687)

1 O Father! with protecting care,
Meet us in this, our house of prayer;
Assembled in thy sacred name,
Thy promised blessing here we claim.

2 But chiefest in the cleansed breast,
Forever let thy Spirit rest,
And make the contrite heart to be
A temple pure and worthy thee.

(1003)

- 1 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before:
He that into God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.
- 2 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessed face to see;
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What must thy glory be?

383

(1006)

- 1 My times of sorrow and of joy,
Great God! are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
And go at thy command.
- 2 If thou shouldst take them all away,
Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.

1. O love di - vine, how sweet thou art! When shall I find my wand'ring heart

All tak - en up in thee! Oh may I dai - ly live to prove

The sweet-ness of re - deem - ing love, The love of Christ to me.

384 He that dwelleth in love. (505)

2 God only knows the love of God,
Oh may it now be shed abroad
To cheer my fainting heart!
I want to feel that love divine;
This heavenly portion, Lord, be mine—
Be mine this better part.

3 Oh that I could forever sit
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice;
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth, be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

4 Oh that I might, with happy John,
Recline my weary head upon
The blessed Redeemer's breast!
From care, and fear, and sorrow free,
Give me, O Lord, to find in thee
My everlasting rest.

His grace diffuses as the rains
Crown nature's flowery hills and plains,
And spread a thousand ways.

2 Salvation is the noblest song,
Oh may it dwell on every tongue,
And all repeat, Amen!
The Lord will come from heaven to earth
To give his people second birth,
And make them one again.

3 We feel redemption drawing near;
We soon in glory shall appear,
And be forever blessed:
His promise never can delay;
Our Jesus, on the appointed day,
Will give his people rest.

385 The great salvation. (672)

1 To him who did salvation bring,
Wake every tuneful power, and sing
A song of sweetest praise:

4 By faith we view him coming down
With angels hovering all around;
He smiles upon his saints:
He cries aloud in melting strains,
I come to save you from your pains,
And end your sore complaints.

FOLSOM. 10, 11, 10, 10. ❀

Arr. from MOZART.

1. Peacefully, tenderly, here, as we part,
The farewell that lingers be breathed from the heart :
2. Thoughtfully, carefully, solemn and slow ! Tears are bedewing the path that we go !

No place more fitting, O house of the Lord—Here be it spoken, that last prayerful word.
Per-ils be-fore us we know not to-day— Kindly and safely, O Lord, lead the way.

386

A parting hymn.

(506)

3 Upwardly, steadfastly, gaze on that brow : 4 Patiently, cheerfully, up, and depart
Jesus, our Leader, reigns conqueror now ; To labor and duty, with gladness of heart ;
His steps let us follow, his sufferings dare, The ransomed, with triumph, to Zion we'll bring,
Go up to glory, his blessedness share. Shouting salvation to Jesus, our King.

Psalm 121.

(537)

3 Beneath that light divine,
Securely shalt thou move ;
The sun with milder beams shall shine,
And eve's still queen her lamp incline

4 For he, thy God and Friend,
Shall keep thy soul from harm,
In each sad scene of doubt attend,
And guide thy life, and bless thine end,
With his almighty arm.

Waiting on God.

(508)

2 Since we've been waiting on lovely Jesus,
 We've felt some strength come from above,
 Our hearts have burned with holy rapture,
 We long to be absorbed in love:
 Let us sing praises for what is given,
 And trust in God for time to come:
 Sure we shall find the way to heaven;
 So farewell, brethren—we're going home,

3 And as we go let us praise our Savior,
 And pray for those who spurn his grace,
 Lest they should lose love's richest treasure,
 And ne'er enjoy his smiling face.
 Now here's my hand, and my best wishes,
 In token of my Christian love;
 In hopes with you to praise my Jesus:
 So farewell, brethren—we'll meet above.

(510)

2 Sweet bonds, that unite all the children of peace;
And thrice blessed Jesus, whose love can not cease;
Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory at home.

3 While here in the valley of conflict I stray,
Oh give me submission and strength as my day;
In all my afflictions to thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.

4 I long, dearest Lord, in thy beauty to shine;
No more as an exile in sorrow to pine;
And in thy dear image arise from the tomb,
With glorified millions to praise thee at home.

391Strangers and pilgrims.*

(838)

1 My rest is in heaven—my home is not here;
Then why should I murmur when trials appear?
Be hushed, my sad spirit, the worst that may come
But shortens thy journey and hastens thee home.

2 A pilgrim and stranger, I seek not my bliss,
Nor lay up my treasures in regions like this;
I look for a city which hands have not piled;
I pant for a country by sin undefiled.

3 Afflictions may try me, but can not destroy;
One vision of home turns them all into joy;
And the bitterest tear that flows from my eyes,
But sweetens my hope of that home in the skies.

4 Though foes and temptations my progress oppose,
They only make heaven more sweet at the close;
Come joy, or come sorrow—the worst may befall,
One moment in heaven will make up for all.

3 While here we sit, we would implore
 That love may spread from shore to shore,
 Till all the saints, like us, combine
 To praise the Lord in songs divine.

4 To all we freely give our hand,
 Who love the Lord in every land;
 For all are one in Christ our Head,
 To whom be endless honors paid.

393 It is a good thing to give thanks. (611)

1 Sweet is the work, my God! my King!
 To praise thy name, give thanks and sing;
 To show thy love by morning light,
 And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
 No mortal care shall seize my breast;
 Oh! may my heart in tune be found,
 Like David's harp, of solemn sound.

3 My heart shall triumph in the Lord,
 And bless his works, and bless his word;
 Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
 How deep thy counsels! how divine.

4 Lord! I shall share a glorious part,
 When grace hath well refined my heart;
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
 All I desired or wished below:
 And every power find sweet employ
 In that eternal world of joy.

394 Christ is risen. (614)

1 Hail! morning known among the blest!
 Morning of hope, and joy, and love,
 Of heavenly peace and holy rest;
 Pledge of the endless rest above.

2 Blessed be the Father of our Lord,
 Who from the dead has brought his Son!
 Hope to the lost was then restored,
 And everlasting glory won.

3 Scarce morning twilight had begun
 To chase the shades of night away,
 When Christ arose—unsetting Sun—
 The dawn of joy's eternal day!

4 Mercy looked down with smiling eye
 When our Immanuel left the dead;
 Faith marked his bright ascent on high,
 And Hope with gladness raised her head.

5 God's goodness let us bear in mind,
 Who to his saints this day has given,
 For rest and serious joy designed,
 To fit us for the bliss of heaven.

FELLOWSHIP. C. M.

T. E. PERKINS, by permission.

1. Lord, at thy ta - ble we be-hold The won - ders of thy grace;

. But most of all ad - mire that we Should find a wel - come place.

395 Blessed are the poor in spirit. (523)

- 2 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That we, so lost, have room!
Jesus our weary souls invites,
And freely bids us come.
- 3 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven,
Join all your sacred powers;
No theme is like redeeming love—
No Savior is like ours.

396 Spiritual refreshment. (521)

- 1 O God! unseen, yet ever near,
Reveal thy presence now,
While we, in love that hath no fear,
Before thy glory bow.
- 2 Here may obedient spirits find
The blessings of thy love—
The streams that through the desert wind,
The manna from above.

FENELON. 8s &amp; 7s, Peculiar.

C. C. CONVERSE.

1. Near the cross our station taking, Meet it is for us to mourn:
Earthly cares and joys forsaking.

'T was for us he came from heaven,
'T was for us his heart was riven; All his griefs for us were borne.

397 It was for us. (536)

- 2 When no eye its pity gave us,
When there was no arm to save us,
He his love and power displayed:
By his stripes our help and healing,
By his death our life revealing,
He for us the ransom paid.

Strength to bear and conquer thus
While extended there we view thee,
Mighty Sufferer! draw us to thee;
Sufferer victorious!

398 I will draw all men unto me. (533)

- 1 It is finished! Man of Sorrows!
From thy cross our frailty borrows

2 Not in vain for us uplifted,
Man of Sorrows, wonder-gifted!
May that sacred emblem be;
Lifted high amid the ages,
Guide of heroes, saints, and sages,
May it guide us still to thee!

STEARNS. 8s & 7s.

Arr. from MAZZINGHI.

1. Sweet the moments, rich in blessing, Which be - fore the cross I spend;

Life, and health, and peace possess-ing, From the sin - ner's dy - ing friend.

399 Looking to Jesus. (538)

2 Here I'll sit, forever viewing
Mercy streaming in his blood;
Precious drops! my soul bedewing,
Plead they now my peace with God.

3 Truly blessed is this station,
Here unfolds his wondrous grace;
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his lovely face.

4 Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the cross I gaze;
Here the joy of sins forgiven
Shall inspire my songs of praise.

5 Love and grief my heart dividing,
While his feet I bathe with tears;
Constant still in faith abiding—
Hope triumphant o'er my fears.

6 Lord! in ceaseless contemplation,
Fix my trusting heart on thee,
Till I know thy full salvation,
And thy face in glory see.

400 Thou art worthy. (205)

1 Crown his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassion never ceasing,
Comes, salvation to proclaim.

2 Jesus, thee our Savior hailing,
Thee our God in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne.

3 Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows, and flows for evermore.

401 Hear and obey. (393)

1 Humble souls, who seek salvation,
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood,
Hear the voice of revelation;
Tread the path that Jesus trod.

2 Hear the blest Redeemer call you;
Listen to his heavenly voice;
Dread no ills that can befall you,
While you make his way your choice.

402 Closing hymn. (751)

1 Israel's Shepherd, guide me, feed me,
Through my pilgrimage below,
And beside the waters lead me,
Where thy flock rejoicing go.

2 Lord, thy guardian presence ever,
Meekly kneeling, I implore;
I have found thee, and would never,
Never wander from thee more.

JESUS, BREAD OF LIFE. P. M. (New.) (553) W. H. DOANE.
Gently and Gliding.

403

1. Here I sink be-fore thee low-ly, Filled with gladness deep and ho-ly,
As with trembling awe and won-der

Joy, the sweetest man e'er knoweth!
3. Je-sus, Bread of Life, from heaven, Nev-er be thou vain-ly giv-en,
Nor I to my hurt in-vit-ed;

On thy mighty work I ponder—On this banquet's myster-y, On the depths we

SILENT DEVOTION. P. M. * Harmonized by J. P. POWELL.

(1032)

404

1. As down in the sunless retreats of the o-cean, Sweet flowers are springing no
So, deep in my heart the still prayer of devotion, Unheard by the world, rises
2. As still to the star of its worship, though clouded, The needle points faith-ful-ly
So, dark as I roam thro' this wintry world shrouded, The hope of my spi-rit turns

OLIVET. 6s & 4s.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior di - vine! Now hear me while I pray; Take all my guilt away: Oh, let me, from this day, Be wholly thine.

405 Christ our confidence. (542)

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart;
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
Oh may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Blest Savior, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove;
Oh bear me safe above—
A ransomed soul.

406 Worthy the Lamb. (927)

1 Come, all ye saints of God,
Wide through the earth abroad,
Spread Jesus' fame:
Tell what his love hath done;
Trust in his name alone;
Shout to his lofty throne,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Swell the glad theme:

To Christ, our gracious King,
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Savior's love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned;
While all the heavens resound,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

407 The God of harvest praise. (1234)

1 The God of harvest praise;
In loud thanksgiving raise
Hand, heart, and voice;
The valleys smile and sing,
Forests and mountains ring,
The plains their tribute bring,
The streams rejoice.

2 Yea, bless his holy name,
And purest thanks proclaim
Through all the earth;

To glory in your lot
Is duty—but be not
God's benefits forgot,
Amidst your mirth.

3 The God of harvest praise;
Hands, hearts, and voices raise
With sweet accord:
From field to garner throng,
Bearing your sheaves along,
And, in your harvest song,
Bless ye the Lord.

RETREAT. L. M.

Dr. T. HASTINGS.

1. From ev' - ry stormy wind that blows, From ev' - ry swelling tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat, 'Tis found be - neath the mer - cy-seat.

408The Mercy-seat.* (547)

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all besides more sweet—
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed;
Or how the host of hell defeat,
Had suffering souls no mercy-seat?

5 There! there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat!

6 Oh let my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold and still,
This bounding heart forget to beat,
Ere I forget the mercy-seat!

409Lord's-day evening.* (615)

1 Sweet is the fading light of eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of praise and prayer.

2 The time, how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below:
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.

3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love,
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees a smiling heaven above.

4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

410The tranquil hour.* (555)

1 Thou, Savior, from thy throne on high,
Enrobed with light, and girt with power,
Dost note the thought, the prayer, the sigh,
Of hearts that love the tranquil hour.

2 Oft thou thyself didst steal away,
At eventide, from labor done,
In some still, peaceful shade to pray,
Till morning watches were begun.

3 Thou hast not, dearest Lord, forgot
Thy wrestlings on Judea's hills;
And still thou lovest the quiet spot
Where praise the lowly spirit fills.

4 Now to our souls, withdrawn awhile
From earth's rude noise, thy face reveal,
And, as we worship, kindly smile,
And for thine own our spirits seal.

5 To thee we bring each grief and care,
To thee we fly while tempests lower;
Thou wilt the weary burdens bear
Of hearts that love the tranquil hour.

MERCY-SEAT. L. M. ✱

Harmonized by J. P. POWELL.

1. What va-rious hin-dran-ces we meet In com-ing' to a mer-cy-seat!

Yet who, that knows the worth of prayer, But wish-es to be of-ten there?

411 Exhortation to prayer. (556)

2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw :
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright,
And Satan trembles, when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Have you no words? Ah, think again;
Words flow apace when we complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all our care.

5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord has done for me?"

412 I pray—that thou shouldst keep, etc. (952)

1 While others pray for grace to die,
O Lord, I pray for grace to live;
For every hour a fresh supply;
Oh see my need and freely give.

2 I do not dread the hour of death;
If I am thine, no fears remain:
I know that with my parting breath
I yield forever mortal pain.

3 E'en if the darkness should appear
Too deep for faith as well as sight,
If I am thine, thou wilt be near,
And take me to thy heavenly light.

4 But oh! my Lord, in life's highway
I crave the sunshine of thy face;
And every moment of the day
I need thy strong supporting grace.

5 I dare not—will not—Lord, deny
That heart and feet both go astray;
Therefore, the more to thee I cry
To keep me in the chosen way.

6 The more my sin and unbelief,
Keep me from walking near to thee:
The more, Lord Jesus, is my grief—
The more I long thy face to see.

413 Retirement and meditation. (982)

1 Return, my roving heart, return,
And chase these shadowy forms no more:
Seek out some solitude to mourn,
And thy forsaken God implore.

2 O thou, great God, whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep recess;
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And with thy presence fill the place.

3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide;
And still its radiant beams impart
Till all be searched and purified.

4 Then with the visits of thy love,
Vouchsafe my inmost soul to cheer;
Till every grace shall join to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there

SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER. L. M. D. W. B. BRADBURY, by per.

1. Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer, That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me, at my Father's throne,
D. C. And oft escaped the tempter's snare,

Fine. 1st. 2d. D. C.

Make all my wants and wishes known; { In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has of-ten found re - - lief, }
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

414

Hour of prayer.

(550)

2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer! With such I hasten to the place
The joy I feel, the bliss I share, Where God my Savior shows his face,
Of those whose anxious spirits burn And gladly take my station there,
With strong desires for thy return. And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

UNITY. 6s &amp; 5s. Peculiar. (504)

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

415 1. When shall we meet again, Meet ne'er to sever? When will peace wreath her chain
2. When shall love freely flow, Pure as life's river? When shall sweet friendship glow,
3. Up to that world of light Take us, dear Sav-ior; May we all there u - nite,

Round us for-ev - er? Our hearts will ne'er re - pose, Safe from each blast that Changeless for-ev - er? Where joys celestial thrill, Where bliss each heart shall Hap-py for-ev - er; Where kindred spir - its dwell, There may our mu-sic blows In this dark vale of woes, Nev - er, no, nev - er.

fill, And fears of part - ing chill, Nev - er, no, nev - er.
swell, And time our joys dis - pel, Nev - er, no, nev - er.

NAOMI. C. M.

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. Fa - ther, whate'er of earth-ly bliss Thy sovereign will de - nies,
2. Give me a calm, a thankful heart, From ev - ery mur - mur free;

Ac - cept-ed at thy throne of grace, Let this pe - ti - tion rise:
The bless-ings of thy grace in - part, And make me live to thee.

416 Prayer for contentment. (558)

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine,
My life, and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

417 Thy will be done. (560)

1 How sweet to be allowed to pray
To God, the Holy One;
With filial love and trust to say,
"O God, thy will be done."

2 We in these sacred words can find
A cure for every ill;
They calm and soothe the troubled mind,
And bid all care be still.

3 Oh let that will which gave me breath,
And an immortal soul,
In joy or grief, in life or death,
My every wish control.

4 Oh, could my heart thus ever pray,
Thus imitate thy Son!
Teach me, O God, with truth to say,
Thy will, not mine, be done.

418 Retirement and meditation. (562)

1 I love to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear:

And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

4 I love, by faith, to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

419 Prayer. (565)

1 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear;
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And say—"Behold, he prays."

BALERMA. C. M.

1. Approach, my soul, the mer - cy - seat, Where Je - sus an - swers prayer;

There hum-bly fall be - fore his feet, For none can per - ish there.

420 Let us draw near. (564)

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh:
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place;
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, "Thou hast died."
- 5 Oh, wondrous love, to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name!

421 A new heart. (811)

- 1 Oh for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free,
A heart that always feels the blood
So freely shed for me.
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.
- 3 Oh for a lowly, contrite heart,
Confiding, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within;

- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine,
Perfect and right, and pure and good,
A copy; Lord, of thine.

- 5 Thy Spirit, gracious Lord, impart;
Direct me from above;
May thy dear name be near my heart,
That dear, best name is Love.

422 Oh, that I were as in months past. (944)

- 1 Sweet was the time when first I felt
The Savior's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.
- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shade prevailed,
His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
- 4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.
- 5 Rise, Savior! help me to prevail,
And make my soul thy care;
I know thy mercy can not fail;
Let me that mercy share.

PRAYER. C. M.

T. J. COOK, by permission.

1. While thee I seek, pro-*te*ct - ing Power, Be my vain wish - es stilled;

And may this con - se - cra - ted hour With bet - ter hopes be filled.

423 Sanctify the Lord God, etc. (561)

- 2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
To thee my thoughts would soar;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
That mercy I adore.
- 3 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear,
Because conferred by thee.
- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.
- 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall banish fear;
That heart shall rest on thee.

424 Oh for a closer walk with God! (943)

- 1 Oh for a closer walk with God!
A calm and heavenly frame!
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, O holy Dove! return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

425 Thy will be done. (908)

- 1 Father, I know thy ways are just,
Although to me unknown;
Oh grant me grace thy love to trust,
And cry, "Thy will be done."
- 2 If thou shouldst hedge with thorns my path,
Should wealth and friends be gone,
Still, with a firm and lively faith,
I'll cry, "Thy will be done."
- 3 Although thy steps I can not trace,
Thy sovereign right I'll own;
And, as instructed by thy grace,
I'll cry, "Thy will be done."

OLMUTZ. S. M.

Arranged by Dr. L. MASON.

1. Come to the house of prayer, Oh, thou af - flict - ed, come;

The God of peace shall meet thee there; He makes that house his home.

426 Invitation to prayer. (570)

- 2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.
- 3 Ye aged, hither come,
For you have felt his love;
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.
- 4 Ye young, before his throne
Come, bow; your voices raise;
Let not your hearts his praise disown
Who gives the power to praise.
- 5 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all—
Who seest the tear of misery,
And hearest the mourner's call—
- 6 Up to thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heaven on earth be won.

427 Having all in Christ. (779)

- 1 My spirit on thy care,
Blest Savior, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For thou art love divine.
- 2 In thee I place my trust;
On thee I calmly rest:
I know thee good, I know thee just,
And count thy choice the best.

- 3 Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform;
Safe in thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.

- 4 Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me—
Secure of having thee in all,
Of having all in thee.

428 Not far from home. (917)

- 1 Your harps, ye trembling saints!
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love divine,
Bid every string awake.
- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home,
And, nearer to our house above,
We every moment come.
- 3 His grace will, to the end,
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench this spark divine.
- 4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then will we trust our gracious God,
And rest upon his name.
- 5 Blest is the man, O God!
That stays himself on thee:
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord!
Shall thy salvation see.

WILBOR. 7s, Double.

Subject by SCHICHT.

1. Sav-jor, when in dust to thee Low we bow th'a-dor-ing knee; }
When, re-pent-aut, to the skies Scarce we lift our stream-ing eyes; }

Oh, by all thy pains and woe, Suffered once for man be-low,

Bend-ing from thy throne on high, Hear us when to thee we cry.

429 Hear us when to thee we cry. (578)

2 By thy birth and early years,
By thy human griefs and fears,
By thy fasting and distress
In the lonely wilderness;
By thy victory in the hour
Of the subtle tempter's power;
Jesus, look with pitying eye,
Hear our humble, earnest cry.

3 By thine hour of dark despair,
By thine agony of prayer,
By thy purple robe of scorn,
By thy wounds, thy crown of thorn,
By thy cross, thy pangs, and cries,
By thy perfect sacrifice;
Jesus, look with pitying eye,
Listen to our humble cry.

4 By thy deep, expiring groan,
By the sealed sepulchral stone,
By thy triumph o'er the grave,
By thy power from death to save:
Dying, risen, ascended, Lord,
To thy throne in heaven restored,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear us when to thee we cry.

430 Flee from the wrath to come. (308)

1 Sinner, art thou still secure?
Wilt thou still refuse to pray?
Can thy heart or hands endure
In the Lord's avenging day?
See his mighty arm made bare!
Awful terrors clothe his brow!
For his judgment now prepare,
Thou must either break or bow.

2 At his presence nature shakes;
Earth, affrighted, hastes to flee;
Solid mountains melt like wax:
What will then become of thee?
Who his coming may abide?
You that glory in your shame,
Will you find a place to hide
When the world is wrapt in flame?

3 Then the great, the rich, the wise,
Trembling, guilty, self-condemned,
Must behold the wrathful eyes
Of the Judge they once blasphemed
Where are now their haughty looks?
Oh! their horror and despair,
When they see the opened books,
And their dreadful sentence hear.

HOUR OF PRAYER. 8, 8, 8, 4, or 8, 8, 8, 6. (New.) J. P. POWELL.

1. My God! is an - y hour so sweet From blush of morn to evening star,

As that which calls me to thy feet—The hour of prayer.

431 The hour of prayer. (581)

2 Blest is the tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that hour of solemn eve,
When, on the wings of prayer up-borne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
There for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

432 God is love. (86)

1 I can not always trace the way
Where thou, almighty One, dost move;
But I can always say,
That God is love.

2 When fear her chilling mantle flings
O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
As to her native home, upsprings;
For God is love.

3 When mystery clouds my darkened path,
I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove;
In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love!

4 Oh may this truth my heart employ,
And every gloomy thought remove;
It fills my soul with boundless joy,
That God is love!

433 Thy will be done. (900)

1 My God, my Father, while I stray
Far from my home, on life's rough way,
Oh, teach me from my heart to say,
"Thy will be done!"

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh;
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done!"

3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize—it ne'er was mine,
I only yield thee what was thine:
"Thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest:
"Thy will be done!"

The house of the Lord.

(403)

3 You may value the friendships of youth and of age,
 And select for your comrades the noble and sage;
 But the friends that most cheer me on life's rugged road
 Are the friends of my Master, the children of God.

4 You may talk of your prospects, of fame, or of wealth,
 And the hopes that oft flatter the favorites of health;
 But the hope of bright glory, of heavenly bliss—
 Take away every other, and give me but this.

5 Ever hail, blessed temple, abode of my Lord!
 I will turn to thee often, to hear from his word;
 I will walk to thine altar with those that I love,
 And rejoice in the prospects revealed from above.

SING OF JESUS. 8s &amp; 5, Peculiar. (260) From "Harp of Judah."

435 1. Sing of Je - sus, sing for - ev - er Of the love that chang-es
 2. With his blood the Lord hath bought them, When they knew him not he
 3. Through the des - ert Je - sus leads them, With the bread of heaven he nev - er! Who, or what, from him can sev - er Those he makes his own? sought them, And from all their wanderings bro't them: His the praise a - lone.

 feeds them, And through all their way he speeds them To their home a - bove.

PORTUGUESE HYMN. 11s. (580)

436 1. Our Father in heaven, We hallow thy name! May thy kingdom ho - ly On
2. Forgive our transgressions, And teach us to know That humble compassion That earth be the same! Oh, give to us dai - ly Our portion of bread; It is from thy pardons each foe; Keep us from temptation, From weakness and sin, And thine be the bounty That all must be fed, It is from thy boun - ty That all must be fed.

437Faint, yet pursuing.*

(583)

1 Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
The Lord is our Leader, his Word is our stay;
Though suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near,
The Lord is our refuge, and whom can we fear?

2 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint;
The weak and oppressed, he will hear their complaint;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
But how can we falter? our help is in God.

3 And to his green pastures our footsteps he leads;
His flock in the desert, how kindly he feeds!
The lambs in his bosom he tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.

4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;
The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home.

438Precious promises.*

(792)

- 2 In every condition, in sickness, in health,
In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth;
At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea,
As your days may demand, so your succor shall be.
- 3 Fear not—I am with you; oh be not dismayed!
I, I am your God, and will still give you aid;
I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause you to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 4 When through the deep waters I cause you to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not you o'erflow:
For I will be with you, your troubles to bless,
And sanctify to you your deepest distress.
- 5 When through fiery trials your pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be your supply:
The flame shall not hurt you; I only design
Your dross to consume, and your gold to refine.
- 6 E'en down to old age all my people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

439The house of prayer.*

(585)

- 1 How honored, how dear, is that sacred abode
Where Christians draw near to their Father and God!
'Mid worldly commotion my wearied soul faints
For the house of devotion, the home of thy saints.
- 2 Thou hearer of prayer, oh still grant me a place
Where Christians repair to the courts of thy grace!
More blest beyond measure one day so employed,
Than years of vain pleasure by worldlings enjoyed.

"Come unto me."

(1228)

- 2 Ye who have mourned when the spring flowers were taken;
When the ripe fruit fell richly to the ground;
When the loved slept, in brighter homes to waken,
Where their pale brows with spirit-wreaths are crowned.
- 3 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim;
Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.
- 4 There, like an Eden, blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely pressed;
Come unto me, all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

441

For divine strength.

(584)

- 1 Father, in thy mysterious presence kneeling,
Fain would our souls feel all thy kindling love,
For we are weak, and need some deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness, from above.
- 2 Lord, we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
And thou hast made each step an onward one;
And we will ever trust each unknown morrow—
Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.
- 3 In the heart's depths, a peace serene and holy Abides; and when pain seems to have her will,
Or we despair, oh may that peace rise slowly,
Stronger than agony, and we be still!
- 4 Now, Father, now, in thy dear presence kneeling,
Our spirits yearn to feel thy kindling love:
Now make us strong; we need thy deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

442A little while.*

(930)

- 1 Oh for the peace that floweth as a river,
 Making life's desert places bloom and smile!
 Oh for that faith to grasp the glad Forever,
 Amid the shadows of earth's Little While!
- 2 A little while for patient vigil keeping,
 To face the storm, to wrestle with the strong;
 A little while to sow the seed with weeping,
 Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest-song.
- 3 A little while to wear the veil of sadness,
 To toil with weary step through miry ways,
 Then to pour forth the fragrant oil of gladness,
 And clasp the girdle round the robe of Praise!
- 4 A little while, 'mid shadow and illusion,
 To strive by faith love's mysteries to spell,
 Then read each dark enigma's bright solution,
 Then hail sight's verdict—he doeth all things well.
- 5 And he who is himself the Gift and Giver,
 The future glory and the present smile,
 With the bright promise of the glad Forever,
 Will light the shadows of earth's Little While.

443"Sorrowful, yet always rejoicing."*

(1031)

- 1 We will not weep, for God is standing by us,
 And tears will blind us to the blessed sight;
 We will not doubt, if darkness still doth try us;
 Our souls have promise of serenest light.
- 2 We will not faint, if heavy burdens bend us;
 They press no harder than our souls can bear;
 The thorniest way is lying still behind us;
 We shall be braver for the past despair.
- 3 Oh not in doubt shall be our journey's ending;
 Sin, with its fears, shall leave us at the last;
 All its best hopes in glad fulfillment blending,
 Life shall be with us more when death is past.
- 4 Help us, O Father! when the world is pressing
 On our frail hearts, that faint without their friend;
 Help us, O Father! let thy constant blessing
 Strengthen our weakness, till the joyful end.

444I, the Lord, will hasten it, etc.*

(973)

- 1 Down the dark future, through long generations,
 The sounds of war grow fainter, and then cease;
 And like a bell with solemn, sweet vibrations,
 I hear once more the voice of Christ say, "Peace!"
- 2 Peace! and no longer, from its brazen portals,
 The blast of war's great organ shakes the skies;
 But beautiful as songs of the immortals,
 The holy melodies of love arise.

 The night is gone!
 And with the morn those angel faces smile
 Which I have loved long since and lost awhile.

ANVERN. L. M.

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. Triumphant Zion! lift thy head From dust, and darkness, and the dead! Tho' humbled long, awake at length, And gird thee with thy Savior's strength,

And gird thee with thy Savior's strength.

452 Put on thy strength, O Zion. (591)

2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
And let thy excellence be known;
Decked in the robes of righteousness,
The world thy glories shall confess.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
No more shall hell's insulting host
Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

4 God, from on high, has heard thy prayer:
His hand thy ruins shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

453 All nations shall serve him. (592)

1 Eternal Lord! from land to land
Shall echo thine all-glorious name,
Till kingdoms bow at thy command,
And every lip thy praise proclaim.

2 Exalted high on every shore,
The banner of the cross unfurled,
Shall summon thousands to adore
The Savior of a ransomed world.

3 Thousands shall join thy pilgrim band,
And, by that sacred standard led,
Press forward to Immanuel's land,
Nor fear the thorny path to tread.

4 Triumphant over every foe,
Their ransomed hosts shall move along
To that blest world, where sin and woe
Shall never mingle with their song.

454 Put on thy beautiful garments. (593)

1 Zion, awake! thy strength renew;
Put on thy robes of beauteous hue;
Church of our God, arise and shine,
Bright with the beams of truth divine.

2 Soon shall thy radiance stream afar,
Wide as the heathen nations are;
Gentiles and kings thy light shall view;
All shall admire and love thee too.

455 Isaiah 51 : 9. (1268)

1 Arm of the Lord, awake! awake!
Put on thy strength, the nations shake,
And let the world, adoring, see
Triumphs of mercy wrought by thee.

2 Say to the heathen, from thy throne,
"I am Jehovah—God alone!"
Thy voice their idols shall confound,
And cast their altars to the ground.

3 No more let human blood be spilt—
Vain sacrifice for human guilt!
But to each conscience be applied
The blood that flowed from Jesus' side.

4 Let Zion's time of favor come;
Oh bring the tribes of Israel home!
And let our wondering eyes behold
Gentiles and Jews in Jesus' fold.

5 Almighty God, thy grace proclaim
In every land, of every name!
Let adverse powers before thee fall,
And crown the Savior Lord of all.

456 All the ends of the world. (1267)

1 Come from the east, with gifts, ye kings,
With gold, and frankincense, and myrrh,
Where'er the morning spreads her wings,
Let man to God his vows prefer.

2 Come from the west! the bond, the free;
His easy service make your choice;
Ye isles of the Pacific sea,
Like halcyon nests, in God rejoice.

3 Come from the south! through desert sands,
A highway for the Lord prepare!
Let Ethiopia stretch her hands,
And Libya pour her soul in prayer.

4 Come from the north! let Europe raise
In all her languages one song;
Give God the glory, power, and praise
That to his holy name belong.

457 Prayer for general peace. (951)

1 Thy footsteps, Lord, with joy we trace,
And mark the conquest of thy grace;
Complete the work thou hast begun,
And let thy will on earth be done.

2 Oh, show thyself the Prince of Peace;
Command the din of war to cease;
Oh, bid contending nations rest,
And let thy love rule every breast!

3 Then peace returns with balmy wing:
Glad plenty laughs, the valleys sing;
Reviving commerce lifts her head,
And want, and woe, and hate, have fled.

4 Thou good and wise, and righteous Lord,
All move subservient to thy word;
Oh, soon let every nation prove
The perfect joy of Christian love!

458 A parting hymn. (720)

1 Come, Christian brethren, ere we part,
Join every voice and every heart;
One solemn hymn to God we raise,
One final song of grateful praise.

2 Christians, we here may meet no more;
But there is yet a happier shore;
And there, released from toil and pain,
Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

459 I will praise thee forever. (635)

1 My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days;
Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear,
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and labor of my tongue.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all my thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways,
Vast and immortal is thy praise.

460 Condescension of Christ. (638)

1 How sweet the praise, how high the theme,
To sing of him who rules supreme,
Who dwells at God's right hand on high,
Yet looks on us with tender eye.

2 The angelic host, in countless throngs,
Recount his glories in their songs,
And golden harps salute his ear;
Yet our weak praise he deigns to hear.

3 The planets roll their orbits round;
Unnumbered worlds, in space profound,
Are ruled by him, by him controlled;
Yet he's the Shepherd of our fold.

4 Exalted high upon his throne,
The universe is all his own:
Untold the honors he doth wear;
Yet we are objects of his care.

461 Bid us all depart in peace. (721)

1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord;
Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss, forgive,
And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good;
Cleanse all our sins in Jesus' blood;
Give every burdened soul release,
And bid us all depart in peace.

To pruning-hooks their spears.
- 5 No longer hosts, encountering hosts,
Their millions slain deplore;
They hang the trumpet in the hall,
And study war no more.
- 6 Come, then—oh come from every land,
To worship at his shrine;
And, walking in the light of God,
With holy beauties shine.

463 This is the day. (618)

- 1 Come, let us join, with one accord,
In hymns around the throne;
This is the day our risen Lord
Hath made and called his own.
- 2 This is the day which God has blessed,
The brightest of the seven,
Type of the everlasting rest
The saints enjoy in heaven.

- 3 Then let us in his name sing on,
And hasten on that day,
When our Redeemer shall come down,
And shadows pass away.
- 4 Not one, but all our days below,
Our hearts his praise employ;
And in our Lord rejoicing go
To his eternal joy.

464 The Savior died for me. (643)

- 1 To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song;
Oh may his love (immortal flame!)
Tune every heart and tongue.
- 2 His love, what mortal thought can reach!
What mortal tongue display!
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.
- 3 He left his radiant throne on high,
Left the bright realms of bliss,
And came to earth to bleed and die!
Was ever love like this?
- 4 Blest Lord, while we adoring pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say,
"The Savior died for me!"
- 5 Oh may the sweet, the blissful theme,
Fill every heart and tongue,
Till strangers love thy charming name,
And join the sacred song.

465 Rev. 19: 6. (600) 466 Let us not sleep, as do others. (884)

2 Hallelujah! Hark! the sound,
From the depths unto the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies.
See Jehovah's banner furled,
Sheathed his sword: he speaks—'t is done!
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of his Son!

3 He shall reign from pole to pole,
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign when, like a scroll,
Yonder heavens have passed away.
Then the end: beneath his rod
Man's last enemy shall fall:
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ, is all in all!

1 Sleep not, soldier of the cross!
Foes are lurking all around;
Look not here to find repose;
This is but thy battle-ground;
Up! and take thy shield and sword;
Up! it is the call of heaven:
Shrink not faithless from the Lord:
Nobly strive as he hath striven.

2 Break through all the force of ill;
Tread the might of passion down—
Struggling onward, onward still,
To thy conquering Savior's crown!
Through the midst of toil and pain,
Let this thought ne'er leave thy breast:
Every triumph thou dost gain
Makes more sweet thy coming rest.

HAIL TO THE BRIGHTNESS. 11s & 10s. ❄️ A. D. FILLMORE.

1. Hail to the brightness of Zi-on's glad morn-ing! Joy to the lands that in dark-ness have lain; Hushed be the ac-cents of sor-row and mourning, Zi-on in tri-umph be-gins her mild reign.

469 Hail to the brightness. (608)

- 2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold!
Hail to the millions from bondage returning!
Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.
- 3 Lo! in the desert rich flowers are springing;
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing;
Wastes rise in verdure and mingle in song.
- 4 See, from all lands—from the isles of the ocean—
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

470 The day of joy. (1234)

- 1 Wake thee, O Zion! thy mourning is ended;
God—thine own God—hath regarded thy prayer;
Wake thee, and hail him in glory descended,
Thy darkness to scatter—thy wastes to repair.
- 2 Wake thee, O Zion! his spirit of power
To newness of life is awaking the dead;
Array thee in beauty, and greet the glad hour
That brings thee salvation, through Jesus who bled.
- 3 Savior, we gladly, with voices resonnding
Loud as the thunder, our chorus would swell,
Till from rock, wood, and mountain, its echoes rebounding,
To all the wide world of salvation shall tell.

The day-spring.

(602)

- 1 Christian, see! the orient morning
Breaks along the heathen sky;
Lo! the expected day is dawning—
Glorious day-spring from on high;
Hallelujah!—
Hail the day-spring from on high!
- 2 Heathens at the sight are singing;
Morning wakes the tuneful lays;
Precious offerings they are bringing—
First-fruits of more perfect praise;
Hallelujah!—
Hail the day-spring from on high!
- 3 Zion's Sun! salvation beaming,
Gilding now the radiant hills,
Rise and shine till, brighter gleaming,
All the world thy glory fills;
Hallelujah!—
Hail the day-spring from on high!
- 4 Lord of every tribe and nation!
Spread thy truth from pole to pole;
Spread the light of thy salvation
Till it shine on every soul;
Hallelujah!—
Hail the day-spring from on high!

472

Encouraging prospects.

(603)

- 1 Yes, we trust the day is breaking;
Joyful times are near at hand;
God, the mighty God, is speaking,
By his word, in every land:
When he chooses,
Darkness flies at his command.
- 2 While the foe becomes more daring,
While he enters like a flood,
God, the Savior, is preparing
Means to spread his truth abroad:
Every language
Soon shall tell the love of God.
- 3 Oh 't is pleasant, 't is reviving
To our hearts, to hear, each day,
Joyful news, from far arriving,
How the gospel wins its way;
Those enlightening
Who in death and darkness lay.
- 4 God of Jacob! high and glorious,
Let thy people see thy hand;
Let the gospel be victorious,
Through the world, in every land;
Then shall idols
Perish, Lord, at thy command.

BURLINGTON. 12s, 11 & 8.

From NAGELI.

1. The Prince of Salvation in triumph is riding, And glory attends him along his bright way.
 2. And now through the darkness of earth's gloomy regions,
 The wheels of his chariot are rolling sublime;

The news of his grace on the breezes is gliding, And nations are owning his sway.
 His banners un-fold-ing his own true relig-ion, Dis-pell-ing the errors of time.

473 In thy majesty, etc. (606)

- 3 Behold a bright angel from heaven descending,
 High lifting his trumpet, hosannas to raise:
 "Hail, Son of the Highest! let every knee, bending,
 Adore thee with offerings of praise.
- 4 "Thy sword and thy buckler shall save and deliver
 The poor and the needy from foes that assail;
 Thy bow and thy quiver shall vanquish forever
 The prince and the legions of hell.
- 5 "Ride on in thy greatness, thou conquering Savior!
 Let thousands of thousands submit to thy reign,
 Acknowledge thy goodness, entreat for thy favor,
 And follow thy glorious train."

1 Blest is the hour when cares depart,
And earthly scenes are far—
When tears of woe forget to start,
And gently dawns upon the heart
Devotion's holy star.

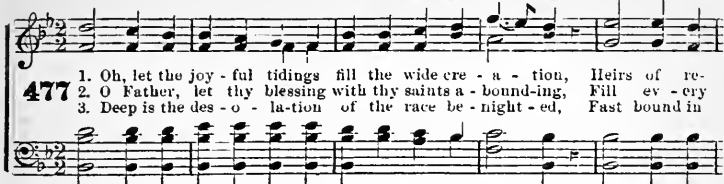

2 Blest is the place where angels bend
To hear our worship rise,
Where kindred hearts their musings blend,
And all the soul's affections tend
Beyond the veiling skies.

3 Blest are the hallowed vows that bind
Man to his work of love—
Bind him to cheer the humble mind,
Console the weeping, lead the blind,
And guide to joys above.

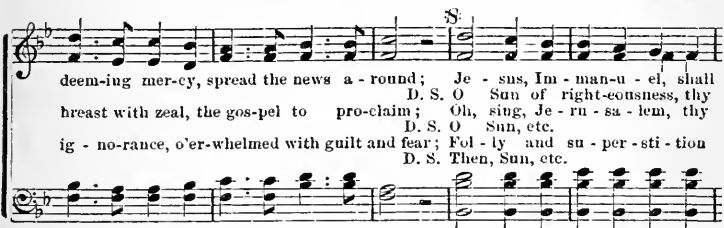

4 Sweet shall the song of glory swell,
Savior divine, to thee,
When they whose work is finished well,
In thy own courts of rest shall dwell,
Blest through eternity.

PETERBORO. C. M.

1. This is the day the Lord hath made, He calls the hours his own;

Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, And praise sur-round the throne.

478 We will rejoice and be glad in it. (619)

- 2 To-day he rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell,
To-day the saints his triumphs spread,
And all his wonders tell.
- 3 Hosanna to the anointed King,
To David's holy Son;
Help us, O Lord—descend and bring
Salvation from thy throne.
- 4 Blessed be the Lord who comes to men
With messages of grace;
Who comes in God his Father's name
To save our sinful race.
- 5 Hosanna in the highest strains
The church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
Shall give him nobler praise.

479 I will praise thee, etc. (620)

- 1 O Father! though the anxious fear
May cloud to-morrow's way,
No fear nor doubt shall enter here;
All shall be thine to-day.
- 2 We will not bring divided hearts
To worship at thy shrine;
But each unworthy thought departs,
And leaves this temple thine.
- 3 Sleep, sleep to-day, tormenting cares,
Of earth and folly born;
Ye shall not dim the light that streams
From this celestial morn.

480 Lev. 23: 11, and 1 Cor. 15: 20. (621)

- 1 This is the day the first ripe sheaf
Before the Lord was waved,
And Christ, first fruits of them that slept,
Was from the dead received.
- 2 He rose for them for whom he died,
That, like to him, they may
Rise when he comes, in glory great,
That ne'er shall fade away.
- 3 This is the day the Spirit came
With us on earth to stay—
A Comforter, to fill our hearts
With joys that ne'er decay.
- 4 His comforts are the earnest sure
Of that same heavenly rest
Which Jesus entered on, when he
Was made forever blest.
- 5 This day the Christian Church began,
Formed by his wondrous grace;
This day the saints in concord meet,
To join in prayer and praise.

481 Glory to God. (734)

- 1 Glory to God! who deigns to bless
This consecrated day,
Unfolds his wondrous promises,
And makes it sweet to pray.
- 2 Glory to God! who deigns to hear
The humblest sigh we raise,
And answers every heartfelt prayer,
And hears our hymn of praise.

FERGUSON. S. M.

G. KINGSLEY, by permission.

1. Wel - come, sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord a - rise;
Wel - come to this re - viv - ing breast, And these re - joic - ing eyes.

482 Welcome, sweet day of rest. (626)

- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day:
Here may we sit and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day, amid the place
Where Christ, my Lord, hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Within the tents of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

483 This is the Lord's doing. (624)

- 1 This is the glorious day
That our Redeemer made;
Let us rejoice, and sing, and pray,
Let all the church be glad.
- 2 The work, O Lord, is thine,
And wondrous in our eyes;
This day declares it all divine,
This day did Jesus rise.
- 3 Hosanna to the King,
Of David's royal blood:
Bless him, you saints, he comes to bring Salvation from your God.
- 4 We bless thy Holy Word,
Which all this grace displays,
And offer on thine altar, Lord,
Our sacrifice of praise.

484 Redemption completed. (187)

- 1 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then is his work performed;
The mighty Captive now is freed,
And death, our foe, disarmed.
- 2 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
He lives to die no more;
He lives, his people's cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.
- 3 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
The grave has lost his prey:
With him is risen the ransomed seed,
To reign in endless day.
- 4 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Attending angels! hear:
Up to the courts of heaven with speed,
The joyful tidings bear.
- 5 Then wake your golden lyres,
And strike each cheerful chord;
Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs!
To sing our risen Lord.

485 The spread of truth. (740)

- 1 Thy name, almighty Lord,
Shall sound through distant lands:
Great is thy grace, and sure thy word,
Thy truth forever stands.
- 2 Far be thine honor spread,
And long thy praise endure,
Till morning light and evening shade
Shall be exchanged no more.

2d Ending.

486 Springs in the desert. (629)

3 Here we come, thy name to praise ;

Let us feel thy presence near ;

May thy glory meet our eyes,

While we in thy house appear ;

Here afford us, Lord, a taste

Of our everlasting rest.

4 May the gospel's joyful sound

Conquer sinners—comfort saints

Make the fruits of grace abound,

Bring relief to all complaints :

Thus let all our worship prove,

Till we join thy courts above.

5 Glory be to God on high—

God, whose glory fills the sky !

Glory to the Lamb be given—

Glory in the highest heaven !

Wisdom, riches, praise, and power,

Be to God for evermore.

487 The little hills rejoice, etc. (1235)

1 Praise, and thanks, and cheerful love,

Rise from every thing below

To the mighty One above,

Who his wondrous love doth show :

Praise him, each created thing !

God, your Maker ! God of spring !

2 Praise him, trees so lately bare ;

Praise him, fresh and new-born flowers ;

All ye creatures of the air,

All ye soft descending showers,

Praise, with each awakening thing,

God, your Maker ! God of spring !

3 Praise him, man !—thy fitful heart

Let this balmy season move

To employ its noblest part,

Gentlest mercy, sweetest love ;

Blessing, with each living thing,

God, your Father ! God of spring !

HAPPY DAY. L. M., with Chorus.

1. Oh, hap-py day that fixed my choice On thee, my Sav-ior and my God! }
Well may this glow-ing heart re-joice, And tell its rap-tures all a-broad. }

Hap-py day, hap-py day, When Je-sus washed my sins a-way;
D. C. Hap-py day, hap-py day, When Je-sus washed my sins a-way.

D. S.

He taught me how to watch and pray, And live re-joic-ing ev-ery day;

488 Happy day. (398)

- 2 O happy bond, that seals my vows
To him who merits all my love!
Let cheerful anthems fill his house,
While to that sacred shrine I move.
- 3 'Tis done; the great transaction's done,
I am my Lord's and he is mine;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.
- 4 Now rest, my long divided heart!
Fixed on this blissful center rest;
Here have I found a nobler part,
Here heavenly pleasures fill my breast.

489 Self-dedication. (397)

- 1 Lord, I am thine, entirely thine,
Purchased alone by blood divine;
With full consent I yield to thee,
And own thy sovereign right to me.
- 2 Grant me, in mercy, now a place
Among the children of thy grace;
A wretched sinner, lost to God,
But ransomed by Immanuel's blood.

490 What shall I render unto thee? (401)

- 1 Redeemed from guilt, redeemed from fears,
My soul enlarged, and dried my tears,
What can I do, O Love Divine,
What to repay such gifts as thine?
- 2 What can I do, so poor, so weak,
But from thy hands new blessings seek,
A heart to feel thy mercies more,
A soul to know thee and adore?
- 3 Oh teach me at thy feet to fall,
And yield thee up myself, my all!
Before thy saints my debts to own,
And live and die to thee alone!

491 Christ the Redeemer. (340)

- 1 Now to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
- 2 'Twas he who cleansed us from our sins,
And washed us in his precious blood;
'T is he who makes us priests and kings,
And brings us, rebels, near to God.

LISCHER. H. M. ✱

Arranged by J. P. POWELL.

1. Wel-come, de-light-ful morn, Thou day of sa-cred rest; }
I hail thy kind re-turn— Lord, make these mo-ments blest; }

From the low train of mor-tal toys, I soar to reach im-

mor-tal joys, I soar to reach im-mor-tal joys.

492 Welcome, delightful morn. (632)

2 Now may the King descend
And fill his throne with grace;
The scepter, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face:
Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

493 A day in thy courts, etc. (631)

1 To spend one sacred day
Where God and saints abide,
Affords diviner joy
Than thousand days beside:
Where God resorts, I love it more
To keep the door, than shine in courts.

2 God is our sun and shield,
Our light and our defense;
With gifts his hands are filled;
We draw our blessings thence:
He will bestow on Israel's race
Peculiar grace, and glory too.

494 The resurrection celebrated. (630)

1 Awake, ye saints, awake,
And hail the sacred day;
In loftiest songs of praise
Your joyful homage pay;
Come bless the day that God hath blest,
The type of heaven's eternal rest.

2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose,
And burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes;
And now he pleads our cause above,
And reaps the fruit of all his love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!
Heaven with hosannas rings;
All earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings;
Worthy the Lamb that once was slain,
Through endless years to live and reign.

LOVING KINDNESS. L. M.

(634)

495 1. Awake, my soul, to joy - ful lays, And sing the great Re-deem-er's praise;
2. He saw me ru - ined in the fall, Yet loved me, not - withstanding all;

He just - ly claims a song from me, His lov - ing kindness, oh, how free.
He saved me from my lost es - tate, His lov - ing kindness, oh, how great.

His lov - ing kindness, lov - ing kindness, His lov - ing kind - ness, oh, how free.
His lov - ing kindness, lov - ing kindness, His lov - ing kind - ness, oh, how great.

3 Tho' num'rous hosts of mighty foes,
Tho' earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along,
His loving kindness, oh, how strong.

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gather'd thick and thunder'd loud,
He near my soul has always stood,
His loving kindness, oh, how good.

earthly thoughts away, And in God's presence kneeling, Do thou in secret pray.
blessing humbly claim; And blend with each petition Thy great Redeemer's name.

ST. MARTIN'S. C. M.

TANSUR.

1. To him that loved the sons of men, And washed us in his blood,

To roy - al hon - ors raised our heads, And made us priests to God:

497 Unto him that loved us. (646)

- 2 To him let every tongue be praise,
And every heart be love;
All grateful honors paid on earth,
And nobler songs above.
- 3 Behold, on flying clouds he comes!
His saints shall bless the day;
While they that pierced him sadly mourn,
In anguish and dismay.
- 4 Thou art the First, and thou the Last;
Time centers all in thee;
Almighty Lord, who wast, and art,
And evermore shall be!

498 I will bless thy name forever. (645)

- 1 Long as I live, I'll praise thy name,
My King, my God of love!
My work and joy shall be the same
In the bright world above.
- 2 Great is the Lord, his power unknown,
And let his praise be great:
I'll sing the honors of thy throne,
Thy work of grace repeat.
- 3 Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue;
And, while my lips rejoice,
The men that hear my sacred song
Shall join their cheerful voice.

- 4 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name,
And children learn thy ways;
Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
And nations sound thy praise.

- 5 Thy glorious deeds of ancient date
Shall through the world be known—
Thy arm of power, thy heavenly state
With public splendor shown.

- 6 The world is managed by thy hands,
Thy saints are ruled by love;
And thy eternal kingdom stands,
Though rocks and hills remove.

499 The house of God. (691)

- 1 My soul! how lovely is the place
To which thy God resorts!
'T is heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.
- 2 There the great Monarch of the skies
His saving power displays,
And light breaks in upon our eyes
With kind and quickening rays.
- 3 There, mighty God! thy words declare
The secrets of thy will;
And still we seek thy mercy there,
And sing thy praises still.

HENRY. C. M.

S. B. POND.

1. A - gain the Lord of light and life Awakes the kin - dling ray,
Un - seals the eye - lids of the morn, And pours in - creas - ing day.

500 Again the Lord of light and life. (694)

- 2 Oh what a night was that which wrapt
The heathen world in gloom!
Oh what a Sun which rose this day
Triumphant from the tomb!
- 3 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.
- 4 Ten thousand different lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wings
To nations yet unborn.

501 Let us go up to the house, etc. (696)

- 1 Again our earthly cares we leave,
And to thy courts repair;
Again with joyful feet we come
To meet our Savior here.
- 2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love and concord dwell;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 3 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.
- 4 May we in faith receive thy word,
In faith present our prayers,
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.

- 5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise,
And pour thy blessings from above,
That we may render praise.

502 They shall speak of the glory, etc. (230)

- 1 Come, you that love the Savior's name,
And joy to make it known;
The Sovereign of your heart proclaim,
And bow before his throne.
- 2 Behold your King, your Savior, crowned
With glories all divine;
And tell the wondering nations round
How bright these glories shine.
- 3 Infinite power and boundless grace
In him unite their rays;
You that have seen his lovely face,
Can you forbear his praise?
- 4 When in the earthly courts we view
The beauties of our King,
We long to love as angels do,
And wish like them to sing.
- 5 And shall we long and wish in vain?
Lord, teach our songs to rise!
Thy love can animate our strain,
And bid it reach the skies.
- 6 Oh for the day, the glorious day!
When heaven and earth shall raise
With all their powers the raptured lay
To celebrate thy praise.

LUTHER. S. M.

Dr. T. HASTINGS, by permission.

1. A-wake and sing the song Of Moses and the Lamb! Wake, ev - ery heart and every tongue, To praise the Savior's name, To praise the Sa- vior's name.

503 The song of Moses and the Lamb. (648)

- 2 Sing of his dying love!
Sing of his rising power!
Sing how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore!
- 3 Sing on your heavenly way,
You ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the glorious King.
- 4 Soon shall you hear him say,
"You blessed children, come,"
Soon will he call you hence away,
And take his pilgrims home.

504 Break forth into joy. (649)

- 1 Raise your triumphant songs
To an immortal tune;
Let the wide earth resound the deeds
Celestial grace has done.
- 2 Sing how Eternal Love,
His Chief Beloved chose,
And bade him raise our wretched race
From their abyss of woes.
- 3 His hand no thunder bears,
Nor terror clothes his brow;
No bolts to drive our guilty souls
To fiercer flames below.
- 4 He shows his Father's love,
To raise our souls on high;
He came with pardon from above
To rebels doomed to die.

- 5 Now, sinners, dry your tears;
Let hopeless sorrow cease;
Bow to the scepter of his love,
And take the offered peace.
- 6 Lord, we obey thy call;
We lay an humble claim
To the salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy name.

505 Psalm 103. (650)

- 1 Oh bless the Lord, my soul!
His grace to thee proclaim;
And all that is within me, join
To bless his holy name.
- 2 Oh bless the Lord, my soul!
His mercies bear in mind,
Forget not all his benefits;
The Lord to thee is kind.
- 3 He will not always chide;
He will with patience wait;
His wrath is ever slow to rise,
And ready to abate.
- 4 He pardons all thy sins,
Prolongs thy feeble breath;
He healeth thine infirmities,
And ransoms thee from death.
- 5 Then bless his holy name
Whose grace hath made thee whole,
Whose loving-kindness crowns thy days,
Oh bless the Lord, my soul!

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Now be-gin the heavenly theme; Sing aloud in Je-sus' name; Ye who his sal-

va-tion prove, Triumph in re-deem-ing love, Tri-umph in re-deeming love.

506Redeeming love.*

(653)

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Savior's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Canceled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest;
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring;
Strike aloud each cheerful string;
Mortals, join the host above—
Join to praise redeeming love.

507Wait on the Lord, etc.*

(708)

1 Lord, we come before thee now;
At thy feet we humbly bow:
Oh do not our suit disdain,
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace;
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;
Lord, from hence we would not go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

4 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.

5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick; the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

508 They shall come to Zion with songs. (654)

1 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when he,
Captive, led captivity.

2 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown the day:
God will make new heavens and earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

3 And will man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No; the church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

4 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

5 Born upon the latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

509 All things loss for Christ. (657)

2 You palaces, scepters, and crowns,
 Your pride with disdain I survey,
 Your pomps are but shadows and sounds,
 And pass in a moment away.
 The crown that my Savior bestows
 Your permanent sun shall outshine;
 My joy everlastingly flows—
 My God, my Redeemer, is mine.

510 The unsearchable riches of Christ. (659)

1 How shall I my Savior set forth?
 How shall I his beauties declare?
 Oh how shall I speak of his worth,
 Or what his chief dignities are?
 His angels can never express,
 Nor saints who sit nearest his throne,
 How rich are his treasures of grace;
 No; this is a secret unknown.

2 In him all the fullness of God
 Forever transcendently shines!
 Though once like a mortal he stood
 To finish his gracious designs,
 Though once he was nailed to the cross,
 Vile rebels like me to set free,
 His glory sustained no loss,
 Eternal his kingdom shall be.

3 O sinners! believe and adore
 This Savior, so rich to redeem;
 No creature can ever explore
 The treasures of goodness in him.

Come, all you who see yourselves lost,
 And feel yourselves burdened with sin,
 Draw near, while with terror you're tossed,
 Obey, and your peace shall begin.

511 Love is of God. (500)

1 Say, whence does this union arise,
 Where hatred is conquered by love?
 It fastens our souls with such ties
 That distance nor time can remove.
 It can not in Eden be found,
 Nor yet in a paradise lost;
 It grows on Immanuel's ground,
 And Jesus' life's blood it has cost.

2 My friends so endeared unto me,
 Our souls so united in love,
 Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
 In yonder blest mansions above.
 Why then so unwilling to part,
 Since there we shall soon meet again;
 Engraved on Immanuel's heart,
 At distance we can not remain.

3 And then we shall see that bright day
 And join with the angels above;
 Set free from our prisons of clay,
 United in Jesus' kind love.
 With Jesus we ever shall reign,
 And all his bright glory shall see;
 Then sing hallelujahs—Amen!
 Amen! Even so let it be!

 Let thy goodness, like a fetter,

 Never let me wander from thee,
 Never leave thee, whom I love;

513 The salutation of peace. (750)

1 Peace be to this congregation!
 Peace to every heart therein!
 Peace, the earnest of salvation;
 Peace, the fruit of conquered sin;
 Peace, that speaks the heavenly Giver;
 Peace, to worldly minds unknown;
 Peace that floweth as a river
 From the eternal Source alone.

2 O thou God of Peace! be near us,
 Fix within our hearts thy home;
 With thy bright appearing cheer us,
 In thy blessed freedom come.

Come with all thy revelations,
 Truth which we so long have sought;
 Come with thy deep consolations—
 Peace of God which passeth thought!

514 Love divine, all love excelling. (710)

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
 Joy of heaven to earth come down!
 Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
 All thy faithful mercies crown.
 Jesus, thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love thou art!
 Visit us with thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, oh breathe thy loving Spirit
 Into every troubled breast:
 Let us all in thee inherit,
 Let us find thy promised rest.
 Take away the love of sinning,
 Take our load of guilt away;
 End the work of thy beginning,
 Bring us to eternal day.

515 Apostolic benediction. (752)

May the grace of Christ, our Savior,
 And the Father's boundless love,
 With the Holy Spirit's favor,
 Rest upon us from above.
 Thus may we abide in union
 With each other and the Lord;
 And possess, in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth can not afford.

(665)

2 The wonderful name of our Jesus we'll sing,
 And publish the fame of our Captain and King;
 With sweet exultation his goodness we prove;
 His name is salvation—his nature is love.

3 And when to the regions of glory we rise,
 And join the bright legions that shout through the skies,
 We'll tell the glad story of Jesus' kind grace,
 And give him the glory, and honor, and praise.

517Worthy is the Lamb.*

(666)

1 Come, saints! let us join in the praise of the Lamb,
 The theme most sublime of the angels above;
 They dwell with delight on the sound of his name,
 And gaze on his glories with wonder and love.

2 They worship the Lamb who for sinners was slain;
 But their loftiest songs never equal his love:
 The claims of his mercy will ever remain,
 Transcending the anthems in glory above.

3 Yet even our service he will not despise,
 When we join in his worship and tell of his name;
 Then let us unite in the song of the skies,
 And, trusting his mercy, sing, "Worthy the Lamb."

518Acquaint now thyself with him.*

(789)

1 Acquaint thee, O mortal! acquaint thee with God,
 And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road;
 And peace, like the dew-drop, shall fall on thy head;
 And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.

2 Acquaint thee, O mortal! acquaint thee with God,
 And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad;
 Thy safeguard in danger that threatens thy path;
 Thy joy in the valley and shadow of death.

NEW HAVEN. 6s & 4s.

Dr. T. HASTINGS.

1. Let us awake our joys; Strike up with cheerful voice, Each creature sing: Angels, be-

Let us awake our joys.

520

Rev. 5: 12, 13.

(668)

1 Let us awake our joys;
Strike up with cheerful voice,
Each creature sing:
Angels, begin the song;
Mortals, the strain prolong,
In accents sweet and strong,
"Jesus is King."

2 Proclaim abroad his name;
Tell of his matchless fame!
What wonders done;
Above, beneath, around,
Let all the earth resound,
Till heaven's high arch rebound,
"Victory is won."

3 He vanquished sin and hell,
And our last foe will quell;
Mourners, rejoice;
His dying love adore:
Praise him now raised in power;
Praise him for evermore
With joyful voice.

4 All hail the glorious day
When, through the heavenly way,
Lo! he shall come,
While they who pierced him wail;
His promise shall not fail:
Saints, see your King prevail:
Great Savior, come.

1 Glory to God on high!
Let heaven and earth reply;
Praise ye his name;
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore,
And sing for evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb."

2 Ye who surround the throne,
Join cheerfully in one,
Praising his name;
Ye who have felt his blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound his dear name abroad:
"Worthy the Lamb."

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye his name;
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb."

4 Soon must we change our place;
Yet will we never cease
Praising his name;
To him our songs we'll bring,
Hail him our gracious King,
And through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb."

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

1. Be - fore Je - ho-vah's aw - ful throne, Ye na-tions, bow with sa - cred joy;

Know that the Lord is God a - lone; He can ere - ate and he de - stroy.

521Psalm 100.*

(674)

- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people—we his care—
Our souls, and all our mortal frame:
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name?
- 4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command!
Vast as eternity thy love!
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

522God exalted.*

(675)

- 1 Be thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.
- 2 My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name;
Awake my tongue, to sound his praise,
My tongue, the glory of my frame.
- 3 High o'er the earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

523Psalm 100.*

(29)

- 1 With one consent let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay, with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise:
- 2 Convinced that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock that he vouchsafes to feed.
- 3 Oh, enter, then, his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press;
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.
- 4 For he's the Lord supremely good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

524Of him are all things.*

(30)

- 1 Oh source divine, and life of all,
The fount of being's wondrous sea!
Thy depth would every heart appall,
That saw not love supreme in thee.
- 2 We shrink before thy vast abyss,
Where worlds on worlds eternal brood;
We know thee truly but in this—
That thou bestowest all our good.
- 3 And so, 'mid boundless time and space,
Oh grant us still in thee to dwell,
And through the ceaseless web ro trace
Thy presence working all things well!

525 Serve the Lord with gladness. (681)

- 1 Ye nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King:
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues his glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God; 't is he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give;
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pastures live.
- 3 Enter his gates with songs of joy;
With praises to his courts repair;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And the whole race of men shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

526 How amiable are thy tabernacles. (680)

- 1 Great God, attend while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs;
To spend one day with thee on earth,
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.
- 2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Nottents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
- 3 God is our sun, he makes our day;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.
- 4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory too:
He gives us all things, and withholds
No real good from upright souls.
- 5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
And devils at thy presence flee,
Blest is the man that trusts in thee.

527 Let all the people praise thee. (718)

- 1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise:
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

528 Sessions, Key of C. (686)

- 1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet the assemblies of thy saints.
- 2 My soul would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should ' I be
So far from all my joys and thee?
- 3 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.
- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength, and through the road
They lean upon their Helper, God.

529 He shall go in and out, etc. (715)

- 1 Now may the Lord our Shepherd lead
To living streams his little flock;
May he in flowery pastures feed;
Shade us at noon beneath the rock!
- 2 Now may we hear our Shepherd's voice,
And gladly answer to his call;
Now may our hearts for him rejoice,
Who knows, and names, and loves us all.
- 3 When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
And small and great before him stand,
Oh, be the flock assembling here
Found with the sheep on his right hand.

530 Striving together for the faith, etc. (723)

- 1 Lord, cause thy face on us to shine;
Give us thy peace, and seal us thine;
Teach us to prize the means of grace,
And love thine earthly dwelling-place.
- 2 One is our faith, and one our Lord;
One body, spirit, hope, reward;
May we in one communion be
One with each other, one with thee.
- 3 Bless all whose voice salvation brings,
Who minister in holy things;
Our pastors, rulers, deacons, bless;
Clothe them with zeal and righteousness.
- 4 Let many in the judgment day,
Turned from the error of their way,
Their hope, their joy, their crown, appear:
Save those who preach, and those who hear.

Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

532 Lift thou the light of thy countenance. (690)

1 Within thy house, O Lord our God,
In glory now appear;
Make this a place of thine abode,
And shed thy blessings here.

2 When we thy mercy-seat surround,
Thy Spirit, Lord, impart;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound,
With power, reach every heart.

3 Here let the blind their sight obtain;
Here give the mourners rest;
Let Jesus here triumphant reign,
Enthroned in every breast.

4 Here let the voice of sacred joy
And humble prayer arise,
Till higher strains our tongues employ
In realms beyond the skies.

533 So great a cloud of witnesses. (817)

1 Give me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
And bathed their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death;

4 They marked the footsteps that he trod;
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
Possessed the promised rest.

534 Christ our refuge. (1010)

1 In ev'ry trouble, sharp and strong
My soul to Jesus flies;
My anchor-hold is firm in him
When swelling billows rise.

2 His comforts bear my spirit up,
I trust a faithful God;
The sure foundation of my hope
Is in a Savior's blood.

3 Loud hallelujahs sing, my soul,
To thy Redeemer's name;
In joy and sorrow, life and death,
His love is still the same.

2 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching o'er this hallowed ground
To fairer worlds on high.

538 A brighter day. (822)

1 Lord, we expect a day
Still brighter far than this,
When death shall bear our souls away
To realms of light and bliss.
There rapturous scenes of joy
Shall burst upon our sight;
And every pain, and tear, and sigh,
Be drowned in endless night.

2 Beneath thy balmy wing,
O Sun of Righteousness!
Our happy souls shall sit and sing
The wonders of thy grace.
Nor shall the radiant day,
So joyfully begun,
In evening shadows die away
Beneath the setting sun.

539 Establish thou the work, etc. (966)

Oh praise our God to-day,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.
Lord! may it be our choice
This blessed rule to keep:
Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
And weep with them that weep.

541 To the only wise God, our Savior. (736)

- 1 To God, the Only Wise,
Our Savior and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.
- 2 'T is his almighty love,
His counsel and his care,
Preserve us safe from sin and death
And every hurtful snare.
- 3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
Before the glory of his face,
With joys divinely great.
- 4 Then all the chosen seed
Shall meet around the throne,
Shall bless the conduct of his grace,
And make his wonders known.

Immortal crowns of majesty,
And everlasting song.

542 At midnight there was a cry made. (1070)

- 1 Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.
- 2 The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
He fell, but felt no fear.
- 3 Tranquil amid alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.
- 4 At midnight came the cry,
"To meet thy God prepare!"
He woke—and caught his Captain's eye;
Then, strong in faith and prayer,
- 5 His spirit with a bound,
Left its encumbering clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
A darkened ruin lay.
- 6 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare, closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

2 Come, begin the race for heaven;
 Start to-day, oh do not wait;
 Now 's the time that God has given;
 Sinner, do not be too late.
 When the door of mercy closes,
 You will stand and knock in vain;
 For, when justice interposes,
 Mercy will not call again!

545 All thy waves and thy billows, etc. (1024)

1 Full of trembling expectation,
 Feeling much and fearing more,
 Mighty God of my salvation!
 I thy timely aid implore;
 Suffering Son of Man, be near me,
 All my sufferings to sustain;
 By thy sorer griefs to cheer me,
 By thy more than mortal pain.

2 Call to mind that unknown anguish,
 In thy days of flesh below;
 When thy troubled soul did languish
 Under a whole world of woe;
 When thou didst our curse inherit,
 Groan beneath our guilty load,
 Burdened with a wounded spirit,
 Bruised by all the wrath of God.

3 By thy most severe temptation,
 In that dark, Satanic hour:
 By thy last, mysterious passion,
 Screen me from the adverse power;
 By thy fainting in the garden,
 By thy bloody sweat, I pray,
 Write upon my heart the pardon,
 Take my sins and fears away.

546 Blessed are the dead, etc. (1077)

1 Happy soul! thy days are ended,
 All thy mourning days below;
 Go, by angel guards attended,
 To the sight of Jesus go!
 Waiting to receive thy spirit,
 Lo! the Savior stands above;
 Shows the purchase of his merit,
 Reaches out the crown of love.

2 Struggling through thy latest passion
 To thy dear Redeemer's breast,
 To his uttermost salvation,
 To his everlasting rest;
 For the joy he sets before thee,
 Bear thy transitory pain;
 Die to live a life of glory;
 Suffer, with thy Lord to reign.

ROCK OF SALVATION. P. M. (New.)

T. J. COOK.

1. If life's pleasures charm you, give them not your heart. Lest the gift ensnare you from your God to part; His favor seek, his praises speak—Fix here your hope's foun-

547

The rock of Salvation.

(439)

2 If distress befall you, painful though it be,
Let not grief appall you—to your Savior flee;

He ever near, your prayer will hear,
And calm your perturbation;
The waves of woe shall ne'er o'erflow
The Rock of your Salvation.

3 When earth's prospects fail you, let it not distress;
Better comforts wait you—Christ will surely bless;

To Jesus flee—your prop he'll be,
Your heavenly consolation;
For griefs below can not o'erthrow
The Rock of your Salvation.

4 Dangers may approach you: let them not alarm:
Christ will ever watch you, and protect from harm;

He near you stands, with mighty hands,
To ward off each temptation;
To Jesus fly; he's ever nigh,
The Rock of your Salvation.

5 Let not death alarm you, shrink not from his blow;

For your God shall arm you, and victory bestow,
For death shall bring to you no sting,
The grave no desolation;
'T is sweet to die with Jesus nigh,
The Rock of your Salvation.

1 Hail, gracious, heavenly Prince!
To thee let children fly:
And on thy kindest providence,
Oh may we all rely.

2 Jesus will take the young
Beneath his special care;
And he will keep their youthful days
From every woe and snare.

3 He knows their tender frame,
Nor will their youth contemn;
For he a little child became,
To love and pity them.

4 Nor does he now forget
His youthful days on earth:
Nor would we ever cease our praise
For the Redeemer's birth.

Throned upon the mercy-seat:
Saints, rejoice! and sinners, tremble!
Each prepare his God to meet:

Lowly, lowly,

Bow adoring at his feet.

3 Hail him here with songs of praises,
Him with prayers of faith surround:
Hearken to his glorious gospel,

While the preacher's lips expound;

Blessed, blessed,

They who know the joyful sound.

1 In thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near;

Teach us to rejoice with trembling;

Oh that we this day may hear—

Hear with meekness—

Hear thy word with godly fear.

2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
May we give them, Lord, to thee!

Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
We would run, nor weary be,

Till thy glory,

Without clouds, in heaven we see.

All thy people shall adore;

Tasting of enjoyment greater

Than they could conceive before;

Full enjoyment—

Holy bliss for evermore.

551 Calling on the name of the Lord. (894)

Purchased by thy precious blood;

We present ourselves before thee,

Now to walk the narrow road:

Savior, guide us—

Guide us to our heavenly home.

2 Thou didst mark our path of duty;
Thou wast laid beneath the wave;

Thou didst rise, in glorious beauty,

From the semblance of the grave;

May we follow

In the same delightful way.

The peace of God. (760)

1 Oh peace of God, sweet peace of God,
Where broods on earth this gentle dove,
Where spread those pure and downy wings
To shelter him whom God doth love?

2 Whence comes this blessing of the soul,
This silent joy which can not fade?
This glory, tranquil, holy, bright,
Pervading sorrow's deepest shade?

3 The peace of God, the peace of God!
It shines as clear 'mid cloud and storm
As in the calmest summer day,
'Mid chill as in the sunlight warm.

4 Oh peace of God! earth hath no power
To shed thine unction o'er the heart;
Its smile can never bring it here—
Its frown ne'er bid its light depart.

5 Calm peace of God, in holy trust,
In love and faith thy presence dwells—
In patient suffering and toil
Where mercy's gentle tear-drop swells.

6 Sweet peace! Oh let thy heavenly ray
Shed its calm radiance o'er my road;
Its kindly light shall cheer me on—
Guide to the endless peace of God.

559

Submissiveness. (898)

1 Be still, my heart! these anxious cares,
To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares;
They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
And contradict his gracious word.

2 Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
How canst thou want if he provide,
Or lose thy way with such a guide?

3 Did ever trouble yet befall,
And he refuse to hear thy call?
And has he not his promise passed,
That thou shalt overcome at last?

4 He who has helped me hitherto
Will help me all my journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise
New trophies to his endless praise.

Far from my thoughts. (977)

1 Far from my thoughts, vain world! begone,
Let my religious hours alone:
Fain would mine eyes my Savior see;
I wait a visit, Lord! from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire;
Come, my dear Jesus! from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Savior, what delicious fare—
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One,
That eyes have seen, or angels know!

With hearts and lips unfeigned,
We bless thee for thy word;
We praise thee for the joyful news,
Which our glad ears have heard.

2 Oh may we treasure well
The counsels that we hear,
Till righteousness and holy joy
In all our hearts appear.
Water the sacred seed,
And give it large increase;
May neither fowls, nor rocks, nor thorns,
Prevent the fruits of peace.

563 That Rock was Christ. S. M. (778)

Issued a river, and the rock
The Hebrew's thirst supplied.

2 But oh! what nobler themes
Does gospel grace afford!
From Calvary spring superior streams—
There hung the smitten Lord!
Of every hope bereft,
Sinners to Jesus go;
Behold the Rock of Ages cleft,
And living currents flow.

3 Choose for us, God; nor let our weak preferring
 Cheat our poor souls of good thou hast designed;
 Choose for us, God! thy wisdom is unerring,
 And we are fools and blind.

4 So from our sky the night shall furl her shadows,
 And day pour gladness through the golden gates;
 Our rough path leads through flowery-enameled meadows,
 Where joy our coming waits.

5 Let us press on in patient self-denial,
 Accept the hardship, shrinking not from loss—
 Our guerdon lies beyond the hour of trial;
 Our crown, beyond the Cross.

2 Friends fondly cherished, but passed on before;
Waiting, they watch me approaching
the shore;
Singing to cheer me through death's
chilling gloom:
Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home.
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear!
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome—
Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home.

3 Death, with thy weapons of war, lay me low;
Strike, king of terrors! I fear not the blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb!
Joyfully, joyfully, will I go home.
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn;
Death shall be banished, his scepter be gone;
Joyfully, then, shall I witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

1 Savior! teach me, day by day,
Love's sweet lessons to obey;
Sweeter lessons can not be,
Loving him who first loved me.
With a child-like heart of love,
At thy bidding may I move;
Prompt to serve and follow thee,
Loving him who first loved me.

2 Teach me all thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in thy grace;
Learning how to love from thee,
Loving him who first loved me.
Love in loving finds employ—
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving him who first loved me.

Thou canst lead us home.

2 Though the gloom be grievous,
Those we leant on leave us,
Though the coward heart
Quit its proper part,
Though the tempter come,
Thou wilt lead us home.

3 Savior pure and holy,
Lover of the lowly,
Sign us with thy sign,
Take our hands in thine;
Take our hands and come,
Lead thy children home!

4 Star of morn and even,
Shine on us from heaven;
From thy glory-throne
Hear thy very own!
Lord and Savior, come,
Lead us to our home!

GOD DOTH NOT LEAVE HIS OWN. T. E. PERKINS, by per.

1. God doth not leave his own! The night of weeping for a time may last; Then, tears all past, His going forth shall as the morning shine; The sunrise of his favors shall be thine—God doth not leave his own, doth not leave his own.

576God doth not leave his own.*

(802)

2 God doth not leave his own!
 Though "few and evil" all their days appear,
 Though grief and fear
 Come in the train of earth and hell's dark crowd,
 The trusting heart says, even in the cloud,
 God doth not leave his own.

3 God doth not leave his own!
 This sorrow in their life he doth permit,
 Yea, useth it,
 To speed his children on their heavenward way—
 He guides the winds—Faith, Hope, and Love all say
 God doth not leave his own.

 Resist his will, distrust his care?
 Holy and true are all his ways:
 Let every creature speak his praise.

 Be thou my guide through weal or woe:
 And teach me of thy cup to drink,
 And make me in thy faith to go.

In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice,
And thy salvation seek.

I'll sing my Jesus' lovely name
When all things else decay.

LONGING FOR REST. C. M. *

Harmonized by C.

1. Sweet land of rest, for thee I sigh; When will the mo-ment come

When I shall lay my ar-mor by, And dwell in peace at home?
D. S. This world's a wil-der-ness of woe, This world is not my home.

Oh, this is not my home, Oh, this is not my home;

582 Longing for heaven. (812)

- 2 No tranquil joy on earth I know,
No peaceful, sheltering dome;
This world's a wilderness of woe,
This world is not my home.
- 3 When by affliction sharply tried,
I view the gaping tomb,
Although I dread death's chilling tide,
Yet still I sigh for home.
- 4 Weary of wandering round and round
This vale of sin and gloom,
I long to quit the unhallowed ground,
And dwell with Christ at home.

583 The true riches. (813)

- 1 You glittering toys of earth, adieu!
A nobler choice be mine;
A real prize attracts my view—
A treasure all divine.
- 2 Away, unworthy of my cares,
You specious baits of sense;
Inestimable worth appears,
The pearl of price immense!

3 Jesus, to multitudes unknown—
O name divinely sweet!
Jesus, in thee, in thee alone,
Wealth, honor, pleasure, meet.

4 Should both the Indies, at my call,
Their boasted stores resign,
With joy I would renounce them all,
For leave to call thee mine.

5 Should earth's vain treasures all depart,
Of this dear gift possessed,
I'd clasp it to my joyful heart,
And be forever blest.

6 Blest Sovereign of my soul's desires,
Thy love is bliss divine;
Accept the praise that love inspires,
Since I can call thee mine!

584 As a tale that is told. (1052)

How short and hasty is our life:
How vast our soul's affairs!
Yet foolish mortals vainly strive
To lavish out their years.

GOING HOME. C. M. *

A. D. FILLMORE.

Chorus.

585 The new Jerusalem. (820)

- 2 Thy walls are all of precious stones,
Most glorious to behold!
Thy gates are richly set with pearl,
Thy streets are paved with gold.
- 3 Thy gardens and thy pleasant greens
My study long have been;
Such sparkling gems by human sight
Have never yet been seen.
- 4 If heaven be thus glorious, Lord,
Why should I stay from thence?
What folly 't is that I should dread
To die and go from hence!
- 5 Reach down, reach down thine arms of grace,
And cause me to ascend
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths never end.
- 6 Jesus, my love, to glory's gone;
Him will I go and see;
And all my brethren here below
Will soon come after me.

586 A city which hath foundations. (821)

- 1 Jerusalem, my glorious home,
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy, and peace, and thee?
- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin, nor sorrow know:
Blessed seats! thro' rude and stormy scenes,
I onward press to you.
- 4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe,
Or feel, at death, dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 5 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there,
Around my Savior stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.
- 6 Jerusalem, my glorious home,
My soul still pants for thee!
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

587 Earnestly desiring. (1128)

- 1 Oh could our thoughts and wishes fly
Above these gloomy shades,
To those bright worlds beyond the sky
Which sorrow ne'er invades!
- 2 There joys, unseen by mortal eyes,
Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospect rise,
Unconscious of decay.
- 3 Lord, send a beam of light divine,
To guide our upward aim!
With one reviving touch of thine
Our languid hearts inflame.

Though we many tri-als meet, Je-sus makes our tri-als sweet. Brother Christian, doubt no more, Christ your Savior's gone before;

D. S. We with Je-sus soon shall be, Hap-py in e-ter-ni-ty;

D. S.

He him-self has marked the way, Lead-ing to e-ter-nal day.
By our Fa-ther's side sit down, They that conquer shall wear the crown.

588 They that conquer shall wear, etc. (824)

2 Let us never be afraid;
'Tis on Christ our help is laid:
He will all our foes o'ercome,
He will take his exiles home.
Though the world revile and mock,
We are built upon the Rock;
And, while thus we dwell secure,
Christ will make our goings sure.

589 All things work together for good (919)

1 Sovereign Ruler of the skies,
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in thy hand;
All events at thy command.
Times of sickness, times of health,
Times of penury and wealth—
All must come, at last, and end,
As shall please my heavenly Friend.
2 O thou gracious, wise and just!
In thy hands my life I trust;
Have I somewhat dearer still?
I resign it to thy will.

Thee at all times will I bless;
Having thee, I all possess;
Ne'er can I bereaved be,
While I do not part with thee

590 That they go forward. (883)

1 Oft in sorrow, oft in woe,
Onward, Christian, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the bread of life.
Onward, Christian, onward go;
Join the war, and face the foe;
Will you flee in danger's hour?
Know you not your Captain's power?
2 Let your drooping heart be glad;
March, in heavenly armor clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long:
Soon shall victory tune your song.
Let not sorrow dim your eye;
Soon shall every tear be dry:
Let not fears your course impede;
Great your strength, if great your need.

SOMERSET. 8s. (New.) Arr. from J. G. ARCHER, by J. P. POWELL.

1. Oh, that I had wings like a dove, For, then, would I soon be at rest;
I'd fly to the man-sions a-bove;

The home of the pure and the blessed; } The place where no sorrow or tears }
Can ev-er my pleasures de - - stroy; }

But where, thro' e-ter-ni-ty's years, I'll drink from an o-cean of joy.

591 Longing for rest. (S26)

2 The clouds that now hang o'er my soul,
Make dark all the pathway of life;
While thunders unceasingly roll
In storms of deep anger and strife;
I hope for some bright ray to beam
From clouds where there yet may be light,
But only the lightning's red gleam
Is seen through the darkness of night.

3 I try to be humble and meek,
Leave all to my Savior's own will;
For, he to the tempest can speak,
The winds will obey and be still;
But now my soul flutters and cries,
And longs to be soaring away,
From darkness and gloom, to the skies,
The regions of bright, endless day.

4 Dear Savior, oh let me come home,
And rest on thy bosom in peace;
No more from thy presence to roam—
Then tempests and storms shall all cease.
I'll sing of thy wonderful ways,
With all of the glorified throng—
For ever and ever, thy praise
Shall be the one theme of my song.

592 Having a desire to depart. (S27)

1 To Jesus, the crown of my hope,
My soul is in haste to be gone;
Oh bear me, ye cherubim, up,
And waft me away to his throne.
My Savior, whom absent, I love,
Whom, not having seen, I adore;
Whose name is exalted above
All glory, dominion, and power!

2 Dissolve thou those bands that detain
My soul from her portion in thee,
Ah! strike off this adamant chain,
And make me eternally free.
When that happy era begins,
When arrayed in thy glories I shine,
Nor grieve any more, by my sins,
The bosom on which I recline;

3 Oh then shall the veil be removed!
And round me thy brightness be opened;
I shall meet him, whom absent I loved;
I shall see, whom unseen I adored.
And then, never more shall the fears,
The trials, temptations, and woes,
Which darken this valley of tears,
Intrude on my blissful repose.

LET ME GO. 8s &amp; 7s, Double.

W. B. BRADBURY, by per.

1. Let me go: my soul is wea-ry Of the chain which binds me here;
2. Let me go: for earth hath sor-row, Sin, and pain, and bit-ter tears;

Let my spir-it bend its pin-ion To a brighter, ho-li-er sphere.
All its paths are dark and drear-y, All its hopes are fraught with fears.

Earth, 't is true, hath friends that bless me With their fond and faithful love,
Short-lived are its brightest flow-ers, Soon its cherished joys de-cay;

Rit.
But the hands of an-gels beck-on On-ward to the climes a-bove,
Let me go; I fain would leave it For the realms of end-less day.

593

Prisoners of hope.

(825)

- 3 Let me go: my heart hath tasted
Of my Savior's wondrous grace;
Let me go, where I shall ever
See and know him face to face:
Let me go: the trees of heaven
Rise before me, waving bright,
And the distant crystal waters
Flash upon my failing sight.
- 4 Let me go: for songs seraphic
Now seem calling from the sky—
'T is the welcome of the angels,
Which e'en now are hovering nigh.
Let me go: they wait to bear me
To the mansions of the blest,
Where the spirit, worn and weary,
Finds at last its long-sought rest.

594

I have led thee in right paths. (922)

- 1 Oh how kindly hast thou led me,
Heavenly Father, day by day!
Found my dwelling, clothed and fed me,
Furnished friends to cheer my way!
Didst thou bless me, didst thou chasten,
With thy smile or with thy rod,
'T was that still my step might hasten
Homeward, heavenward, to my God.
- 2 Oh how slowly have I often
Followed where thy hand would draw!
How thy kindness failed to soften!
How thy chastening failed to awe!
Make me for thy rest more ready,
As thy path is longer trod;
Keep me in thy friendship steady,
Till thou call me home, my God!

595

Only waiting.

(1226)

- 1 Only waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is flown;
Till the night of earth is faded
From the heart once full of day;
Till the stars of heaven are breaking
Through the twilight soft and gray.
- 2 Only waiting till the reapers
Have the last sheaf gathered home;
For the summer-time is faded,
And the autumn winds have come.
Quickly, reapers, gather quickly
The last ripe hours of my heart,
For the bloom of life is withered,
And I hasten to depart.
- 3 Only waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is flown;
Then, from out the gathered darkness,
Holy, deathless stars shall rise,
By whose light my soul shall gladly
Tread its pathway to the skies.

596 Suffer little children to come, etc. (1074)

- 1 They are going—only going—
Jesus called them long ago;
All the wintry time they're passing,
Softly as the falling snow.
When the violets, in the spring-time,
Catch the azure of the sky,
They are carried out to slumber
Sweetly where the violets lie.
- 2 They are going—only going—
When with summer earth is dressed,
In their cold hands holding roses
Folded to each silent breast;
When the autumn hangs red banners
Out above the harvest sheaves,
They are going—ever going—
Thick and fast, like falling leaves.
- 3 All along the mighty ages,
All adown the solemn time,
They have taken up their homeward
March to that serener clime,

Where the watching, waiting angels
Lead them from the shadow dim
To the brightness of his presence,
Who has called them unto him.

4 They are going—only going—
Out of pain and into bliss—
Out of sad and sinful weakness
Into perfect holiness.
Snowy brows—no care shall shade them;
Bright eyes—tears shall never dim;
Rosy lips—no time shall fade them:
Jesus called them unto him.

5 Little hearts forever stainless—
Little hands as pure as they—
Little feet by angels guided,
Never a forbidden way!
They are going—ever going—
Leaving many a lonely spot;
But 't is Jesus who has called them—
Suffer and forbid them not.

597 Shall we e'er forget the story? (1156)

- 1 When we reach a quiet dwelling,
On the strong, eternal hills,
And our praise to him is swelling,
Who the vast creation fills;
When the paths of prayer and duty,
And affliction all are trod,
And we wake to see the beauty
Of our Savior and our God:
- 2 With the light of resurrection,
When our changed bodies glow,
And we gain the full perfection
Of the bliss begun below;
When the life that flesh obscureth
In each radiant form shall shine,
And the joy that aye endureth
Flashes forth in beams divine:
- 3 While we wave the palms of glory
Through the long, eternal years,
Shall we e'er forget the story
Of our mortal griefs and fears?
Shall we e'er forget the sadness,
And the clouds that hung so dim,
When our hearts are filled with gladness,
And our tears are dried by him?

O'er these dark hills of time;
And we shall be where suns are not,
A far serener clime.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
Oh wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.
- 3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day,
Oh wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.
- 4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
Oh wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

Come, Lord Jesus.

(1100)

- 1 The Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.
Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still in weeds of widowhood
She weeps, a mourner yet.
- 2 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us, one by one,
We laid them side by side;
We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there,
Till the last glorious morn.
- 3 The whole creation groans,
And waits to hear that voice
That shall restore her comeliness,
And make her wastes rejoice.
Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
Thy golden gates appear!
Ah, then my spirit faints,
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above, home above, etc.

3 Yet doubts still intervene,
And all my comfort flies:
Like Noah's dove, I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies;
Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace, bow of, etc.

1 Let every heart and tongue
Proclaim the Savior's praise;
He is the source of all my joy,
His mercy crowns my days.
He knows my feeble frame;
Remembers I am dust;
And though he should my life destroy,
In him I'll put my trust, put my, etc.

2 Each day he is my strength,
My hope, my life, my all;
And, while upon his arm I lean,
I surely can not fall.
Then, to my blessed Lord,
Let grateful songs arise,
While angels bear the notes above
And sound them thro' the skies, thro', etc.

- 3 Here, our souls are often fearful
 Of the pilgrim's lurking foe;
 But the Lord is our defender,
 And he tells us we may know.

- 4 Here, our shadowed homes are transient,
 And we meet the stranger's frown;
 So we'll sing with joy while going,
 E'en to death's dark billow down—

Where the Savior dwells in glory,
 There remains for us a home.

2 There within the heavenly mansions,
 Where life's river flows so clear,
 We shall see our blessed Savior,
 If we love and serve him here.

3 There with holy angels dwelling,
 Where the ransomed wander free,
 Jesus' praises ever telling,
 Sing we through eternity.

Unto thee we pray;

Poor and sick, and blind,
Prostrate we adore thee,
Call thy grace to mind.

- 2 But now I am a soldier,
My Captain's gone before;
He's given me my orders,
And tells me not to fear.
And if I hold out faithful,
A crown of life he'll give,
And all his valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.
- 3 Through grace I am determined
To conquer, though I die;
And then away to Jesus
On wings of love I'll fly.
Farewell to sin and sorrow—
I bid them both adieu:
And you, my friends, prove faithful,
And on your way pursue.
- 4 And if you meet with troubles
And trials on the way,
Then cast your care on Jesus,
And do n't forget to pray.
Gird on the heavenly armor
Of faith, and hope, and love,
And when your warfare's ended,
You'll reign with him above.
- 5 Oh! do not be discouraged,
For Jesus is your Friend,
And if you long for knowledge,
On him you may depend;
Neither will he upbraid you,
Though often you request;
He'll give you grace to conquer,
And take you home to rest.

609How long, O Lord.*

(831)

- 1 How long, O Lord, our Savior,
Wilt thou remain away?
Our hearts are growing weary
Of thy so long delay;
Oh when shall come the moment,
When, brighter far than morn,
The sunshine of thy glory,
Shall on thy people dawn.
- 2 How long, O gracious Master,
Wilt thou thy household leave?
So long hast thou now tarried,
Few thy return believe.
Immersed in sloth and folly,
Thy servants, Lord, we see,
And few of us stand ready
With joy to welcome thee.
- 3 How long, O heavenly Bridegroom,
How long wilt thou delay?
And yet how few are grieving
That thou dost absent stay:
Thy very bride, her portion
And calling hath forgot,
And seeks for ease and glory
Where thou, her Lord, art not.
- 4 Oh wake thy slumbering virgins,
Send forth the solemn cry—
Let all thy saints repeat it—
The Bridegroom draweth nigh;
May all our lamps be burning,
Our loins well girded be,
Each longing heart preparing
With joy thy face to see.

610 All the rivers run into the sea. (1088)

- 1 As flows the rapid river,
With channel broad and free,
Its waters rippling ever,
And hastening to the sea;
So life is onward flowing,
And days of offered peace,
And man is swiftly going
Where calls of mercy cease.
- 2 As moons are ever waning,
As hastes the sun away,
As stormy winds, complaining,
Bring on the wintry day;
So fast the night comes o'er us—
The darkness of the grave;
The death is just before us;
God takes the life he gave.
- 3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure
Laid up in worlds above?
And is it all thy pleasure
Thy God to praise and love?
Beware lest death's dark river
Its billows o'er thee roll,
And thou lament forever
The ruin of thy soul.

611 Early piety. (325)

- 1 Oh come in life's gay morning,
Ere in thy sunny way
The flowers of hope have withered,
And sorrow end thy day!
Come, while from joy's bright fountain
The streams of pleasure flow;
Come ere thy buoyant spirits
Have felt the blight of woe.
- 2 "Remember thy Creator"
Now in thy youthful days,
And he will guide thy footsteps
Through life's uncertain maze.
"Remember thy Creator,"
He calls in tones of love,
And offer deathless glories
In brighter worlds above.
- 3 And in the hour of sadness,
When earthly joys depart,
His love shall be thy solace,
And cheer thy drooping heart.

And when life's storm is over,
And thou from earth art free,
Thy God will be thy portion
Throughout eternity.

612 Strangers and pilgrims. (1155)

- 1 We have no home but heaven;
A pilgrim's garb we wear;
Our path is marked by changes,
And strewed with many a care;
Surrounded with temptation;
By varied ills oppressed;
Each day's experience warns us
That this is not our rest.
- 2 We have no home but heaven;
Then, wherefore seek one here?
Why murmur at privation,
Or grieve when trouble's near?
It is but for a season
That we as strangers roam,
And strangers must not look for
The comforts of a home.
- 3 We have no home but heaven;
We want no home beside;
O God, our Friend and Father,
Our footsteps thither guide!
Unfold to us its glory,
Prepare us for its joy,
Its pure and perfect friendship,
Its angel-like employ.
- 613 Reunion in heaven. (1144)
- 1 No seas again shall sever,
No desert intervene,
No deep, sad-flowing river
Shall roll its tide between.
Love and unsevered union
Of soul with those we love,
Nearness and glad communion,
Shall be our joy above.
- 2 No dread of wasting sickness,
No thought of ache or pain,
No fretting hours of weakness,
Shall mar our peace again.
No death our homes o'ershading
Shall e'er our harps unstring,
For all is life unfading
In presence of our King.

2 I would not live always: no, welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus has lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

3 Who, who would live always, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;

1 O eyes that are weary, and hearts that are sore,
Look off unto Jesus; now sorrow no more!
The light of his countenance shineth so bright,
That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

2 While looking to Jesus, my heart can not fear;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
For "Why are you troubled?" he saith unto me.

3 Still looking to Jesus, oh may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round!
They bear me away in his presence to be;
I see him still nearer whom always I see.

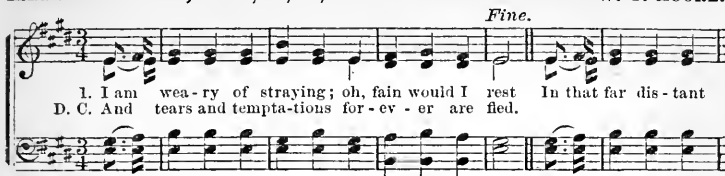

4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face:
Shall know how his love went before me each day,
And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.

Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love.

Yet pos-sess-ing Ev'-ry bless-ing, If our God our Fa-ther be.

622 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us. (842)

2 Savior! breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God descending!
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy.
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

623 Worthy is the Lamb, etc. (664)

1 Glory, glory everlasting,
Be to him who bore the cross,
Who redeemed our souls by tasting
Death, the death deserved by us:
Sound his glory
While our heart with transport glows.

2 Jesus' love is love unbounded,
Without measure, without end:
Human thought is here confounded;
'Tis too vast to comprehend;
Praise the Savior;
Magnify the sinner's Friend.

3 While we hear the wondrous story
Of the Savior's cross and shame,
Sing we, "Everlasting glory
Be to God and to the Lamb!"
Saints and angels,
Give ye glory to his name.

624 Songs for sighing. (924)

1 Hallelujah! best and sweetest
Of the hymns of praise above!
Hallelujah! thou repeatest,
Angel-host, these notes of love;
This ye utter,
While your golden harps ye move.

2 Hallelujah! church victorious,
Join the concert of the sky;
Hallelujah! bright and glorious!
Lift, ye saints, the strains on high!
We, poor exiles,
Join not yet your melody.

3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness
Comfort not the faint and worn;
Hallelujah! sounds of sadness
Best become the heart forlorn;
Our offenses
We with bitter tears must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication,
Holy God, we raise to thee;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Make us all thy peace to see!
Hallelujah!
Ours at length this strain shall be.

625 God of our salvation, hear us. (756)

God of our salvation, hear us;
Bless, oh bless us, ere we go;
When we join the world, be near us,
Lest we cold and careless grow;
Savior, keep us—
Keep us safe from every foe.

- 626 Oh, come quickly. (1102)
- 1 Savior, haste: our souls are waiting
For the long expected day,
When, new heavens and earth creating,
Thou shalt banish grief away;
All the sorrow
Caused by sin and Satan's sway.
- 2 Haste, oh hasten thine appearing,
Take thy mourning people home;
'Tis this hope our spirits cheering,
While we in the desert roam,
Makes thy people
Strangers here till thou dost come.
- 3 Lord, how long shall the creation
Groan and travail sore in pain,
Waiting for its sure salvation
When thou shalt in glory reign,
And like Eden
This sad earth shall bloom again?
- 4 Reign, oh reign, almighty Savior,
Heaven and earth in one unite;
Make it known, that in thy favor,
There alone is life and light;
When we see thee
We shall have supreme delight.
- 627 Adoration. (1323)
- 1 Let us sing the King Messiah,
King of Righteousness and Peace;
Hail him all his happy subjects,
Never let his praises cease!
Ever hail him,
Let his honors still increase!
- 2 How transcendent are thy glories!
Fairer than the sons of men,
While thy blessed mediation
Brings us back to God again!
Blessed Redeemer,
How we triumph in thy reign!
- 3 Gird thy sword on, Mighty Hero,
Make thy word of truth thy car,
Prosper in thy course triumphant,
All success attend thy war!
Gracious Victor,
Let mankind before thee bow!
- 628 Freely you have received, etc. (971)
- 1 With my substance I will honor
My Redeemer and my Lord;
Were ten thousand worlds my manor,
All were nothing to his word:
Hallelujah!
Now we offer to the Lord.
- 2 While the heralds of salvation
His abounding grace proclaim,
Let his saints of every station
Gladly join to spread his fame:
Hallelujah!
Gifts we offer to his name.
- 3 May his kingdom be promoted;
May the world the Savior know;
Be to him these gifts devoted,
For to him my all I owe:
Hallelujah!
Run, ye heralds, to and fro.
- 4 Praise the Savior, all ye nations;
Praise him, all ye hosts above;
Shout with joyful acclamations
His divine, victorious love:
Hallelujah!
By this gift our love we'll prove.
- 629 The Lord cometh, etc. (1103)
- 1 Lo! he cometh—countless trumpets
Wake to life the slumbering dead;
'Mid ten thousand saints and angels,
See their great exalted Head:
Hallelujah!
Welcome, welcome, Son of God!
- 2 Full of joyful expectation,
Saints behold the Judge appear;
Truth and justice go before him—
Now the joyful sentence hear;
Hallelujah!
Welcome, welcome, Judge divine!
- 3 "Come, ye blessed of my Father!
Enter into life and joy;
Banish all your fears and sorrows;
Endless praise be your employ;"
Hallelujah!
Welcome, welcome, to the skies.

ROTHWELL. L. M.

1. Awake, our souls; away, our fears; Let every trembling thought be gone; Awake and run the heavenly race, And put a cheerful courage on, And put a cheerful courage on.

630 I press toward the mark. (856)

- 2 True, 'tis a straight and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint;
- 3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
Is ever new and ever young,
And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.
- 4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a full supply;
While those who trust their native strength,
Shall melt away, and droop, and die.
- 5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amid the heavenly road.

631 Unchanging trust. (65)

- 1 No change of time shall ever shock
My firm affection, Lord, to thee;
For thou hast always been my rock,
A fortress and defense to me.
- 2 Thou my deliverer art, my God;
My trust is in thy mighty power;
Thou art my shield from foes abroad—
At home my safeguard and my tower.
- 3 To thee I will address my prayer,
To whom all praise I justly owe;
So shall I, by thy watchful care,
Be guarded from my treacherous foe.

632 Fight the good fight of faith. (427)

- 1 Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armor on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where Jesus, the great Captain's gone.
- 2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Savior nailed them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.
- 3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.
- 4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

633 And dying is but going home. (806)

- 1 Now let our souls, on wings sublime,
Rise from the vanities of time;
Draw back the parting veil, and see
The glories of eternity.
- 2 Born by new, celestial birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at vain and fleeting toys,
So near to heaven's eternal joys?
- 3 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
While we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
And dying is but going home.

WINDHAM. L. M.

DANIEL READ.

1. The billows swell, the winds are high; Clouds o-ver-cast my win'try sky;
 Out of the depths to thee I call; My fears are great, my strength is small.

634 Lord, save us; we perish. (857)

- 2 O Lord, the pilot's part perform,
 And guide and guard me through the storm;
 Defend me from each threatening ill:
 Control the waves; say, "Peace! be still."
- 3 Amid the roaring of the sea,
 My soul still hangs her hope on thee;
 Thy constant love, thy faithful care,
 Is all that saves me from despair.
- 4 Though tempest-tossed and half a wreck,
 My Savior through the floods I seek:
 Let neither winds nor stormy main
 Force back my shattered bark again.

635 Psalm 3. (851)

- 1 The tempter to my soul hath said,
 "There is no help in God for thee;"
 Lord! lift thou up thy servant's head,
 My glory, shield, and solace be.
- 2 Thus to the Lord I raised my cry;
 He heard me from his holy hill;
 At his command the waves rolled by;
 He beckoned—and the winds were still.
- 3 I laid me down and slept—I woke—
 Thou, Lord! my spirit didst sustain;
 Bright from the east the morning broke—
 Thy comforts rose on me again.
- 4 I will not fear, though armed throngs
 'Compass my steps in all their wrath;
 Salvation to the Lord belongs:
 His presence guards his people's path.

636 We walk by faith. (855)

- 1 By faith in Christ I walk with God,
 With heaven, my journey's end, in view;
 Supported by his staff and rod,
 My road is safe and pleasant too.
- 2 I travel through a desert wide,
 Where many round me blindly stray;
 But he vouchsafes to be my Guide,
 And keep me in the narrow way.
- 3 The wilderness affords no food,
 But God for my support prepares,
 Provides me every needful good,
 And frees my soul from wants and cares.
- 4 With him sweet converse I maintain;
 Great as he is, I dare be free;
 I tell him all my grief and pain,
 And he reveals his love to me.
- 5 I pity all that worldlings talk
 Of pleasures that will quickly end;
 Be this my choice, O Lord! to walk
 With thee, my Guide, my Guard, my Friend.

637 Christ, all in all. (554)

- 1 Oh thou pure light of souls that love,
 True joy of every human breast,
 Sower of life's immortal seed,
 Our Savior and Redeemer blest!
- 2 Be thou our guide, be thou our goal;
 Be thou our pathway to the skies;
 Our joy when sorrow fills the soul;
 In death our everlasting prize.

Fine. D. S.
blush to speak his name? Or blush to speak his name?
blush to speak his name?

638 Endure hardness as a good soldier. (863)

- 1 Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
With Hope's exulting eye.

- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

639 With all boldness. (865)

- 1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
Nor to defend his cause,
Maintain the honors of his word,
The glory of his cross.
- 2 Jesus, my Lord, I know his name,
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands
Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint for me a place.

CHRISTMAS. C. M.

HANDEL.

1. A - wake, my soul, stretch every nerve, And press with vigor on; A heavenly race demands your zeal, And an immortal crown, And an im-mor-tal crown.

640 Run with patience. (866)

- 2 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high:
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thy aspiring eye.
- 3 A cloud of witnesses around,
Holds thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge the way.
- 4 Blest Savior, introduced by thee,
Have we our race begun!
And crowned with victory at thy feet
We'll lay our honors down.

641 So run that ye may obtain. (860)

- 1 Rise, O my soul! pursue the path
By ancient heroes trod;
Ambitious view those holy men
Who lived and walked with God.
- 2 Though dead they speak in reason's ear
And in example live;
Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds,
Still fresh instruction give.
- 3 'T was through the Lamb's most precious blood
They conquered everyfoe:
And to his power, and matchless grace,
Their crowns and honors owe.
- 4 Lord, may we ever keep in view
The patterns thou hast given,
And ne'er forsake the blessed road
Which led them safe to heaven.

642 Let me not wander, etc. (872)

- 1 Alas, what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven, oh, let me fill mine eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.
- 2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain,
And melt in flowing tears!
My weak resistance, ah, how vain!
How strong my foes and fears!
- 3 O gracious God! in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.
- 4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.
- 5 Oh, keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee!
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

643 The good Seed. (733)

- 1 Almighty God, thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Now let the dew of heaven descend,
And righteous fruits abound.
- 2 Let not the foe of Christ and man
This holy seed remove;
But give it root in every heart,
To bring forth fruits of love.

LABAN. S. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. My soul, be on thy guard, Ten thousand foes a - rise;

The hosts of sin are pressing hard, To draw thee from the skies.

644 Watch! (875)

- 2 Oh watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down:
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.
- 4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
To his divine abode.

645 Occupy till I come. (876)

- 1 A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;
Oh may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give!
- 4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

646 To him that overcometh. (877)

- 1 Arise, ye saints, arise!
The Lord our Leader is;
The foe before his banner flies,
For victory is his.
- 2 Lead on, almighty Lord,
Lead on to victory!
Encouraged by the bright reward,
With joy we'll follow thee.
- 3 We'll follow thee, our Guide,
Our Savior, and our King;
We'll follow thee, through grace supplied
From heaven's eternal spring.
- 4 We hope to see the day
When all our toils shall cease;
When we shall cast our arms away,
And dwell in endless peace.
- 5 This hope supports us here,
It makes our burdens light;
'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer,
Till faith shall end in sight.

647 Stand fast in the Lord. (496)

- 1 All you that have confessed
That Jesus is the Lord,
And to his people joined yourselves,
According to his word:
- 2 In Zion you must dwell,
Her altar ne'er forsake;
Must come to all her solemn feasts,
Of all her joys partake.

648 Be strong in the Lord. (879)

- 1 Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on!
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through his beloved Son.
- 2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in his mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Stand, then, in his great might,
With all his strength endued;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.
- 4 Leave no unguarded place,
No weakness of the soul;
Take every virtue, every grace,
And fortify the whole;
- 5 That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
You may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

649 Therefore will not we fear. (880)

- 1 Give to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves, through clouds and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Still heavy is thy heart!
Still sink thy spirits down!
Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
Bid every care be gone.
- 4 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought
That caused thy needless fear.
- 5 What, though thou rulest not!
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well!

650 In the morning sow thy seed. (967)

- 1 Sow in the morn thy seed;
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear, give thou no heed;
Broadcast it o'er the land.
- 2 Thou knowest not which shall thrive—
The late or early sown;
Grace keeps the precious germ alive,
When and wherever strewn;
- 3 The good, the fruitful ground
Expect not here nor there;
On hillside and in dale 't is found;
Go forth, then, every-where!
- 4 And duly shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.
- 5 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garner in the sky.
- 6 Thence, when the glorious end—
The day of God—is come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven cry, Harvest-home.

651 Not hurt in all my holy mountain. (965)

- 1 Hush the loud cannon's roar,
The frantic warrior's call,
Why should the earth be drenched with gore?
Are we not brothers all?
- 2 Want, from the wretch depart;
Chains, from the captive fall;
Sweet mercy, melt the oppressor's heart:
Sufferers are brothers all.
- 3 Churches and sects, strike down
Each mean partition wall;
Let love each harsher feeling drown:
Christians are brothers all.
- 4 Let love and truth alone
Hold human hearts in thrall,
That heaven its work at length may own,
And men be brothers all.

2 He whose thunder shakes creation;
 He that bids the planets roll;
 He that rides upon the tempest,
 And whose scepter sways the whole—
 Jesus, Jesus, will defend you!
 Trust in him and him alone;
 He has shed his blood to save you,
 And will bring you to his throne.

3 There on flowery fields of pleasure,
 And the hills of endless rest,
 Joy, and peace, and love, shall ever
 Reign and triumph in your breast.
 There ten thousand flaming seraphs
 Fly across the heavenly plain;
 There they sing immortal praises!
 Glory, glory is their theme.

4 But, methinks, a sweeter concert
 Makes the crystal arches ring,
 And a song is heard in Zion
 Which the angels can not sing;
 Who can paint those sons of glory,
 Ransomed souls that dwell on high,
 Who with golden harps, forever,
 Sound redemption through the sky.

5 See the heavenly host in rapture
 Gazing on these shining bands;
 Wondering at their costly garments,
 And the laurels in their hands;

There upon the golden pavement,
 See the ransomed march along!
 While the splendid courts of glory
 Sweetly echo with their song!

6 Here I see the under shepherds,
 And the flocks they fed below,
 Here with joy they dwell together,
 Jesus is their shepherd now.
 Hail! you happy, happy spirits!
 Welcome to the blissful plain—
 Glory, honor, and salvation;
 Reign, sweet Shepherd, ever reign.

653 Receive ye one another. (501)

1 Come, dear friends, we all are brethren,
 Bound for Canaan's happy land;
 Come, unite and walk together,
 Christ, our Leader, gives command.
 Cease to boast of party merit,
 Wound the cause of God no more,
 Be united by his Spirit,
 Zion's peace again restore.

2 Now our hand, our heart and spirit,
 Here in fellowship we give;
 Let us love and peace inherit.
 Show the world how Christians live.
 We'll be one in Christ our Savior.
 Male and female, bond and free!
 Christ is all in all forever,
 In him we shall blessed be.

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
It has left my Savior too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me,
Thou art not like them, untrue;
Whilst thy graces shall adorn me,
God of wisdom, love, and might—
Foes may hate, and friends may scorn me,
Show thy face, and all is bright.

3 Go, then—earthly fame and treasure,
Come disaster, scorn, and pain;
In thy service, pain is pleasure—
With thy favor loss is gain.
I have called thee, Abba Father!
I have set my heart on thee;
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All will work for good to me.

4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'T will but drive me to thy breast,
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.

Oh, 't is not in grief to harm me
While thy love is left to me;
Oh, 't were not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee.

5 Soul—then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care,
Joy to find, in every station,
Something still to do or bear;
Think what spirit dwells within thee,
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to save thee;
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

6 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission;
Soon shall pass thy pilgrim's days;
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise!

From without and from within,
Jesus saith he'll ne'er forget thee,
But will save from hell and sin.
He is faithful
To perform his gracious word.
- 4 Though distresses now attend thee,
And thou tread'st the thorny road,
His right hand shall still defend thee;
Soon he'll bring thee home to God.
Therefore praise him,
Praise the great Redeemer's name.

Let me find thee—
Me, a poor and worthless thing.
- 2 Look upon me, Lord, I pray thee;
Let thy Spirit dwell in mine;
Thou hast sought me, thou hast bought me,
Only thee to know I pine:
Let me find thee—
Take my heart and grant me thine.
- 3 Naught I ask for, naught I strive for,
But thy grace, so rich and free,
That thou givest whom thou lovest,
And who truly cleave to thee;
Let me find thee—
He hath all things who hath thee.

Is the mount of vision won;
Tread it without shrinking, brother!
Jesus trod it—press thou on!
- 4 By thy trustful, calm endeavor,
Guiding, cheering, like the sun,
Earth-bound hearts thou shalt deliver;
Oh, for their sake, press thou on!
- 5 Be this world the wiser, stronger,
For thy life of pain and peace;
While it needs thee, oh no longer
Pray thou for thy quick release;
- 6 Pray thou, Christian, daily, rather
That thou be a faithful son;
By the prayer of Jesus—"Father,
Not my will, but thine, be done!"

658 Father, take me. (949)

- 1 Take me, O my Father! take me—
Take me, save me, through thy Son;
That which thou wouldst have me, make me;
Let thy will in me be done.
- 2 Long from thee my footsteps straying,
Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying—
Take me to thy love, my God!

- 3 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin!
At thy feet, O Father, falling,
To thy household take me in.
- 4 Freely now to thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely, life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like thine.
- 5 Once the world's Redeemer, dying,
Bore our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to thee.
- 6 Father, take me! all forgiving,
Fold me to thy loving breast;
In thy love forever living,
I must be forever blest.

659 Give me thy heart. (1219)

- 1 Take my heart, O Father! mold it
In obedience to thy will;
And as ripening years unfold it,
Keep it true and childlike still.
- 2 Father, keep it pure and lowly,
Strong and brave, yet free from strife,
Turning from the paths unholy
Of a vain or sinful life.
- 3 Ever let thy might surround it;
Strengthen it with power divine;
Till thy cords of love have bound it,
Father, wholly unto thine.

 And joy without a tear.
 For perfect love will dry the tear,
 And cast out all tormenting fear,
 Which round my heart is clinging;
 Oh that's the love for me!
- 3 We'll bear the consecrated cross,
 Till from the cross we're free;
 And then go home to wear the crown,
 For there's a crown for me.
 Yes, there's a crown in heaven above,
 The purchase of my Savior's love,
 For me at his appearing;
 Oh that's the crown for me!
- 4 The saints shall hear the midnight cry,
 The Lord will then appear,
 And virgins rise with burning lamps,
 To meet him in the air:
 For there's a home in heaven prepared,
 A house by saints and angels shared,
 Where Christ is interceding;
 Oh that's the home for me!

661

You are not of the world.

(892)

- 1 The sun above us gleaming,
 Is not the sun for me;
 Though joyful be his beaming,
 And beautiful to see;
 There is a Sun of Righteousness
 Who cheers and saves me by his grace,
 All copious on me streaming,
 Oh that's the sun for me.
- 2 The kings and lords of nations,
 Are not the kings for me;
 Too low their highest stations,
 Too mean their dignity:
 The King of kings and Lord of lords,
 Almighty in his ways and words,
 The word of his salvation —
 Oh that's the king for me.
- 3 This house of death and mourning
 Is not the house for me,
 Where all to dust are turning,
 In tears and agony;
 But there's a house not made with hands,
 It ever stood and ever stands
 Beyond the world's last burning;
 Oh that's the house for me.

PAUL. 10s, 11s & 12s.

From "Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book."

1. Breast the wave, Christian, when it is strongest; Watch for day, Christian, when night is longest;

Onward and upward still be thine endeavor; The rest that remaineth endureth forever.

662

Be thou faithful unto death.

(895)

2 Fight the fight, Christian; Jesus is o'er thee;
Run the race, Christian; heaven is before thee;
He who hath promised, faltereth never;
Oh trust in the love that endureth forever!

3 Lift the eye, Christian, just as it closeth;
Raise the heart, Christian, ere it reposeseth:
Thee from the love of Christ nothing shall sever;
Mount, when the work is done—praise God forever!

LYNCH. 6s & 4s.

From "Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book."

1. Fa-ther, oh hear me now? Fa-ther di-vine! Thou, on-ly thou, canst see

The heart's deep ag-o-ny; Help me to say to thee, "Thy will, not mine!"

663

O God! be thou my stay.

(925)

2 O God! be thou my stay
In this dark hour;
Kindly each sorrow hear,
Hush every troubled fear,
Thee let me still revere,
Still own thy power.

4 In thee alone I trust,
Thou Holy One!
Humbly to thee I pray
That, through each troubled day
Of life, I still may say,
"Thy will be done!"

1. Our souls are in the Sav - ior's hand, And he will keep them still;

And you and I shall sure - ly stand With him on Zi - on's hill.

664 Our souls are in the Saviour's hand. (907)

- 2 Him eye to eye we there shall see,
Our face like his shall shine;
Oh! what a glorious company,
When saints and angels join!
- 3 Oh! what a joyful meeting there,
In robes of white array!
Palms in our hands we all shall bear,
And crowns that ne'er decay!
- 4 When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise,
Than when we first begun!
- 5 Then let us hasten to the day
When all shall be brought home:
Come, O Redeemer! come away!
O Jesus! quickly come!

665 Increase our faith. (353)

- 1 Oh for a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe!
- 2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God;
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That, when in danger, knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;

- 4 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread frown,
Nor heeds its scornful smile;
That seas of trouble can not drown,
Nor Satan's arts beguile.
- 5 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray,
Lights up a dying bed.
- 6 Lord, give us such a faith as this;
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste e'en here the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

666 Victory over death. (1063)

- 1 Oh for an overcoming<sup>g</sup> faith
To cheer my dying hours,
To triumph o'er the monster death,
And all his frightful powers.
- 2 Joyful, with all the strength I have,
My quivering lips shall sing,
Where is thy boasted victory, grave?
And where the monster's sting?
- 3 If sin be pardoned I'm secure—
Death has no sting beside;
The law gives sin its damning power,
But Christ my ransom died.
- 4 Now to the God of victory
Immortal thanks be paid,
Who makes us conquerors while we die,
Through Christ our living Head.

As thou wilt.

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
 If needy here and poor,
 Give me thy people's bread,
 Their portion rich and sure.
 The manna of thy word,
 Let my soul feed upon;
 And if all else should fail—
 My Lord, thy will be done!

3 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
 If among thorns I go,
 Still sometimes here and there
 Let a few roses blow.
 But thou, on earth, along
 The thorny path hast gone;
 Then lead me after thee;
 My Lord, thy will be done!

4 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
 Though seen through many a tear,
 Let not my star of hope
 Grow dim or disappear.
 Since thou on earth hast wept
 And sorrowed oft alone,
 If I must weep with thee,
 My Lord, thy will be done!

5 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
 If loved ones must depart,
 Suffer not sorrow's flood
 To overwhelm my heart;
 For they are blest with thee,
 Thy race and conflict won;
 Let me but follow them;
 My Lord, thy will be done!

(921)

6 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
 When death itself draws nigh,
 To thy dear wounded side
 I would for refuge fly.
 Leaning on thee, to go
 Where thou before hast gone;
 The rest as thou shalt please;
 My Lord, thy will be done!

668

Changed from glory to glory. (926)

1 I did thee wrong, my God;
 I wronged thy truth and love;
 I fretted at the rod—
 Against thy power I strove.
 Come nearer, nearer still;
 Let not thy light depart;
 Bend, break this stubborn will;
 Dissolve this iron heart!

2 Less wayward let me be,
 More pliable and mild;
 In glad simplicity,
 More like a trustful child.
 Less, less of self each day,
 And more, my God, of thee;
 Oh keep me in the way,
 However rough it be!

3 Less of the flesh each day,
 Less of the world and sin;
 More of thy Son, I pray,
 More of thyself within.
 More molded to thy will,
 Lord, let thy servant be;
 Higher and higher still,
 More, and still more, like thee!

(656)

1 Savior! thy gentle voice
Gladly we hear;
Author of all our joys,
Be ever near;
Our souls would cling to thee,
Let us thy fullness see,
Our life to cheer.

2 Fountain of life divine!
Thee we adore;
We would be wholly thine
For evermore;
Freely forgive our sin,
Grant heavenly peace within,
Thy light restore.

3 Though to our faith unseen,
While darkness reigns,
On thee alone we lean
While life remains;
By thy free grace restored,
Our souls shall bless the Lord
In joyful strains!

AFTER THE TOIL. (New.)

Dr. T. HASTINGS.

1. "After the toil," when the morning breaks,
On the bloom-crowned hills of the heavenly land;

2. "After the toil," when the dim earth sinks,
Like a worn-out pebble in eternity's sea;

"After the toil," when each slumberer wakes,
'Neath the glorified touch of the Infinite Hand.

"After the toil," when each thirsty soul drinks
Of the River that flows thro' immensity.

After the toil.

(933)

- 3 "After the toil," O shadowing cloud
Of time o'er the face of the Infinite!
When thou shalt be dropped like a worm-eaten shroud,
What a morning will dawn on us after the night!
- 4 "After the toil," and the cross that we bear,
Way-worn and weary, through life's creeping years,
Angels will smile on the crown we shall wear,
And the songs of salvation will follow our tears.
- 5 "After the toil," O thou who art faint!
Rise from the shadows that darken thy way—
Rise while thy faith's raptured pencil shall paint
All its glorified dream of the Infinite Day.

- 1 A weak and weary dove, with drooping wing,
And tired of wandering o'er this watery waste,
Jesus, my ark! once more, a worthless thing,
To thee I fly, thy pardoning love to taste.
- 2 For since I left thy sweet, secure retreat,
In search of pleasures fair, though false and vain,
My peace—my joy have flown; no rest my feet
Have found; and now I turn to thee again!
- 3 I've sought for rest in friendship's hallowed shrine,
But loved ones change, and earth's endearments end:
No love is true and lasting, Lord, but thine;
Henceforth, Incarnate Love, be thou my friend.
- 4 I've sought to find a place to rest my feet
In fame's alluring temple, bright and gay;
In health, and competence, and pleasures sweet,
But short and transient as the passing day.

KNOWLES SHAW.

1. We ask for peace, O Lord! Thy children ask thy peace; Not what the world calls rest,
2. We ask for peace, O Lord! Yet not to stand se-cure, Girt round with iron pride,

That toil and care should cease, That thro' bright sunny hours Calm life should fleet away,
Con-tent-ed to endure, Crushing the gentle strings, That human hearts should know,

And tranquil night should fade In smiling day; It is not for such peace that we would pray.

COVENTRY. C. M.

1. Lord, lead the way the Sav - ior went, By lane and cell ob-scure,
And let our treas-ures still be spent, Like his, up - on the poor.

681 Ye have the poor always with'you. (955)

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And, that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Small are the offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Savior's sake,
They lose not their reward,

682 Scorn not the slightest word or deed. (957)

1 Scorn not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.

2 A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.

3 No act falls fruitless, none can tell
How vast its powers may be,
Nor what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.

4 Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be,
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

683 Make channels for streams of love. (958)

1 Make channels for the streams of love,
Where they may broadly run;
And love has overflowing streams,
To fill them every one.

2 But if at any time we cease
Such channels to provide,
The very founts of love for us
Will soon be parched and dried.

3 For we must share, if we would keep
That blessing from above;
Ceasing to give, we cease to have:
Such is the law of love.

684 I delivered the poor, etc. (954)

1 Bright Source of everlasting love,
To thee our souls we raise,
And to thy sovereign bounty rear
A monument of praise.

2 Thy mercy gilds the path of life
With every cheering ray,
Kindly restrains the rising tear,
Or wipes that tear away.

3 To tents of woe, to beds of pain,
Our cheerful feet repair,
And with the gifts thy hand bestows,
Relieve the mourners there.

4 The widow's heart shall sing for joy;
The orphan shall be fed;
The hungry soul we'll gladly point
To Christ, the living Bread.

Age to age, and shore to shore,
Praise him, praise him, evermore !

3 Praise the Lord, his mercies trace ;
Praise his providence and grace—
All that he for man hath done,
All he sends us through his Son.

4 Strings and voices, hands and hearts,

All that breathe, your Lord adore ;
Praise him, praise him, evermore !

688 The Lord make his face shine, etc. (577)

1 Stealing from the world away,
We are come to seek thy face :
Kindly meet us, Lord, we pray ;
Grant us thy reviving grace.

2 Yonder stars that gild the sky
Shine but with a borrowed light.
We, unless thy light be nigh,

Hail, thrice holy, God Most High !
Glorified apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise.

Present, though thou know it not ;
Morning vows and evening prayer
Make a Bethel every-where.

2 Go where duty guides thy feet ;
There good angels thou shalt meet ;
Hosts of God thou canst not see,
Watch thy steps and wait on thee.

691 My voice shalt thou hear, etc. (1186)

1 Now the shades of night are gone ;
Now the morning light is come ;
Lord, may I be thine to-day—
Drive the shades of sin away.

2 Fill my soul with heavenly light,
Banish doubt, and cleanse my sight ;
In thy service, Lord, to-day,
Help me labor, help me pray.

3 Keep my haughty passions bound—
Save me from my foes around ;
Going out, and coming in,
Keep me safe from every sin.

4 When my work of life is past,
Oh receive me then at last !
When I reach the heavenly shore,
Night of sin will be no more.

CHINA. C. M.

1. O thou who driest the mourn - er's tear, How dark this world would be, If, when de - ceived and wound-ed here, We could not fly to thee.

692 Songs in the night. (1005)

- 2 But thou wilt heal the broken heart,
Which, like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.
- 3 When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
Is dimmed and vanished too;
- 4 Oh, who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come brightly wafting through the gloom,
Our peace-branch from above?
- 5 Then sorrow, touched by thee, grows bright
With more than rapture's ray;
The darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

693 Why mourn departing friends. (1057)

- 1 Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'T is but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.
- 2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the time more slow
To keep us from our Love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
'T was there the flesh of Jesus lay,
Amid its silent gloom.

- 4 The graves of all the saints he blest,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with their dying Head?
- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way;
Up to the Lord our souls shall fly,
At the great rising day.
- 6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise:
Awake, ye nations under ground;
Ye saints, ascend the skies.

694 The Lord will strengthen, etc. (1008)

- 1 When languor and disease invade
This trembling house of clay,
'T is sweet to look beyond my pains,
And long to fly away:
- 2 Sweet to look inward, and attend
The whispers of his love;
Sweet to look upward to the place
Where Jesus pleads above:
- 3 Sweet to look back and see my name
In life's fair book set down;
Sweet to look forward, and behold
Eternal joys my own:
- 4 Sweet to rejoice in lively hope,
That when my change shall come,
Angels shall hover round my bed,
And waft my spirit home.

DUNLAP'S CREEK. C. M.

1. Death can not make our souls a - fraid, If God be with us there;

We may walk thro' its dark - est shade, And nev - er yield to fear.

696 And Moses went up to the top, etc. (1054)

- 2 I could renounce my all below,
If my Redeemer bid;
And run, if I were called to go,
And die as Moses did.
- 3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top,
And view the promised land,
My flesh itself would long to drop,
And welcome the command.
- 4 Clasped in my heavenly Father's arms,
I would forget my breath,
And lose my life among the charms
Of so divine a death.

697 What is your life? (1055)

- 1 Life is a span—a fleeting hour;
How soon the vapor flies!
Man is a tender, transient flower
That, even in blooming, dies.
- 2 The once-loved form, now cold and dead,
Each mournful thought employs;
And nature weeps her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.
- 3 Hope looks beyond the bonds of time,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.
- 4 Cease, then, fond nature, cease thy tears;
Religion points on high;
There everlasting spring appears,
And joys that can not die.

698 Weep not. (1056)

- 1 Dear as thou wast, and justly dear,
We would not weep for thee:
One thought shall check the starting tear;
It is that thou art free.
- 2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain;
Oh who that saw thy parting hour
Could wish thee here again!
- 3 Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
Oh may such grace on us be shed,
And make our end like thine!

699 I will cause the sun to go, etc. (1058)

- 1 When blooming youth is snatched away
By death's resistless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay,
Which pity must demand.
- 2 While pity prompts the rising sigh,
Oh may this truth, impressed
With awful power, "I, too, must die,"
Sink deep in every breast.
- 3 Let this vain world engage no more;
Behold the opening tomb:
It bids us seize the present hour;
To-morrow death may come.
- 4 Oh let us fly—to Jesus fly,
Whose powerful arm can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

REST. L. M.

W. B. BRADFURY, by permission.

1. A - sleep in Je - sus! bles-sed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep—

A calm and un - dis - turbed re - pose, Un - bro-ken by the last of foes.

700 Them which sleep in Jesus. (1038)

2 Asleep in Jesus! oh how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing,
That death has lost its venom'd sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest:
No fear, no woe, shall dim the hour
That manifests the Savior's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! oh for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space
Affects this precious hiding-place;
On Indian plains, or Lapland snows,
Believers find the same repose.

6 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep.

701 Num. 23: 10. (1039)

1 How blest the righteous when he dies!
When sinks a weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently leaves the expiring breast!

2 So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

3 A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys:
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

4 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when he dies!"

702 Death of an infant. (1040)

1 As the sweet flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day—
Thus lovely seem'd the infant's dawn;
Thus swiftly fled his life away!

2 Ere sin could blight, or sorrow fade,
Death timely came with friendly care;
The opening bud to heaven convey'd,
And bade it bloom forever there.

3 He died to sin, and all its woes,
But for a moment felt the rod—
On love's triumphant wing he rose,
To rest forever with his God!

703 Death is the gate of endless joy. (1043)

1 Why should we start and fear to die?
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.

2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away;
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

3 Oh if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed!

4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

704 That I may know how frail I am. (1045)

1 Almighty Maker of my frame,
Teach me the measure of my days;
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to thy praise.

2 My days are shorter than a span;
A little point my life appears;
How frail at best is dying man!
How vain are all his hopes and fears!

3 Vain his ambition, noise, and show,
Vain are the cares which rack his mind;
He heaps up treasures mixed with woe,
And dies, and leaves them all behind.

4 Oh be a nobler portion mine;
My God, I bow before thy throne;
Earth's fleeting treasures I resign,
And fix my hope on thee alone.

705 Unvail thy bosom, faithful tomb. (1050)

1 Unvail thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Passed through the grave, and bless'd the bed;
Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne
The morning break, and pierce the shade.

4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn;
Attend, O earth, his sovereign word;
Restore thy trust; a glorious form
Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

706 The small and great are there. (1044)

1 The glories of our birth and state
Are shadows; not substantial things;
There is no armor against fate;
Death lays his icy hand on kings.

2 Princes and magistrates must fall,
And in the dust be equal made;
The high and mighty with the small,
Scepter and crown with scythe and spade.

3 The laurel withers on our brow;
Then boast no more your mighty deeds;
Upon death's purple altar now
See where the victor victim bleeds!

707 The early dead. (1042)

1 How blest are they whose transient years
Pass like an evening meteor's flight:
Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears:
Whose course is short, unclouded, bright.

2 Oh, cheerless were our lengthened way:
But heaven's own light dispels the gloom,
Streams downward from eternal day,
And casts a glory round the tomb.

3 Oh, stay thy tears; the blest above
Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth,
And sung a song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on earth?

708 I will fear no evil. (1047)

1 Though I walk through the gloomy vale,
Where death and all its terrors are,
My heart and hope shall never fail,
For God my shepherd's with me there.

2 Amid the darkness and the deeps,
Thou art my comfort, thou my stay;
Thy staff supports my feeble steps,
Thy rod directs my doubtful way.

BANKOKE. S. M.

1. Go to thy rest, fair child! Go to thy dream-less bed;

While yet so gen-tle, un-de-filed, With blessings on thy head.

709 Go to thy rest, fair child. (1069)

2 Fresh roses in thy hand,
Buds on thy pillow laid,
Haste from this dark and fearful land,
Where flowers so quickly fade.

3 Before thy heart had learned,
In waywardness to stray;
Before thy feet had ever turned
The dark and downward way;

4 Ere sin had seared the breast,
Or sorrow woke the tear;
Rise to thy throne of changeless rest,
In yon celestial sphere.

5 Because thy smile was fair,
Thy lip and eye so bright,
Because thy loving cradle care
Was such a dear delight;

6 Shall love, with weak embrace,
Thy upward wing detain?
No! gentle angel, seek thy place
Amid the cherub train.

710 Your fathers, where are they? (1067)

1 Our fathers! where are they,
With all they called their own?
Their joys and griefs, their hopes and cares,
Their wealth and honor, gone!

2 But joy or grief succeeds,
Beyond our mortal thought,
While still the remnant of their dust
Lies in the grave, forgot.

3 God of our fathers, hear,
Thou everlasting Friend,
While we, as on life's utmost verge,
Our souls to thee commend.

711 Inheritance of the saints in light. (1133)

1 And is there, Lord, a rest
For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
Or sorrow entrance find?

2 Is there a blissful home,
Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat?

3 Are there bright, happy fields,
Where naught that blooms shall die;
Where each new scene fresh pleasure yields,
And healthful breezes sigh?

4 Are there celestial streams,
Where living waters glide,
With murmurs sweet as angel dreams,
And flowery banks beside?

5 Forever blessed they
Whose joyful feet shall stand,
While endless ages waste away,
Amid that glorious land!

6 My soul would thither tend
While toilsome years are given;
Then let me, gracious Lord, ascend
To sweet repose in heaven!

712 A soldier of renown. (1073)

- 2 Fallen—while cheering with his voice
The sacramental host,
With banners floating on the air—
Death found him at his post;
In life's high prime the warfare closed,
But not ingloriously;
He fell beyond the outer wall,
And shouted, victory!
- 3 Fallen—a holy man of God,
An Israelite indeed,
A standard-bearer of the cross,
Mighty in word and deed—
A master spirit of the age,
A bright and burning light,
Whose beams across the firmament
Scattered the clouds of night.
- 4 Fallen—as sets the sun at eve,
To rise in splendor where
His kindred luminaries shine,
Their heaven of bliss to share;
Beyond the stormy battle-field
He reigns in triumph now,
Sweeping a harp of wondrous song,
With glory on his brow!

713 Help thou mine unbelief. (869)

- 1 Father, when o'er our trembling hearts
Doubt's shadows gathering brood;
When faith in thee almost departs,
And gloomiest fears intrude,
Forsake us not, O God of grace,
But send those fears relief;
Grant us again to see thy face;
Lord, help our unbelief.
- 2 When sorrow comes, and joys are flown,
And fondest hopes are dead,
And blessings, long esteemed our own,
Are now forever fled—
When the bright promise of our spring
Is but a withering leaf—
Lord, to thy truth still let us cling;
Help thou our unbelief.
- 3 And when the powers of nature fail
Upon the couch of pain,
Nor love, nor friendship can avail
The spirit to detain;
Then, Father, be our closing eyes
Undimmed by tears of grief,
And, if a trembling doubt arise,
Help thou our unbelief.

ORIEL. L. M., or 8s &amp; 4.

W. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. There is a calm for those who weep, A rest for weary pilgrims found;
They softly lie, and sweetly sleep, Low in the ground, Low in the ground.

716 There remaineth a rest. (1086)

2 The storm that racks the wintery sky
No more disturbs their deep repose,
Than summer evening's latest sigh,
That shuts the rose.

3 Thou traveler in this vale of tears,
To realms of everlasting light,
Through time's dark wilderness of years,
Pursue thy flight.

4 Whate'er thy lot—whate'er thou be—
Confess thy folly—kiss the rod;
And in thy chastening sorrows see
The hand of God.

5 Though long of winds and waves the sport,
Condemned in wretchedness to roam,
Thou soon shall reach a sheltering port,
A quiet home.

717 In the night watches. (980)

1 In silence of the voiceless night,
When chased by dreams, the slumbers flee,
Whom, in the darkness, do I seek,
O God, but thee?

2 And if there weigh upon my breast
Vague memories of the day foregone,
Scarce knowing why, I fly to thee,
And lay them down.

3 Or, if it be the gloom that comes,
In token of impending ill,
My bosom heeds not what it is,
Since 't is thy will.

4 For, O! in spite of constant care,
Or aught beside, how joyfully
I pass that solitary hour,
My God, with thee!

5 More tranquil than the stilly night,
More peaceful than the voiceless hour,
Supremely blest, my bosom lies
Beneath thy power.

6 For what on earth can I desire,
Of all it hath to offer me?
Or whom in heaven do I seek,
O God, but thee?

718 Psalm 69: 15. (995)

1 God of my life, to thee I call;
Afflicted at thy feet I fall;
When the great water floods prevail
Leave not my trembling heart to fail.

2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
Where should I lodge my deep complaint?
Where, but with thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?

3 He who has helped me hitherto,
Will help me all the journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise
New trophies to his endless praise.

4 Though rough and thorny be the road,
It leads thee home, apace, to God;
Then count thy present trials small,
For heaven will make amends for all.

GO TO THE GRAVE. 10s. (New.)

T. J. COOK.

1. { Go to the grave in all thy glo-ri-ous prime, In full ac-tiv-i-har-vest task is done; The Lord's ap-point-ment is the ser-vant's hour.

 Sol-dier, go home; with thee the fight is won.

719His eye was not dim, etc.*

(1082)

- 3 Go to the grave; for thee thy Savior lay
 In death's embrace, ere he arose on high;
 And all the ransomed, by that narrow way,
 Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave—no; take thy seat above;
 Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord,
 Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love,
 And open vision for the written word.

720Faint, yet pursuing.*

(843)

- 1 My feet are worn and weary with the march
 O'er the rough road, and up the steep hillside;
 O city of our God! I fain would see
 Thy pastures green, where peaceful waters glide.
- 2 My hands are worn and weary toiling on,
 Day after day, for perishable meat;
 O city of our God! I fain would rest—
 I sigh to gain thy glorious mercy-seat.
- 3 My garments, travel-worn and stained with dust,
 Oft rent by briars and thorns that crowd my way,
 Would fain be made, O Lord, my righteousness!
 Spotless and white in heaven's unclouded ray.
- 4 My eyes are weary looking at the sin,
 Impiety, and scorn upon the earth;
 O city of our God! within thy walls
 All—all are clothed again with thy new birth.
- 5 My heart is weary of its own deep sin—
 Sinning, repenting, sinning still again;
 When shall my soul thy glorious presence feel,
 And find, dear Savior, it is free from stain? (Concluded on p. 263.)

ALL'S WELL. 8s &amp; 3s.

My sins are par - doned, pardoned, I am free; All is well! All is well!

If this be death, I soon shall be From ev - ery pain and sor - row free; I
There's not a cloud that doth a - rise, To hide my Sa - vior from my eyes; I

FAINT, YET PURSUING. (Concluded from p. 262.)

- 6 Patience, poor soul! the Savior's feet were worn;
The Savior's heart and hands were weary, too;
His garments stained, and travel-worn, and old;
His vision blinded with a pitying dew.
- 7 Love thou the path of sorrow that he trod;
Toil on, and wait in patience for thy rest:
O city of our God! we soon shall see
Thy glorious walls—home of the loved and blest!

3 By him who bowed to take
 The death cup for our sake,
 The thorn, the rod—
 From whom the last dismay
 Was not to pass away—
 Aid us, O God!

Forsake me not.

(1087)

4 Trembling beside the grave,
 We call on thee to save,
 Father divine;
 Hear, hear our suppliant breath;
 Keep us, in life and death,
 Thine, only thine.

2 Go to thy peaceful rest;
For thee we need not weep,
Since thou art now among the blest—
No more by sin and sorrow pressed,
But hushed in quiet sleep.

3 Go to thy rest; and while
Thy absence we deplore,
One thought our sorrow shall beguile;
For soon, with a celestial smile,
We meet to part no more.

2 When the trump of God calls.
When the last of foes falls;
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
To see the saints raised from the dead,
And all together gathered,
And made like to their glorious Head,
When the King of kings comes.

3 When the foe's distress comes,
When the church's rest comes;
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
To see the New Jerusalem,
Its fullness and its matchless frame,
Surpassing all report and fame,
When the King of kings comes.

4 When the world's course is run,
When the judgment is begun!
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes
To see the sons of God well known,
All spotted to their Father shown,
And Jesus all his brethren own,
When the King of kings comes.

5 When our Lord in clouds comes,
When he with great power comes;
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
To see all things by him restored,
And God himself alone adored,
By all the saints with one accord,
When the King of kings comes.

WE WAIT FOR THEE. (New.)

T. E. PERKINS.

1st time. 2d time.

1. We wait for thee, all glorious One, We look for thine appearing, } We bear thy name, and on the throne } We see thy presence [cheering,
 2. We wait for thee, thro' days forlorn, In patient self-denial; } We know that thou our grief last borne, } Upon thy cross of tri-al.

Faith even now Uplifts its brow, And sees the Lord descending, And with him bliss unending.
 And well may we Submit with thee To bear the cross and love it, Until thy hand remove it.

730

That blessed hope.

(1105)

3 We wait for thee; already thou
 Hast all our heart's submission;
 And, though the spirit sees thee now,
 We long for open vision;
 When ours shall be
 Sweet rest with thee,
 And pure, unfading pleasure,
 And life in endless measure.

4 We wait for thee in certain hope—
 The time will soon be over;
 With child-like longing we look up,
 The glory to discover.
 Oh, bliss! to share
 Thy triumph there,
 When home, with joy and singing,
 The Lord his saints is bringing!

COME, THOU MIGHTY SAVIOR. (New.)

T. E. PERKINS.

731

We look for thine appearing.

(598)

3 May every heart with gladness,
 Thine offered grace receiving,
 Now cease from sin,
 And, pure within,
 Have peace, in thee believing.

4 Then when thou com'st to judgment,
 On flying clouds descending,
 May we rejoice
 When, at thy voice,
 The solid earth is rending.

JUDGMENT HYMN. L. M.

LUTHER.

732 The day of the Lord will come. (1106)

2 The Lord will come, but not the same
As once in lowly form he came;
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.

3 The Lord will come—a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind.

4 While sinners in despair shall call,
"Rocks, hide us! mountains, on us fall!"
The saints, ascending from the tomb,
Shall joyful sing—"The Lord is come!"

733 Public humiliation. (1255)

1 Great maker of unnumbered worlds,
And whom unnumbered worlds adore,
Whose goodness all thy creatures share,
While nature trembles at thy power,—

2 Thine is the hand that moves the spheres,
That wakes the wind, and lifts the sea;
And man who moves, the lord of earth,
Acts but the part assigned by thee.

3 While suppliant crowds implore thy aid,
To thee we raise the humble cry;
Thy altar is the contrite heart,
Thy incense the repentant sigh.

4 Oh may our land, in this her hour,
Confess thy hand and bless the rod,
By penitence make thee her Friend,
And find in thee a guardian God.

734 The great day of his wrath. (1107)

1 That day of wrath! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?

2 When shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll;
When, louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead;

3 Oh, on that day, that dreadful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O God, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

735 The Lord reigneth. (28)

1 Jehovah reigns; his throne is high;
His robes are light and majesty;
His glory shines with beams so bright
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe;
His justice guards his holy law;
His love reveals a smiling face;
His truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Through all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs;
His power is sovereign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of his will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my father and my friend?
Then let my songs with angels join:
Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

THATCHER. S. M.

W. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

1. In ex - pect - a - tion sweet, We wait, and sing, and pray,
Till Christ's tri - umph - al car we meet, And see an end - less day.

736 And to wait for his Son, etc. (1109)

2 He comes! the Conqueror comes!
Death falls beneath his sword;
The joyful prisoners burst their tombs,
And rise to meet their Lord.

3 The trumpet sounds—Awake!
Ye dead, to judgment come!
The pillars of creation shake,
While hell receives her doom.

4 Thrice happy morn for those
Who love the ways of peace;
No night of sorrow e'er shall close
Upon its perfect bliss.

737 Awake and sing, etc. (1110)

1 Rest for the toiling hand,
Rest for the anxious brow,
Rest for the weary, way-worn feet,
Rest from all labor now;

2 Soon shall the trump of God
Give out the welcome sound
That shakes thy silent chamber-walls,
And breaks the turf-sealed ground.

3 Ye dwellers in the dust,
Awake! come forth and sing;
Sharp has your frost of winter been,
But bright shall be your spring.

4 'T was sown in weakness here;
'T will then be raised in power;
That which was sown an earthly seed
Shall rise a heavenly flower.

738 A morning without clouds. (1184)

1 See how the rising sun
Pursues his shining way;
And wide proclaims his Maker's praise
With every brightening ray.

2 Thus would my rising soul
Its heavenly parent sing;
And to its great Original
An humble tribute bring.

3 Oh may I grateful use
The blessings I receive!
And ne'er in thought, in word, or deed,
His Holy Spirit grieve.

739 I will sing of thy mercy, etc. (1185)

1 The morning light returns,
The sun begins to shine;
Now let our souls in haste arise,
To run the race divine.

2 We praise the Father's love,
Who kept us through the night;
Oh may his kindness be our song,
His pleasure our delight!

3 While passing through this day,
Lord, we implore thy care,
To guide us on the heavenly way,
And guard from every snare.

4 And when our life shall close,
Oh may it be in peace!
May we lie down in sweet repose,
And wake in endless bliss.

THE CHARIOT. 11s & 12s.

J. WILLIAMS.

1. The chariot! the chariot! its wheels roll in fire;
 As the Lord cometh down in the pomp of his ire;
 2. The glory! the glory! around him are poured
 Mighty hosts of the angels that wait on the Lord;

Lo! self-moving, it drives on its pathway of cloud;
 And the heavens with the burden of God-head are bowed.
 And the glorified saints, and the martyrs are there,
 And there, all who the palm-wreaths of victory wear.

740

At the last trump.

(1111)

3 The trumpet! the trumpet! the dead have all heard;
 Lo! the depths of the stone-covered charnel are stirred!
 From the sea, from the earth, from the south, from the north,
 All the vast generations of men are come forth.

4 The judgment! the judgment! the thrones are all set,
 Where the Lamb and the bright-crowned elders are met!
 There all flesh is at once in the sight of the Lord,
 And the doom of eternity hangs on his word.

VICTORY. 8s & 7s, Peculiar. (New.)

O. A. BARTHOLOMEW.

I. Lo; the seal of death is breaking; Those who slept its sleep are waking;
 [Heaven opes its portals fair!

Hark! the harps of God are ringing; Hark! the seraph's hymn is flinging
 [Music on im-mor-tal air.

741

He will swallow up death in victory.

(1112)

2 There, no more at eve declining,
 Suns without a cloud are shining
 O'er the land of life and love;

There the founts of life are flowing,
 Flowers unknown to time are blowing,
 In that radiant scene above.

BREST. 8s, 7s &amp; 4.

1. Day of judgment, day of wonders! Hark! the trumpet's awful sound, Louder than a thousand thunders, Shakes the vast creation round!

How the summus Will the sinner's heart confound!

742 Every eye shall see him. (1117)

- 2 See the Judge, our nature wearing,
Clothed in majesty divine!
You who long for his appearing,
Then shall say, "This Lord is mine!"
Gracious Savior,
Own me, in that day, for thine!
- 3 At his call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea;
All the powers of nature, shaken
By his looks, prepare to flee:
Careless sinner,
What will then become of thee?
- 4 Horrors past imagination
Will surprise your trembling heart,
When you hear your condemnation—
"Hence, accursed wretch! depart!
Hence, with Satan
And his angels have your part."
- 5 But to those who have confessed,
Loved, and served the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, you blessed;
See the kingdom I bestow:
You forever
Shall my love and glory know."
- 6 Under sorrows and reproaches,
May this thought our courage raise!
Swiftly God's great day approaches;
Sighs shall then be changed to praise:
May we triumph,
When the world is in a blaze!

743 Behold, he cometh with clouds. (1104)

- 1 Lo! he comes, with clouds descending,
Once for favored sinners slain,
Thousand thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train!
Hallelujah!
Jesus now shall ever reign!
- 2 Every eye shall now behold him
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.
- 3 Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heaven and earth, shall flee away;
All who hate him, must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day,
Come to judgment!
Come to judgment! come away!
- 4 Now redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear!
All his saints by man rejected
Now shall meet him in the air:
Hallelujah!
See the day of God appear!
- 5 Lord, thy Bride says by thy Spirit,
Hasten thou the general doom!
Promised glory to inherit,
Take thy weary pilgrims home!
All creation
Travails, groans, and bids thee come.

MERIBAH. C. P. M.

Dr. L. MASON.

744 That he may find mercy, etc. (1114)

2 I love to meet thy people now,
Before thy feet with them to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But—can I bear the piercing thought—
What if my name should be left out
When thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace:
Be thou my only hiding-place,
In this, the accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 And when the final trump shall sound,
Among thy saints let me be found,
To bow before thy face;
Then in triumphant strains I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With praise of sovereign grace.

745 Christ our only hope. (363)

1 Desponding soul, oh cease thy woe;
Dry up thy tears; to Jesus go,
In faith's appointed way;
Let not thy unbelieving fears
Still hold thee back—thy Savior hears—
From him no longer stay.

2 No works of thine can e'er impart
A balm to heal thy wounded heart,
Or solid comfort give;
Turn, then, to him who freely gave
His precious blood thy soul to save;
E'en now he bids thee live.

3 Helpless and lost, to Jesus fly!
His power and love are ever nigh
To those who seek his face;
Thy deepest guilt on him was laid;
He bore thy sins, thy ransom paid;
Oh, haste to share his grace.

746 They desire a better country. (1061)

1 How happy is the pilgrim's lot!
How free from every anxious thought
From worldly hope and fear!
Confined to neither court nor cell,
His soul disdains on earth to dwell—
He only sojourns here.

2 This happiness in part is mine,
Already saved from low design,
From every creature-love;
Blest with the scorn of finite good,
My soul is lightened of its load,
And seeks the things above.

3 There is my house and portion fair;
My treasure and my heart are there,
And my abiding home;
For me my elder brethren stay,
And angels beckon me away,
And Jesus bids me come.

4 I come, thy servant, Lord, replies;
I come to meet thee in the skies,
And claim my heavenly rest!
Soon will the pilgrim's journey end;
Then, oh my Savior, Brother, Friend,
Receive me to thy breast!

DOOM. 11s &amp; 5s. (New.)

J. ZUNDEL.

1. Ah, guilty sinner, ruined by transgression, What shall thy doom be, when, arrayed in [terror,

God shall command thee, covered with pollution, Up to the judgment? Up to the judgment?

747Where shall the ungodly, etc.*

(1118)

2 Stop, thoughtless sinner, stop awhile and ponder,
Ere death arrest thee, and the Judge, in vengeance,
Hurl from his presence thy affrighted spirit,
Swift to perdition.

3 Oft has he called thee, but thou wouldst not hear him;
Mercies and judgments have alike been slighted;
Yet he is gracious, and, with arms unfolded,
Waits to embrace thee.

4 Come, then, poor sinner, come away this moment,
Just as you are, come, filthy and polluted,
Come to the fountain open for the guilty;
Jesus invites you.

5 But if you trifle with his gracious message,
Cleave to the world and love its guilty pleasures,
Mercy, grown weary, shall, in righteous judgment,
Leave you forever.

6 O guilty sinner! hear the voice of warning;
Fly to the Savior, and embrace his pardon;
So shall your spirit meet, with joy triumphant,
Death and the judgment.

On my soul thy beams display;
Sweeter than the smiling morn,
Let thy cheering light return.

1. On Zi-on's glorious summit stood A numerous host redeemed by blood;
2. Here all who suffered sword or flame For truth, or Je - sus' love-ly name,

They hymned their King in strains divine: I heard the song, and strove to join.
Shout vic - tory now, and hail the Lamb, And bow be - fore the great I AM.

751 Rev. 14: 1-3. (1120)

3 While everlasting ages roll,
Eternal love shall feast their soul,
And scenes of bliss, forever new,
Rise in succession to their view.
4 Oh sweet employ! to sing and trace
The amazing heights and depths of grace;
And spend, from sin and sorrow free,
A blissful, vast eternity!
5 Oh what a sweet, exalted song,
When every tribe and every tongue,
Redeemed by blood, with Christ appear,
And join in one full chorus there!
6 My soul anticipates the day—
Would stretch her wings and soar away,
To aid the song, the palm to bear,
And praise my great Redeemer there.

752 Rev. 22: 4. (1121)

1 Lo! round the throne, a glorious band,
The saints in countless myriads stand;
Of every tongue redeemed to God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood.
2 Through tribulation great they came;
They bore the cross, despised the shame;
But now from all their labors rest,
In God's eternal glory blest.

3 They see the Savior face to face;
They sing the triumph of his grace;
And day and night, with ceaseless praise,
To him their loud hosannas raise.

4 Oh may we tread the sacred road
That holy saints and martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life.

753 The former things are passed away. (1119)

1 There is a land mine eye hath seen,
In visions of enraptured thought,
So bright that all which spreads between
Is with its radiant glory fraught;

2 A land upon whose blissful shore
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no more,
And those long parted, meet again.

3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
With varying hues of shade and light;
It hath no need of suns to rise
To dissipate the gloom of night.

4 There sweeps no desolating wind
Across that calm, serene abode;
The wanderer there a home may find,
Within the paradise of God.

snow - y wings To my im - mor-tal home.

758 There is a land, a happy land. (1129)

- 1 There is a land, a happy land,
Where tears are wiped away
From every eye by God's own hand,
And night is turned to day.
- 2 There is a home, a happy home,
Where way-worn travelers rest,
Where toil and languor never come,
And every mourner's blest.
- 3 There is a port, a peaceful port,
A safe and quiet shore,
Where weary mariners resort
And fear the storms no more.
- 4 There is a crown, a dazzling crown,
Bedecked with jewels fair;
And priests and kings of high renown
That crown of glory wear.
- 5 That land be mine, that calm retreat,
That crown of glory bright;
Then I'll esteem each bitter sweet,
And every burden light.

759 Far up the everlasting hills. (1132)

- 1 There is a fold where none can stray,
And pastures ever green,
Where sultry sun, or stormy day,
Or night, is never seen.
- 2 Far up the everlasting hills,
In God's own light it lies;
His smile its vast dominion fills
With joy that never dies.
- 3 One narrow vale, one darksome wave,
Divides that land from this;
I have a Shepherd pledged to save,
And bear me home to bliss.
- 4 Soon at his feet my soul shall lie,
In life's last struggling breath;
But I shall only seem to die,
I shall not taste of death.
- 5 Far from this guilty world to be,
Exempt from toil and strife;
To spend eternity with thee—
My Savior, this is life!

Dr. L. MASON, by permission.

1. I'm but a stranger here, Heaven is my home; }
Earth is a des-ert drear, Heaven is my home; } Dan - ger and sor - row stand

Round me on ev - ery hand; Heaven is my fath - er - land—Heaven is my home.

760 Heaven is my home. (1146)

2 What though the tempests rage!

Heaven is my home;

Short is my pilgrimage;

Heaven is my home.

And time's wild wintry blast

Soon will be overpast,

I shall reach home at last;

Heaven is my home.

3 There at my Savior's side,

Heaven is my home;

I shall be glorified;

Heaven is my home.

There with the good and blest,

Those I loved most and best,

I shall forever rest;

Heaven is my home.

4 Therefore I'll murmur not;

Heaven is my home;

Whate'er my earthly lot,

Heaven is my home.

For I shall surely stand,

There at my Lord's right hand,

Heaven is my fatherland—

Heaven is my home.

761 Hebrews 11: 16. (1136)

1 Know ye that better land

Where care's unknown?

Know ye that blessed band

Around the throne?

There, there is happiness,

There, streams of purest bliss;

There, there are rest and peace—

There, there alone.

2 Yes, yes, we know that place—

We know it well;

Eye hath not seen his face,

Tongue can not tell;

There are the angels bright,

There saints enrobed in white—

All, all are clothed in light—

There, there they dwell.

3 Oh! we are weary here,

A little band,

Yet soon in glory there

We hope to stand;

Then let us haste away,

Speed o'er this world's dark way,

Unto that land of day—

That better land.

4 Come! hasten that sweet day,

Let time begone;

Come! Lord, make no delay,

On thy white throne;

Thy face we wish to see,

To dwell and reign with thee,

And thine forever be—

Thine, thine alone.

762 Who are these—and whence, etc. (1137)

- 2 These through fiery trials trod;
These from great affliction came;
Now, before the throne of God,
Sealed with his almighty name.
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their great Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.
- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed;
Them the Lamb, amidst the throne,
Shall to living fountains lead;
Joy and gladness banish sighs;
Perfect love dispels all fears;
And forever from their eyes
God shall wipe away their tears.

763 They rest from their labors. (1138)

- 1 High in yonder realms of light,
Dwell the raptured saints above;

Far beyond our feeble sight,
Happy in Immanuel's love:
Once they knew, like us below,
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
Torturing pain and heavy woe,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears.

2 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid the angelic lyres above,
Hark, their songs melodious rise,
Songs of praise to Jesus' love!
Happy spirits, ye are fled
Where no grief can entrance find,
Lulled to rest the aching head,
Soothed the anguish of the mind.

3 All is tranquil and serene,
Calm and undisturbed repose;
There no cloud can intervene,
There no angry tempest blows;
Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
Sorrow—in eternal rest.

MT. BLANC. 7s &amp; 6s, or 6s &amp; 4s.*

1. We are on our journey home, Where Christ our Lord is gone; We shall meet around
[his throne,

* Use slurs throughout for second hymn, and when necessary for first hymn.

When he makes his people one, In the new, In the new Je - ru - sa - lem.
CHORUS TO 2D HYMN.—I'm go - ing home, I'm go - ing home.
In the new Jerusalem.

764 He hath prepared for them a city. (1141)

- 2 We can see that distant home,
Though clouds rise dark between;
Faith views the radiant dome,
And a luster flashes keen
From the new Jerusalem.
- 3 O glory shining far
From the never-setting sun!
O trembling morning star!
Our journey's almost done
To the new Jerusalem.
- 4 O holy! heavenly home!
O rest eternal there!
When shall the exiles come,
Where they cease from earthly care,
In the new Jerusalem.
- 5 Our hearts are breaking now
Those mansions fair to see:
O Lord! thy heavens bow,
And raise us up with thee
To the new Jerusalem.

765 I'm going home. (1154)

- 1 I am a stranger here;
No home, no rest I see;
Not all earth counts most dear
Can win a sigh from me.
I'm going home.

- 2 Jesus, thy home is mine,
And I thy Father's child;
With hopes and joys divine,
The world's a dreary wild.
I'm going home.
- 3 Home! oh! how soft and sweet
It thrills upon the heart!
Home! where the brethren meet,
And never, never part.
I'm going home.
- 4 Home! where the Bridegroom takes
The purchase of his love:
Home! where the Father waits
To welcome saints above.
I'm going home.
- 5 Yes! when the world looks cold,
Which did my Lord revile,
A Lamb within the fold,
I can look up and smile.
I'm going home.
- 6 When earth's delusive charms
Would snare my pilgrim feet,
I fly to Jesus' arms,
And yet again repeat,
I'm going home.

Rev. 21 : 25.

(1143)

- 3 There is no grief in heaven:
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.
- 4 There is no grief in heaven:
Yet angels from on high,
On golden pinions earthward glide,
The Christian's tears to dry.
- 5 There is no want in heaven:
The Lamb of God supplies
Life's tree of twelfefold fruitage still,
Life's spring which never dries.
- 6 There is no want in heaven:
Yet in a desert land

- The fainting prophet was sustained
And fed by angel's hand.
- 7 There is no sin in heaven!
Behold that blessed throng;
All holy is their spotless robes,
All holy is their song.
- 8 There is no sin in heaven:
Here who from sin is free?
Yet angels aid us in our strife
For Christ's true liberty.
- 9 There is no death in heaven:
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.

- 1 There is a region lovelier far
Than sages tell or poets sing—
Brighter than summer's beauties are,
And softer than the tints of spring.
- CHO. I'm going home, I'm going home,
I'm going home to die no more,

- To die no more, to die no more,
I'm going home to die no more.
- 2 It is all holy and serene,
The land of glory and repose;
No cloud obscures the radiant scene;
There not a tear of sorrow flows.

BEAUTIFUL ZION. 8s. (1157) W. B. BRADBURY, by permission.

768 1. Beautiful Zi - on, built a - bove— Beauti-ful ei - ty that I love;
 2. Beautiful heaven, where all is light; Beauti-ful an - gels, clothed in white;
 3. Beauti-ful crowns on ev - ery brow; Beauti-ful palms the conquerors show,
 4. Beauti-ful throne for Christ our King, Beauti-ful songs the an - gels sing,

Beauti-ful gates of pearl-y white; Beauti-ful tem-ple—God its light;
 Beauti-ful strains that never tire, Beauti-ful harps through all the choir;
 Beauti-ful robes the ransomed wear, Beauti-ful all who en - ter there!
 Beauti-ful rest—all wanderings cease, Beauti-ful home of per-fect peace;

He who was slain on Cal - va - ry O - pens those pearly gates to me.
 There shall I join the chorus sweet, Worshiping at the Sa - vior's feet.
 Thither I press with ea - ger feet, There shall my rest be long and sweet.
 There shall my eyes the Savior see: Haste to this heavenly home with me!

PERFECT DAY. 5s & 4s. * (1148) Arranged.

769 1. No shadows yonder—All light and song; Each day I wonder, And say how long
 2. No weeping yonder—All fled a - way; While here I wander, Each weary day,
 3. No partings yonder—Time and space never Again shall sunder, Hearts can not sever,
 4. None wanting yonder—Bought by the Lamb, All gathered under The evergreen palm,

Shall time me sunder From that dear throng? Shall time me sunder From that dear throng?
 And sigh as I ponder My long, long stay; And sigh as I ponder My long, long stay.
 Dearer and fonder Hands clasped forever; Dearer and fonder Hands clasped for ever.
 Loud as night's thunder Ascends the glad psalm; Loud as night's thunder Ascends the glad

1. That clime is not like this dull clime of ours, All, all, is brightness there; }
A sweeter influence breathes around its flowers, }

Duet.
And a be-nign-er air. { No calm be-low is like that calm a-bove, }

Earth's softest spring ne'er shed so soft a light, Earth's brightest summer never shone so bright.

773

Behold, I make all things new.

(1165)

- 2 That sky is not, like this sad sky of ours,
Tinged with earth's change and care;
No shadow dims it, and no rain-cloud lowers;
No broken sunshine there:
One everlasting stretch of azure pours
Its stainless splendor o'er those sinless shores:
For there Jehovah shines with heavenly ray,
And Jesus reigns, dispensing endless day.
- 3 The dwellers there are not like those of earth,
No mortal stain they bear;
And yet they seem of kindred blood and birth;
Whence and how came they there?
Earth was their native soil, from sin and shame,
Through tribulation, they to glory came;
Bond-slaves delivered from sin's crushing load;
Brands plucked from burning by the hand of God.
- 4 You robes of theirs are not like those below;
No angel's half so bright;
Whence came that beauty, whence that living glow,
And whence that radiant white?
Washed in the blood of the atoning Lamb,
Fair as the light these robes of theirs became;
And now, all tears wiped off from every eye,
They wander where the freshest pastures lie.

COME TO THY REST. P. M.

S. J. VAIL, by permission.

1. Is it a long way off? Oh, no! a few more years, A few more bitter tears—We shall be there.
 2. O, brethren, dear, how weak, How faint and weak we are! Yet Jesus leads us far Through [tangled ways.]

Sometimes the way seems long, Our comforters all go, Woe follows after woe, Care after care.
 Into the very heart Of this dark wilderness Where dangers thickest press, And Satan strays.

Chorus.

Spread thy bright wings, and soar Spotless for evermore, Sin stained no longer, but white and forgiven; Heir of in - fi - ni - ty, Robed in di - vin - i - ty, Come a-way, hap - py one! come up to heaven! Come away, hap - py one, come up to heaven!

775

Almost home.

(1153)

3 But he is strong and wise,
 And we, his children blind,
 Must trust his gentle mind
 And tender care.
 So gentle is his love,
 We may be sure that sight
 Would show us all is right,
 And answered prayer.

4 'T is no uncertain way
 We tread, for Jesus still Leads with unerring skill
 Where'er we roam;
 And from the desert wild
 Soon shall our path emerge,
 And land us on the verge
 Of our dear home.

SHALL WE KNOW EACH OTHER THERE? (Concluded from p. 288.)

3 Yes, my earth-worn soul rejoices,
 And my weary heart grows light,
 For the sweet and cheerful voices,
 And the forms so pure and bright,
 That shall welcome us in heaven,
 Are the loved of long ago;
 And to them 't is kindly given,
 Thus their mortal friends to know.

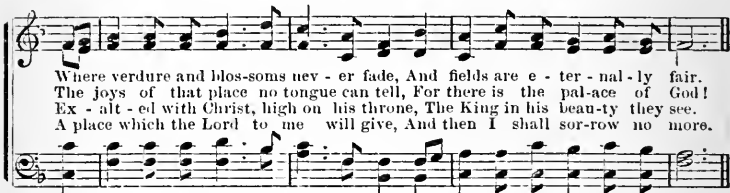

4 O ye weary, sad, and tossed ones,
 Droop not, faint not by the way;
 Ye shall join the loved and just ones
 In the land of perfect day.
 Harp-strings, touched by angel fingers,
 Murmured in my raptured ear—
 Evermore their sweet song lingers—
 We shall know each other there.

HEAVENLY FATHERLAND. 9s &amp; 8s. (New.) P. PHILLIPS.

(1159)

776 1. There is a place where my hopes are stayed, My heart and my treasure are there;
 2. There is a place where the angels dwell, A pure and a peaceful a - bode;

THE HOME IN HEAVEN. (New.)

A. SQUIRE.

1. No sickness there, No sickness there, No wea-ry wasting of the frame a - way,
2. No hidden grief, No hidden grief, No wild and cheerless vision of de-spair,

No fearful shrinking from the midnight air, No dread of summer's bright and fervid ray,
No vain pe-ti-tion for a swift re-lief, No tearful eye, no broken hearts are there.

779

The former things are passed away.

(1160)

3 Care has no home
Within that realm of ceaseless praise and song;
Its tossing billows break and melt in foam,
Far from the mansions of the spirit throng.

4 No parted friends
O'er mournful recollections have to weep!
No bed of death enduring love attends,
To watch the coming of a pulseless sleep.

5 No blasted flower
Or withered bud celestial gardens grow!
No scorching blast or fierce descending shower
Scatters destruction like a ruthless foe!

6 No battle-word
Startles the sacred host with fear and dread!
The song of peace creation's morning heard,
Is sung wherever angel minstrels tread.

7 Let us depart
If scenes like these await the weary soul!
Look up, thou stricken one! thy wounded heart
Shall bleed no more at sorrows stern control!

8 With faith our guide,
White-robed and innocent, to lead the way,
Why fear to plunge in Jordan's rolling tide,
And find the ocean of eternal day!

THE BETTER LAND. P. M. ❖

Harmonized by T. E. PERKINS.

1. I hear thee speak of the bet-ter land, Thou call-est its children a
2. Is it where the leath-er-y palm trees rise, And the date grows ripe un-der hap-py band; Moth-er! oh, where is that ra-di-ant shore, Shall we sun-ny skies, Or, 'midst the green islands of glit-ter-ing seas, Where not seek it and weep no more? { Is it where the flower of the orange blows. } fragrant forests perfume the breeze, { And the fire-flies dance in the myrtle boughs? }

{ And strange, bright birds on their starry wings }
{ Bear the rich hues of all glorious things? }

Not there, not there, not there! Not there, not there, not there!

The better land.

(115S)

3 Is it far away in some region old,
Where the rivers wander o'er sands of gold,
And the burning rays of the rubies shine,
And the diamond lights up the secret mine,
And the pearl glows forth from the coral strand?
Is it there, sweet mother, that better land?
Not there! not there!

4 Eye hath not seen it, my gentle boy,
Ear hath not heard its sweet song of joy!
Dreams can not picture a world so fair,
Sorrow and death may not enter there,
Time may not breathe on its fadeless bloom;
Far beyond the clouds and beyond the tomb!
'Tis there! 'tis there!

BEAUTIFUL WORLD. Quartet. *

Arranged from the "Oriola," by Miss BETTIE WILSON.

1. We're going home, we've had visions bright Of that holy land, that world of light, }
 Where the long, dark night of time is past, And the morn of eternity dawns at last; }
 2. We're go-ing home, we soon shall be Where the sky is clear, and all are free, }
 Where the victor's song floats o'er the plains, And the seraph's anthems blend with its } [strains;

Where the weary saint no more shall roam, But dwell in a hap-py, peaceful home;
 Where the brow with sparkling gems is crowned, And the waves of bliss are flowing round.
 Where the sun rolls down its brilliant flood, And beams on a world that is fair and good;
 Where stars, once dimmed at nature's doom, Will ever shine o'er the new earth's bloom.

Chorus.

Oh, that beautiful world, that beautiful world, That beautiful world shall be my home.

786

That beautiful world.

(1161)

3 'Mid the ransomed throng, 'mid the seas of bliss,
 'Mid the holy city's gorgeousness;
 'Mid the verdant plains, 'mid angels' cheer,
 'Mid the saints that round the throne appear;
 Where the conqueror's song, as it sounds afar,
 Is wafted on the ambrosial air;
 Through endless years we then shall prove
 The worth of a Savior's matchless love.
 Oh, that beautiful world! that beautiful world, etc.

Sing to me of heaven, Key G Minor.

(1134)

1 I love to think of heaven,
 Where white-robed angels are,
 Where many a friend is gathered, safe
 From fear, and toil, and care.
 2 I love to think of heaven,
 Where my Redeemer reigns,
 Where rapturous songs of triumph rise,
 In endless, joyous strains.

3 I love to think of heaven,
 The saints' eternal home,
 Where palms, and robes, and crowns ne'er fade,
 And all our joys are one.
 4 I love to think of heaven,
 The greetings there we'll meet,
 The harps—the songs forever ours—
 The walks—the golden streets.

 For I may now be nearer home,
 Much nearer than I think.

AUTUMN. 8s &amp; 7s.

LUDOVICH NICHOLSON.

1. Faint-ly flow, thou fall-ing riv-er, Like a dream that dies a-way;
Down to o-cean gli-ding ev-er, Keep thy calm, un-ruf-fled way:
D. S. To e-ter-ni-ty's dark o-cean, Burying all its treas-ure there.

Fine

D. S.
Time, with such a si-lent mo-tion, Floats a-long on wing's of air,

790 Fleeting moments. (1205)

2 Roses bloom, and then they wither;
Cheeks are bright, then fade and die;
Shapes of life are wafted hither,
Then, like visions, hurry by;
Quick as clouds at evening driven
O'er the many-colored west,
Years are bearing us to heaven—
Home of happiness and rest.

791 Savior! breathe, etc. (1202)

1 Savior! breathe an evening blessing.
Ere repose our eyelids seal;
Sin and want, we come confessing;
Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.
Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel-guards from thee surround us—
We are safe, if thou art nigh.

2 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from thee:
Thou art he who, never weary,
Watcheth where thy people be.
Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

792 Psalm 126: 6. (969)

1 He that goeth forth with weeping,
Bearing precious seed in love,
Never tiring, never sleeping,
Findeth mercy from above.
Soft descend the dews of heaven;
Bright the rays celestial shine;
Precious fruits will thus be given,
Through the influence all divine.

2 Sow thy seed; be never weary;
Let no fears thy soul annoy;
Be the prospect ne'er so dreary,
Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.
Lo! the scene of verdure brightening,
In the rising grain appear;
Look again, the fields are whitening,
For the harvest-time is near.

793 For old age. (1227)

Gracious Source of every blessing!
Guard our breast from anxious fears;
Let us, each thy care possessing,
Sink into the vale of years.
All our hopes on thee reclining,
Peace companion of our way,
May our sun, in smiles declining,
Rise in everlasting day.

794 While I was musing. (1204)

- 3 Living in the silent hours,
Where our spirits only blend—
They, unlinked with earthly trouble ;
We, still hoping for its end.
- 4 How such holy memories cluster,
Like the stars when storms are past ;
Pointing up to that far heaven
We may hope to gain at last !

795 Abide with us. (1203)

- 1 Tarry with me, O my Savior,
For the day is passing by !
See the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.
- 2 Many friends were gathered round me,
In the bright days of the past ;
But the grave has closed above them,
And I linger here at last.
- 3 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows ;
Paler now the glowing west ;
Swift the night of death advances ;
Shall it be the night of rest ?
- 4 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on thee ;
Tarry with me through the darkness !
While I sleep, still watch by me.
- 5 Tarry with me, O my Savior !
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning ; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest !

796 A child's prayer. (1207)

- 1 Jesus, tender Shepherd, hear me ;
Bless thy little lamb to-night ;
Through the darkness be thou near me ;
Keep me safe till morning light.
- 2 All this day thy hand has led me,
And I thank thee for thy care ;
Thou hast clothed me, warmed me, led me,
Listen to my evening prayer !
- 3 May my sins be all forgiven ;
Bless the friends I love so well ;
Take me, when I die, to heaven,
Happy there with thee to dwell.

797 From my youth up. (1218)

- 1 Lord, a little band, and lowly,
We are come to sing to thee ;
Thou art great, and high, and holy,
Oh how solemn should we be !
- 2 Fill our hearts with thoughts of Jesus,
And of heaven, where he is gone ;
And let nothing ever please us
He would grieve to look upon.
- 3 For we know the Lord of glory
Always sees what children do,
And is writing now the story
Of our thoughts and actions too.
- 4 Let our sins be all forgiven ;
Make us fear what'er is wrong ;
Lead us on our way to heaven,
There to sing a nobler song.

For all who are washed and forgiven,
And many dear children are gathering there—
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

ABIDE WITH ME. 10s.

English.

1. Abide with me! fast falls the eventide; The darkness thickens; Lord, with me abide!

When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless! oh, abide with me!

807

Abide with me.

(1227)

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou! who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, oh abide with me!

4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord! abide with me.

Shout the tidings of salvation.

(1276)

3 Shout the tidings of salvation,
Mingling with the ocean's roar,
Till the ships of every nation
Bear the news from shore to shore.

4 Shout the tidings of salvation
O'er the islands of the sea,
Till, in humble adoration,
All to Christ shall bow the knee.

WINCHESTER. L. M. (Concluded from p. 306.)

2 Here let thy holy days be kept;
And be this place to worship given,
Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
The house of God, the gate of heaven.

3 Here may thine honor dwell; and here,
As incense, let thy children's prayer,
From contrite hearts and lips sincere,
Rise on the still and holy air.

4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung;
Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
As when, of old, thy Spirit hung,
On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.

5 And when the lips, that with thy name
Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
On others may devotion's flame
Be kindled here, and purely burn!

Through life's perplexing road;
And place us, when that journey's o'er,
At thy right hand, O God!

812 Harvest-Home. (1236)

2 We ourselves are God's own field,
 Fruit unto his praise to yield;
 Wheat and tares together sown,
 Unto joy our sorrow grown:
 First the blade, and then the ear,
 Then the full corn shall appear:
 Lord of harvest, grant that we
 Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take his harvest home!
 From his field shall purge away
 All that doth offend, that day:
 Give his angels charge at last
 In the fires the tares to cast,
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church triumphant, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-home!
 All are safely gathered in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin;
 There forever, purified,
 In God's garner to abide;
 Come, ten thousand angels, come,
 Raise the glorious Harvest-home!

813 Praise for deliverance and peace. (1247)

1 Peace! the welcome sound proclaim;
 Dwell with rapture on the theme;
 Loud, still louder swell the strain;
 Peace on earth, good-will to men!

Breezes, whispering soft and low,
 Gently murmur as ye blow,
 Now, when war and discord cease,
 Praises to the God of peace.

2 Ocean's billows, far and wide,
 Rolling in majestic pride!
 Loud, still louder swell the strain;
 Peace on earth, good-will to men!
 Vocal songsters of the grove,
 Sweetly chant in notes of love,
 Now, when war and discord cease,
 Praises to the God of peace.

814 Guide us, Lord. (745)

1 Guide us, Lord, while, hand in hand,
 Journeying toward the better land;
 Foes we know are to be met,
 Snares the pilgrim's path beset;
 Clouds upon the valley rest,
 Rough and dark the mountain's breast;
 And our home can not be gained,
 Save through trials well sustained.

2 Guide us while we onward move,
 Linked in closest bonds of love,
 Striving for the holy mind,
 And the soul from sense refined;
 That when life no longer burns,
 And the dust to dust returns,
 With the strength which thou hast given,
 We may rise to thee and heaven.

Watch and pray.

(1224)

3 Thou aged man, life's wintry storm
Hath seared thy vernal bloom;
With trembling limbs, and wasting form,
Thou 'rt bending o'er the tomb;
And can vain hope lead thee astray?
Go, weary pilgrim, watch and pray.

4 Ambition, stop thy panting breath;
Pride, sink thy lifted eye!
Behold the caverns, dark with death,
Before you open lie!
The heavenly warning now obey;
Ye sons of pride, go watch and pray.

THANKSGIVING. 13s &amp; 14s. (New.)

A. SQUIRE.

1. When spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil, When summer's balmy show-ers re - fresh the mower's toil; When win-ter binds in frost - y chains the fallow and the flood, In God the earth re-joic-eth still, and owns its Maker good.

820

(1238)

2 The birds that wake the morning, and those that love the shade;
The winds that sweep the mountain, or lull the drowsy glade;
The sun that from his amber bower rejoiceth on his way,
The moon and stars their Maker's name in silent pomp display.

3 Shall man, the lord of nature, expectant of the sky—
Shall man, alone unthankful, his little praise deny!
No; let the year forsake his course, the seasons cease to be,
Thee, Father, must we always love—Creator! honor thee.

4 The flowers of spring may wither, the hope of summer fade,
The autumn droop in winter, the bird forsake the shade;
The winds be lulled—the sun and moon forget their old decree;
But we, in nature's latest hour, O Lord, will cling to thee!

I COME TO THEE. P. M. (Concluded from p. 312.)

4 Father! my soul would be
Pure as the drops of ere's unsullied dew—
And as the stars whose nightly course is true,
So would I be to thee.

5 Not for myself alone
Would I the blessings of thy love implore;
But for each penitent the wide earth o'er,
Whom thou hast called thine own.

6 And for my heart's best friends,
Whose steadfast kindness o'er my painful years
Has watched, to soothe the affliction's griefs and tears,
My warmest prayer ascends.

7 And now, O Father! take
The heart I cast with humble faith on thee,
And cleanse its depths from each impurity,
For my Redeemer's sake.

MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s &amp; 6s.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down their golden sand. From many an an-cient riv - er, From many a palmy plain, They call us to de - liv - er Their land from error's chain.

825 Missionary hymn. (1285)

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle—
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile!
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strewn;
The heathen, in their blindness,
Bow down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
By wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to man benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! oh salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft—waft, you winds, his story,
And you, you waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till, o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

826 The fields are white already, etc. (476)

1 Ho, reapers of life's harvest,
Why stand with rusted blade,
Until the night draws round thee,
And day begins to fade?
Why stand ye idle, waiting
For reapers more to come?
The golden morn is passing,
Why sit ye idle, dumb?

2 Thrust in your sharpened sickle,
And gather in the grain;
The night is fast approaching,
And soon will come again.
Thy Master calls for reapers;
And shall he call in vain?
Shall sheaves lie there ungathered,
And waste upon the plain?

3 Come down from hill and mountain,
In morning's ruddy glow,
Nor wait until the dial
Points to the noon below;
And come with the strong sinew,
Nor faint in heat or cold;
And pause not till the evening
Draws round its wealth of gold.

THE CHORUS OF ANGELS, No. 2. (New.)

A. SQUIRE.

1. Hark! what joyful notes are swelling On the quiet mid-night air!
 'Tis the voice of an-gels tell-ing, }
 2. See all darkness dis-ap-pear-ing, As the Star be-gins to rise! }
 Sin and death stand trembling, fearing, }

Jesus comes our sins to bear! Now the music, in its gladness, Breaks and swells and glides a-
 As the light falls on their eyes; Now, again the earth rejoices, Satan's powerful kingdom long! Now, earth, waking from her sadness, Joins the cho-rus of the song!

 shakes, As from all the heavenly voice-es, Loud-er still the cho-rus breaks!

Chorus.

Glo-ry in the high-est heav-en! Peace on earth, good will to man!

CHORUS TO LAST VERSE.

Glo-ry in the high-est heav-en! Sound a-loud the joy-ful strain!

Let all praise to God be given, For re-dem-p-tion's glo-ri-ous plan.

Glo-ry to the Lamb be-giv'n, Who for sin-ners once was slain.

827

Chorus of the angels.

(134)

3 Rise and shine, Star of Salvation!
 Spread thy beams o'er all the earth,
 Till each distant land and nation
 Owns and speaks thy matchless worth
 Till all tongues, thy praises singing,
 Shall thy mighty wonders tell!
 Till all heaven with joy is ringing,
 As our hearts the chorus swell!

4 When our days on earth are ended,
 And we rise to worlds above,
 Then our songs shall all be blended
 In one song of pardoning love!
 Then we'll tell the wondrous story,
 And our blessed Lord adore,
 In our home of bliss and glory
 We shall sing for evermore!

838 1. Je - sus, my all, to heaven has gone, I am bound for the land of Canaan; }
He whom I fix my hopes up - on, I am bound for the land of Canaan. }
2. His path I see, and I'll pur - sue, I am bound for the land of Canaan; }
The nar - row way till him I view, I am bound for the land of Canaan. }
D. C. Oh Canaan is my hap - py home, I am bound for the land of Canaan.

Chorus. Oh Ca - naan, bright Ca - naan, I am bound for the land of Ca-naan : D. C.

MOZART. 8s &amp; 7s.

(923)

Arr. from MOZART.

839 Jesus, I my cross have taken, All to leave and follow thee; I am poor, despis'd, forsaken;
D. S. Yet how rich is my condition—

Fine. Thou henceforth my all shalt be: Perish every fond ambition, All I've sought, or hoped,
God and heaven are still my own! [or known:]

GREENVILLE. 8s & 7s, Double.

(316)

Fine.

840 1. I hear, O sin-ner! mer-cy hails you, Now with sweetest voice she calls; }
 Bids you haste to seek the Sav-ior, Ere the hand of jus-tice falls. }
 D. C. Trust in Je-sus, trust in Je-sus, 'Tis the voice of mer-cy calls. }
 2. Haste, O sin-ner! to the Sav-ior, Seek his mer-cy, while you may; }
 Soon the day of grace is o-ver, Soon your life will pass a-way. }
 D. C. Haste to Je-sus, haste to Je-sus, You must per-ish if you stay. }

D. C.
 Trust in Je-sus, trust in Je-sus, 'Tis the voice of mer-cy calls;
 Haste to Je-sus, haste to Je-sus, You must per-ish if you stay;

I LOVE JESUS.

(660)

Arranged by T. E. PERKINS.

841 Oh thou Fount of ev'-ry bless-ing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace; }
 Streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, Call for songs of loudest praise. }

I love Je-sus, Hal-le-lu-jah! I love Je-sus, yes I do;

I do love Je-sus, he's my Sav-ior, Je-sus smiles and loves me too.

CHORUS. (To be sung after any suitable hymn, in Key A, A<sub>b</sub>, or G.)

842 Oh how I love Jesus, Oh how I love Jesus, Oh how I love Jesus, Because he first loved me.

LEANDER. C. M., Double.*

Go on, you pilgrims, while be - low, In the sure path of peace, Determined nothing else to know But Je - sus and his grace. Oh - serve your leader,
 D. S. Did ne'er re - vile a - gain. Fine. fol - low him ; He through this world has been Of - ten rev - iled ; but, like a lamb, D. S.

843

Go on, you pilgrims.

(486)

2 Oh, take the pattern he has given,
 And love your enemies ;
 And learn the only way to heaven
 Through self-denial lies.
 Remember, you must watch and pray
 While journeying on the road,
 Lest you should fall out by the way,
 And wound the cause of God.

3 Go on, rejoicing night and day ;
 Your crown is yet before,
 Defy the trials of the way,
 The storm will soon be o'er.
 Soon we shall reach the promised land,
 With all the ransomed race,
 And join with all the glorious band,
 To sing redeeming grace.

PILGRIM, WATCH AND PRAY.

T. E. PERKINS.

1st Time. 2d Time.
 1. Softly on the breath of evening, Comes the tender sigh of day ; }
 Lonely heart, by sorrow laden, } 'T is the time to pray.
Chorus.
 Weary pilgrim, cease thy mourning, Weary pilgrim, cease thy mourning, Rest beyond forever.

844

Watch and pray.

2 'T is the hour when hallowed feelings
 Chase our doubts and fears away ;
 'T is the hour for calm devotion,
 Pilgrim watch and pray.

3 Tho' temptations dark oppress thee,
 Jesus guides thee on the way ;
 He will hear the lightest whisper,
 Pilgrim, watch and pray.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL.

SUPPLEMENT.

THERE IS A FOUNTAIN.

1. There is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins;

And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains;

Lose all their guilt-y stains, Lose all their guilt-y stains;

And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains.

- 1
2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.
- 3 O Lamb of God! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,

- Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.
- 4 And when this lisp'ing, stamm'ring
Lies silent in the grave, [tongue
Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save.

3 Tell me the story softly
With earnest tones, and grave;
Remember! I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.
Tell me, etc.

4 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."
Tell me, etc.

I LOVE TO TELL THE STORY.

WM. G. FISCHER. By per.

1. I love to tell the sto - ry Of un - seen things a - bove, Of

3 I love to tell the story;
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems, each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story;
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy word.
I love to tell, etc.

4 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seen hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be—the old, old story
That I have loved so long.
I love to tell, etc.

HOME OF THE SOUL.

PHILIP PHILLIPS. By per.

And the river of life floweth by;
For no death ever enters that city, you know,
And nothing that maketh a lie.
- 4 That unchangeable home is for you and for me,
Where Jesus of Nazareth stands;
The King of all kingdoms forever is he,
And he holdeth our crowns in his hands.
- 5 Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain!
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again.

THE NINETY AND NINE.

way from the tender Shepherd's care, Away from the tender Shepherd's care.
go to the desert to find my sheep, I go to the desert to find my sheep.

3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed;
Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through.
Ere he found his sheep that was lost;
Out in the desert he heard its cry—
'Twas helpless and sick, and ready to die.

4 And all through the mountains, thunder-
riven,
And up from the rocky steep,
There rose a cry to the gate of heaven,
"Rejoice! I have found my sheep!"
And the angels echoed around the throne,
"Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own."

DOVER. S. M.

English.

1. Great is the Lord our God, He makes the churches his abode,
And let his praise be great; His most delightful seat.

2 These temples of his grace,
How beautiful they stand!
The honors of our native place,
And bulwarks of our land.

WORK, FOR THE NIGHT IS COMING. Dr. MASON, by per.

1. Work, for the night is com-ing, Work thro' the morning hours; Work while the dew is sparkling, Work 'mid springing flow'rs; Work when the day grows brighter,

Cres.
Work in the glowing sun; Work, for the night is coming, When man's work is done.

10

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work, while the night is dark'ning,
When man's work is o'er.

FROM ALL THAT DWELL.

The glories of Jehovah.

2 Who is like God? so great, so high,
He bows himself to view the sky;
And yet, with condescending grace,
Looks down upon the human race.

3 He hears the uncomplaining moan
Of those who sit and weep alone;

He lifts the mourner from the dust;
In him the poor may safely trust.

4 Oh then, aloud, in joyful lays,
Sing to the Lord Jehovah's praise;
His saving Name let all adore,
From age to age, for evermore.

SHAWMUT. S. M.

1. Our sins on Christ were laid; He bore the might-y load;

Our ran-som-price he ful-ly paid In groans, and tears, and blood.

13

He is our Ransom.

2 To save a world he dies;
Sinners, behold the Lamb!
To him lift up your longing eyes;
Seek mercy in his name.

3 Jesus, we look to thee;—
Where else can sinners go?
Thy boundless love hath set us free
From wretchedness and woe.

WAITING.

1. "A lit - tle while," our Lord shall come, And we shall wan - der here no more;
2. "A lit - tle while," he'll come again! Let us the precious hours re - deem;

He'll take us to our Fa - ther's home, Where he for us hath gone be - fore,
Our on - ly grief to give him pain, Our joy to serve and fol - low him;

To dwell with him, to see his face, And sing the glo - ries of his grace.
Watching and read - y may we be, As those who long their Lord to see.

14

3 "A little while," 'twill soon be past,
Why should we shun the shame and
Oh, let us in his footsteps haste, [cross?
Counting for him all else but loss!
Oh, how will recompense his smile,
The sufferings of this "little while."

4 "A little while"—come, Savior, come!
For thee thy Bride has tarried long;
Take thy poor wearied pilgrims home,
To sing the new eternal song,
To sing thy glory, and to be
In every thing conformed to thee.

Ye wanderers from a Father's face,
Return, accept his proffered grace,
Ye tempted ones, there's refuge nigh:
"Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

3 But if you still this call refuse,
And all his wondrous love abuse,
Soon will he sadly from you turn,
Your bitter prayer for pardon spurn.
"Too late! too late!" will be the cry—
"Jesus of Nazareth has passed by."

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

4 Our grateful souls, on Jordan's shore,
Shall raise one sacred pillar more;
Then bear, in thy bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

EVENING HYMN. L. M.

TH. TALLIS.

1. Glo-ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the bless-ings of the light:

Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings! Beneath the shad-ow of thy wings.

26

Hide me under the shadow, etc.

(1189)

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at thy Judgment-day.

4 Be thou my Guardian while I sleep,
Thy watchful station near me keep;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from th' approach of ill.

5 Lord, let my soul forever share
The bliss of thy paternal care;
'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above,
To see thy face, and sing thy love!

WILLINGTON. L. M.

GREATOREX COLL.

1. I love the sa-ered Book of God! No oth-er can its place sup-ply;

It points me to his own a-bode, It gives me wings, and bids me fly.

27

The Book of God.

2 Sweet Book! in thee my eyes discern
The very image of my Lord;
From thine instructive page I learn
The joys his presence will afford.

3 In thee I read my title clear
To mansions that will ne'er decay;—
Dear Lord, oh, when wilt thou appear,
And bear thy prisoner away!

4 While I am here, these leaves supply
His place, and tell me of his love;
I read with faith's discerning eye,
And gain a glimpse of joys above.

5 I know in them the Spirit breathes
To animate his people here;
Oh, may these truths prove life to all,
Till in his presence we appear!

BRADFORD. C. M.

HANDEL.

1. Come, let us join in songs of praise To our as - cend - ed Priest ;

He en - tered heaven, with all our names En - gra - ven on his breast.

28 A merciful and faithful High Priest. (233)

PILESGROVE. L. M.

MITCHELL.

1. Let ev - er - last - ing glo - ries crown Thy head, my Sav - ior and my Lord ;

Thy hands have brought salvation down, And stored the blessings in thy word.

CROSS AND CROWN. C. M.

1. Must Je - sus bear the cross a - lone, And all the world go free?

No, there's a cross for ev' - ry one, And there's a cross for me.

30

2 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.

4 And palms shall wave, and harps shall
Beneath heaven's arches high; [ring,
The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing,
That lives no more to die.

3 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' pierced feet,
Joyful, I'll cast my golden crown,
And his dear name repeat.

5 Oh, precious cross! oh, glorious crown!
Oh, resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the stars come down,
And bear my soul away.

WOODSTOCK. C. M.

D. DUTTON.

1. Dear Fa - ther, to thy mer - cy - seat My soul for shel - ter flies:

'Tis here I find a safe re - treat When storms and tem - pests rise.

31

Psalm 145: 18.

(1309)

1 Dear Father, to thy mercy-seat
My soul for shelter flies:
'Tis here I find a safe retreat
When storms and tempests rise.

3 My great Protector, and my Lord!
Thy constant aid impart;
Oh! let thy kind, thy gracious word
Sustain my trembling heart.

2 My cheerful hope can never die,
If thou, my God, art near;
Thy grace can raise my comforts high,
And banish every fear.

4 Oh, never let my soul remove
From this divine retreat;
Still let me trust thy power and love,
And dwell beneath thy feet.
